THE SUBSCHIPERS have just issued an engraving of MOUNT VERNON, from original draw-ings, and printed in oil colors. The size of the engraving is fifteen inches by twenty, with a vignette of the Tomb of Washington appended, making the whole printed surface eighteen by twenty inches. In order to the perfection of the work it will be printed on a beautiful double-calendared plate paper of extra weight. extra weight.

extra weight. The drawings were recently made, especially for this publication, by Mr. C. H. WELLS, of this city, under whose supervision the engraving and the entire printing has been conducted. The picture is printed by a new process, by which two thousand copies are produced in the same time as two-bundred and fifty can be by any other mole. From this fact, and in the anticipation of a very large sale, they have determined to place the work at the merely nominal price of Pifty Cents a come. determined to preserve of Fifty Cents a copy.
