

News from all Nations.

The favorable reports of the mining operations at Pike's Peak are confirmed, and the gold is said to be more abundant than in California.

An active emigration to the gold and silver mines of Arizona is setting in from Texas and Arkansas.

The Pacific Telegraph line has been completed to Lexington, Mo., three hundred miles west of St. Louis.

A general jail delivery occurred at Rochester Prison on Sunday night.

Across the face of Prussian bank-notes is printed some fifty times, in very small type, the penalty for counterfeiting.

The Chicago (Ill.) Press says that mails are received daily in the post office of that city.

On the night of the 2nd inst., John H. Brownson, Esq., son of O. A. Brownson of the "Review" jumped, while in a state of somnambulism.

At Columbia, S. C., in the case of the Echo Judge Magrath has refused to discharge the prisoners, and they are remanded for trial.

A destructive fire has occurred at Cairo, Ill. The "Springfield Block" was burned, and the total loss is about $30,000.

A correspondent of a Southern paper nominates Henry M. Fuller, of this State, for President, and Benjamin G. Hill, of Georgia, for Vice President.

Mr. Cass, our Minister at Rome, has obtained a special dispensation from the Pope to allow a beautiful young lady in the Convent at Georgetown to renounce the veil and return to the world.

It is proposed, in New York, to use coal oil for fuel instead of coal. It is computed that six gallons of oil would be equal to a ton of coal.

The Senate was not in session, having adjourned over from Thursday to Monday.

The House was engaged all day in the consideration of the private calendar—the bill providing for the examination and payment of the claims of citizens of Georgia and Alabama.

On the 7th, Hoffman sent a messenger for Pettit, requesting him to call at his house, as he desired to see him.

Moses Bailey, an employee at the Washington Foundry, Baltimore, Md., was roasted alive at the furnace of that establishment on Tuesday afternoon.

A few days ago, the wife of a farmer residing near Shippenburg, Pa., hearing the dogs barking violently, went out and found them worrying a large buck.

The whole of the remaining victims of the "Gouldy tragedy" have recovered, except the servant girl, who is still at the New York Hospital, and is slowly improving.

The President has nominated F. W. Latham, Esq., of Texas, to the Collectorship of the port of Brazos Santiago, rice district.

A fire occurred in Carlisle, Friday morning, destroying five dwelling houses.

The Mississippi Legislature adjourned on the 23d inst., and the Legislature of Georgia on the 13th.

The friends of Dartmouth College are making an effort to raise a fund of $100,000 for its benefit.

There are now but thirty Indian warriors in Florida, and they will probably emigrate in two months.

The Rev. Thomas K. Beecher, of Elmira, has just been appointed a captain of militia.

The United States steam frigate Niagara, has returned to New York. Seventy-one of the negroes died on their passage out to Liberia.

Bradford Reporter.

E. O. GOODRICH, EDITOR.

TOWANDA :

Thursday Morning, December 23, 1858.

TERMS.—One Dollar per annum, invariably in advance.

CLIPPING.—The Reporter will be sent to Clubs at the following extremely low rates:

ADVERTISEMENTS.—For a square of ten lines or less, One Dollar for three or less insertions, and twenty-five cents for each subsequent insertion.

JOBS.—Executed with accuracy and despatch, and at reasonable prices—with every facility for doing Books, Blankets, Handbills, Ball tickets, &c.

Money may be sent by mail, at our risk—enclosed in an envelope, and properly directed, we will be responsible for its safe delivery.

The next number of the Reporter will be dated January 6, 1859, as in pursuance of our usual custom, we shall not visit our subscribers next week.

MUSICAL CONVENTIONS.—The Choral Union Association, has advertised a second annual Musical Convention, at LeRaysville, commencing on Tuesday last, and to close with a Concert on Christmas Eve.

The Bradford County Musical Association will hold the Fifth Annual Musical Convention at this place, commencing on Tuesday, 18th of January, 1859.

The Royal Mail Steamship Arabia, from Liverpool on the morning of the 4th inst., with one week's later advice, arrived at Halifax at 10 o'clock, Friday.

The House Committee on Territories held a meeting on Friday morning, at which Mr. Grov proposed an amendment to the Senate's Oregon bill.

When the bill comes up in the House, an attempt will be made to engraft the same amendment, which it is expected will be sustained by the Anti-Leocompton members.

SENATOR SUMNER.—A correspondent of the Evening Post says that Mr. Sumner left Paris in the latter part of November, for some quiet town in the South of France.

THE GOULDY FAMILY.—The wounded members of this family are now considered out of danger, and, with the exception of Mr. Gouldy are able to be about the house.

A terrible steam boiler explosion occurred in the sugar refinery of Mr. BELCHER, in St. Louis, on Saturday, by which four persons were killed and several others were severely wounded.

The Elmira Gazette says: Two buildings were consumed by fire at Wellsburg on Monday night, one a tenement belonging to Abner Wells.

GEN. KEM, who was elected to succeed J. Glancy Jones, took his seat on Monday at Washington. He was an unsuccessful candidate against Jones in 1854.

CANCERI AGAIN CONVICTED.—Canceri, the Italian burglar, who murdered a policeman, has again been convicted of the offence in the Criminal Court of New York city.

LOCOMOTIVE EXPLOSION.—On Wednesday the 8th inst., an engine on the New York & Erie Railroad, while drawing a freight train west of Owego Depot, near the bridge, exploded with a terrific noise scattering its pieces far and wide.

A letter from Mr. Dallas to Secretary Cass, giving the substance of a conversation with the Earl of Malmesbury, is among the documents on Central American affairs communicated to Congress by the President.

The Royal Mail Steamship Arabia, from Liverpool on the morning of the 4th inst., with one week's later advice, arrived at Halifax at 10 o'clock, Friday.

The House Committee on Territories held a meeting on Friday morning, at which Mr. Grov proposed an amendment to the Senate's Oregon bill.

When the bill comes up in the House, an attempt will be made to engraft the same amendment, which it is expected will be sustained by the Anti-Leocompton members.

SENATOR SUMNER.—A correspondent of the Evening Post says that Mr. Sumner left Paris in the latter part of November, for some quiet town in the South of France.

THE GOULDY FAMILY.—The wounded members of this family are now considered out of danger, and, with the exception of Mr. Gouldy are able to be about the house.

A terrible steam boiler explosion occurred in the sugar refinery of Mr. BELCHER, in St. Louis, on Saturday, by which four persons were killed and several others were severely wounded.

The Elmira Gazette says: Two buildings were consumed by fire at Wellsburg on Monday night, one a tenement belonging to Abner Wells.

GEN. KEM, who was elected to succeed J. Glancy Jones, took his seat on Monday at Washington. He was an unsuccessful candidate against Jones in 1854.

CANCERI AGAIN CONVICTED.—Canceri, the Italian burglar, who murdered a policeman, has again been convicted of the offence in the Criminal Court of New York city.

LOCOMOTIVE EXPLOSION.—On Wednesday the 8th inst., an engine on the New York & Erie Railroad, while drawing a freight train west of Owego Depot, near the bridge, exploded with a terrific noise scattering its pieces far and wide.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

On Monday, the 13th inst., Court was called at 10 A. M., pursuant to adjournment, and after holding a short session, adjourned to meet again in the afternoon at two o'clock.

Com. vs. Henry Simpson.—Indictment for Larceny on a charge of stealing sheep, the property of T. B. Merrill of Litchfield.

Com. vs. Russell Hadlock and Hezekiah Townsend.—Indictment for Larceny—on a charge of stealing one sheep the property of T. B. Merrill.

Com. vs. Hezekiah Townsend and Henry Simpson.—Indictment for Larceny—on a charge of stealing different articles of clothing the property of John Seguire.

Com. vs. Ozias Ferguson.—Indictment for Robbery on a charge of breaking into the house of Thomas Cangley.

Com. vs. Morris Sage.—Indictment for petit larceny. Defendant was charged with stealing two and a half bushels of wheat.

Com. vs. Hiram Matson.—Indictment for petit larceny, for stealing honey. Defendant pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to pay a fine of one dollar and costs.

Henry I. Ross vs. Springfield Township.—Plaintiff's claim was for work done upon the roads. After proceeding with the trial, plaintiff took a non pros, and jury was discharged.

Clark Hyatt vs. A. B. Smith.—A jury being called in this case, settlement of parties was filed.

Sarah L. Fitch vs. O. P. Ballard.—A rule was granted at September term to show cause why a new trial should not be granted.

John W. Woodburn vs. Moses Canfield.—The jury return a verdict for plaintiff for the sum of $154 77.

John Dougherty vs. Hiram Horton.—The jury find for the plaintiff a verdict of $—.

Silas Price vs. A. B. Smith impleaded with Israel Smith.—Verdict for the plaintiff for the sum of $184 74.

DRY GOODS IN ELMIRA.—We were surprised a few days since, on learning through a friend "who had been there," to what extent the dry goods business is carried on in Elmira.

LIBERTY CONGRESS, Pa., Nov. 15.—The Rev. Charles Mc Dougall, who has been invited to give the opening prayer at the annual meeting of the Bradford County, Pa., Convention, has declined to do so.

NEWS OFFICE.—To supply the demands of the community, RICHARD PAYNE has established, at the Office, a NEWS DEPARTMENT, where he is ready to furnish the Magazines, Periodicals and Newspapers of all Persons wishing anything in the news line will find it their advantage to order of him.

THE GROSSER FARMER.—We desire to call the attention of our farmer friends to the fact that we have prepared a paper that cannot be too highly commended—eminently practical and scientific, and containing matter interesting and useful to every farmer and agriculturist.

THE GREAT REPUBLIC MONTHLY.—The first number of this new monthly found its way to you. It is a splendid periodical, and in our opinion the best of the kind published in this or any other country.

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY.—A new volume of this excellent periodical commences with the January number. The Atlantic has already met with the decided favor of the public, and may be set down as a success.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—ELDER SETH W. WOODRUFF will preach at the Baptist Church, in town next Sabbath, 29th inst., at 2 o'clock, P. M.

NOTICE.—The Bradford County Medical Society will meet at the Keystone Hotel, in town, on FRIDAY, JANUARY 5, 1859, at 8 o'clock, P. M.

WESLEYAN FAIR.—The members and friends of the Wesleyan Church are invited to attend the annual fair, which will be held at the Wesleyan School, in town, on THURSDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1858.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—ELDER SETH W. WOODRUFF will preach at the Baptist Church, in town next Sabbath, 29th inst., at 2 o'clock, P. M.

NOTICE.—The Bradford County Medical Society will meet at the Keystone Hotel, in town, on FRIDAY, JANUARY 5, 1859, at 8 o'clock, P. M.

WESLEYAN FAIR.—The members and friends of the Wesleyan Church are invited to attend the annual fair, which will be held at the Wesleyan School, in town, on THURSDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1858.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—ELDER SETH W. WOODRUFF will preach at the Baptist Church, in town next Sabbath, 29th inst., at 2 o'clock, P. M.

NOTICE.—The Bradford County Medical Society will meet at the Keystone Hotel, in town, on FRIDAY, JANUARY 5, 1859, at 8 o'clock, P. M.

WESLEYAN FAIR.—The members and friends of the Wesleyan Church are invited to attend the annual fair, which will be held at the Wesleyan School, in town, on THURSDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1858.