S. Grand Jury for Rescuing a Fugirive Stave.—It will be remembered that on the Stave.—It will be remembered that on the 13th of September last, a slave named "Little 13th of September last debtof two hundred and sixty sollars against said Church, and it is for the purpose of procuring means to the series of the sale of two hundred and sixty sollars against said Church, and it is for the purpose of procuring means to the friends of two hundred and sixty sollars against said Chur ned at Wellington, a few miles from Oberlin. The citizens of the latter place held a glorification meeting, and determined to resist, for the future, any and every attempt to arrest a negro at Oberlin. The recollection of the affair has mostly died away, but its history is revived by the recent act of the United States credited. Grand Jury at Cleveland, who have brought their labors to a close by finding true bills against thirty-seven of the ringleaders in this affairs, including the Rev. Henry Peck Proessor in Oberlin College, the Rev. James M. Fitch, formerly Missionary to Jamaica, several theological students, five fugitive slaves, and thirty other citizens of all colors.

The two clergymen and eleven others, are indicted for aiding and abetting the rescue of the negro, and the remaining twenty-four are ndicted for the rescue itself. It is surmised that whatever course the white men and free negroes may adopt in regard to exposing themselves to trial, the fugitive slaves among the indicted will at least disappear from the scene and take the underground railroad for some more secure retreat .- Commercial Advertiser.

A TRAGERY-SAD EFFECT OF PASSION -Some twelve or fourteen years ago, Harlow Case was a respectable and esteemed citizen of Buffalo. He held the place of Assistant Postmaster under Mr. Dorsheimer, and was for many years intrusted with the most important duties of the office. A member of one of the of the Baptist Churches, upright in every walk of life, married and the father of a family, he seemed to be as firm in the straight forward paths of virtue as any other. Removing to Sandusky, Ohio, he received the appointment of Collector of the Port under Mr. Fillmore. The appointment was one universally approved and the numerous friends of Case, in this city, were rejoiced at his success in life. While holding that office, he was intimate in the family of a Mr. F., one of his assistants, Mrs. F. was the will continue 14 weeks, exclusive of a week's vacation at tachment grew up between the two, which remained unsuspected until the truth was made known by the sudden elopement of Case with Mrs. F., and the simultaneous discovery that he had absconded with government funds to the amount of some $44,000. From that time forword nearly all traces of the guilty party was lost. The family of Case, bereaved and betrayed, remained hopeless in their grief. Mr. F. engaged in a long, but fruitless chase of the fugitives. And now from off the sea come tidings, a broken, half-told story of lonely wan-derings in foreign lands; a full recital of a never-failing remorse, with pitiful and solitary deaths in far away islands and on the far away waters of the Indian Ocean. Both victims of unhallowed passion are asleep--the mother in the groves of Ceylon, the little child in the coral forests of the sea. The betrayer still wanders the earth, the heavy hand of an avenging God upon him, and sends to his abandoned home this message of sorrow .- Buffalo Com. Adv.,

A SON OF THUNDER .- The Southern Citizen, the new fire eater's organ, is out at Washington. It thus announces its terrible intentions. We devote it to the support of the Southern cause—the Southern cause in that form which our enemies, call extreme, ultra, aggressive, &c. and to save trouble, and let our whole hand at once, what we require on the part of the South First. Repeal of all laws prohibiting the foreign slave trade, or imposing penalties there-Second. Repeal of the law abolishing the slave trade in the District of Columbia.

Third. Absolute resistance to everything in the nature of a Compromise between North and South.

Fourth. Peremptory demand for the intervention of Congress, President and Supreme Court for slavery in all Territories, the moment a slaveholder brings his slave there. In other words intervention by the authorities to sustain the law and prevent robbery.

These are the days of political quackery, and he fares best who makes the ugliest mouths and biggest talk.

The escape of the fillibuster steamer Susan, from Mobile, with one hundred and forty "emigrants," was in consequence of the revenue cutter McClelland, sent in pursuit, having got a ground in Navy Cove.
