and friends. Going from the house to his stable he fed his se, and taking his little girl and a neighlittle boy, some thirteen years old, he on about twenty-five yards from his house the slaughter house. Here was a machine raising dead cattle-a rope with a large ok in it run over a large reel and attached windlass with a ratchet. Adjusting the in a noose round his neck, he playfully the little girl go tell her mother, " somewas hanging out there who looked like Elliott." Then showing the boy exactly how many notches, he bade him, still laughing, draw him up. The boy did so, and drew im off his feet. Once up, he could not beause of the ratchet, get him down, and when answer to the little girls anxiety, Mrs. E. Baker Levi Brady John Burnet W J. Boyle DeWitt C. Boyle DeWitt C. se of the ratchet, get him down, and when manswer to the little girls anxiety, Mrs. E. against his jugular. From all the circumstanit is not doubted that the act was done acidentally, in a burst of playfulness .- Hamil-(Ohio) Intelligencer.

DERIVIERE NOT A NEW HERO .- It would em that the hero of the latest New-York andal case is not unknown to former fame that line in this country. The Peoria (Ill.) anscript says.

"We are assured by a gentleman who has Ester H.J cently returned from New-York, where he recently returned from New-York, where he Francisco Mrs S L saw Captain DERIVIERE, the impudent and indefatigable foreigner of large pretensions who bas lately distinguished himself by running Grant, Peter M way from Mobile with the wife and daughter Griffin, John of a wealthy lawyer, that he is the identical Signor Don P. L. DE MORETO, who turned the Grist, Miss Eliza ds of all the Chicago belles a year ago, anght a thousand-dollar horse with borrowed ney, got up a magnificent excursion to Hyde Park, which was patronized by the wives of a stinguished Senator and a well-known Chicalawyer, and finally becoming suspected, amosed for parts unknown, leaving behind a arge number of anxious creditors, brokenearted young misses with mortified and disapointed mammas, an astonished city, half a ozen happy local newspaper reporters, and we trunks filled with dirty linen and cravats.

A Horse LIVING TWO MONTHS WITHOUT D.-A man, named Kirkland residing on enter street, near Seneca, left the city about o months ago, without giving notice to any e. On Saturday, Mr. Barker, a wagon aker on Seneca street, discovered that a orse was in the barn formerly used by Mr. Kirkland. On entering the stable the horse as found lying down and too weak to rise. e animal had eaten everything within its each, gnawed the wood of the manger and or, and in its agony had apparently bitten mself. During all this time the horse so far s can be ascertained, could have had access no water or food. Mr. Barker gave the imal a little water and meal, and yesterday was still alive. We give the facts as they re reported to us, but it seems almost imposble that a horse could live such a length of me without food or drink .- Buffalo Cour.

FANCY GOODS and MilLMNERY, either wholesale or retail of them at No. 5. Union Block, in the aforesaid village of Elmira. N. Y.

Their facilities are certainly unsurpassed: as one member of the firm is on the spot all the while, consulting the tastes and wants of their numerous customers, whilst another of the firm is daily in the auction rooms and importing houses in New York City, securing the newest and most desirable goods at the very lowest rate, (as they buy exclusively for cash) and as they self for cash only they have no losses to make up, and consequently can and do self so cheap as to defy competition. Time and space preclude the possibility of mentioning half or quarter of the many inducements which are offered to all to trade at their popular establishment, and the New Advertisements will from week to week give but a limited idea of the many advantages to be derived by calling on A.
