

Bradford Reporter.

E. O. GOODRICH, EDITOR.

TOWANDA:

Wednesday Morning, Sept 21, 1859.

TEARS.—One dollar per annum, payable in advance.—Envelopes to contain the copy of a subscription notice will be given by a printed wrapper, and if not received, the paper will in all cases be stopped.

CLIPPING.—The Reporter will be sent to Clubs at the following extremely low rates:—
5 copies..... $1.00
10 copies..... $0.90
20 copies..... $0.80
40 copies..... $0.75

ADVERTISEMENTS.—For a square of two lines or less, $1.00; for three or less insertion, and twenty-five cents for each subsequent insertion.

Job-Work.—Excuted with promptness and despatch, and reasonable charges with every facility for doing Books, Blanks, Hand-bills, Banners, &c. Numerous offices of good and ready workmen. It is now time to nominate Republican Candidates.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL.

THOMAS E. COCHRANE, OF YORK Co.,

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL.

WILLIAM H. KEIM, OF BIRKS CO.

FOR SENATOR.

E. REED MYER, OF BRADFORD Co.

[Subject to the decision of the Conference.]

FOR REPRESENTATIVES.

THOMAS SMEAD, OF SPRINGFIELD,

O. H. P. KINNEY, OF SHILOH QUIN-

CE, FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

GUY H. WATKINS, OF TOWANDA Tp.

FOR TREASURER.

WM. GRIFFIS, OF STANDING STONE.

FOR COMMISSIONERS.

WILLIAM A. THOMAS, OF TROY Tp.

FOR COUNTY SURVEYOR.

JAMES J. NEWELL, OF ORWELL.

FOR SUPERVISOR.

JERE. TRAVIS, Jr., OF BURLINGTON.

THE SENATORIAL CONFERENCE.

Contrary to the expectation of the Republicans of this District, the Senatorial Conference which met at Camptown, adjourned on Wednesday morning, without effecting a nomination. One hundred and ninety-two ballots were had, the Conference adhering generally to the choice of their respective counties, though a vote or two was changed occasionally, as a matter of variety, and policy probably. The last ballot stood Myer 5, Jessup 4, Smith 3, not as stated by us last week.

From all we can learn, there seemed to be no disposition manifested by the friends of either of the candidates to yield their preferences for the welfare of the party: and as a nomination appeared impossible at that time, it was thought best to adjourn and afford time for ascertaining the sentiments and wishes of the people.

The Conference meets again according to adjournment, at the same place, on Monday next. The prolonged voting, and difficulty of agreement, have heightened the interest with which the Republicans of the District await its action, and deepened the anxiety felt that the result shall be such as will contribute to the welfare and harmony of the party. It is not our place to proffer any advice as to the manner of arranging the difficulty, because each County has selected Conference in whose hands is placed full power to act in such manner as in their judgment is proper, with a due regard to the interests of the candidates and the good of the Republican party. Upon the Conference is now thrown the whole responsibility of whatever of evil may result from the action of the Conference. They are gentlemen who thoroughly understand and appreciate their positions, and will, we have no doubt, conscientiously discharge their duties.

Now are we disposed to discuss now the other questions of locality, of right, and of individual preference, which have hitherto prevented a majority of the Conferences from agreeing upon a candidate. We suppose all the candidates have an equal right to be such, and an equal claim to the steady and persistent support of the Conference voting for them. But it is plain to the dullest comprehension, that with all the gentlemen named as candidates, there can be no nominations. If the Conferences from each County persistently adhere to their first choice, no man can have a majority of all the votes, and balloting a thousand times is a foolish and idle ceremony. To separate without making a nomination is a result to be deplored by every Republican, which could not fail to bring present disaster, and to sow the seed for a large crop of ill-feeling and difficulty in the future.

We appeal therefore, to every opponent of the administration, to go to work at once and unite with the neighbors and friends in accomplishing all the work needed to bring out a full vote this year. Bradford county is under pledge to give a rousing majority to the State ticket, and it behoves you to redeem the pledge. Friends I see to your districts, respectively, without further delay the incentive to guide every Conference. It is difficult to say which shall surrender their choice, because each County seems to have set up claims upon the office for the next term—Bradford, is presenting with great unanimity our late able and efficient member for re-election, does so with the knowledge that Wyoming and Susquehanna have both furnished Senators within the past few years, while the Republicans of Bradford compose a large majority of the Republican strength of the District. There seems to be a propriety in the request she makes that her almost unanimous choice shall be confirmed by the Conference.

If the Conference shall, unfortunately, adjoin without a nomination, the Republicans of the District should place the responsibility where it justly belongs, and hold to a strict accountability all who shall plunge us into the midst of such great danger. It will not avail to say that the differences are irreconcileable.

The members of the Conference have not been elected to create discord, but to arrange the diverse interests in such a manner as to promote the harmony of the party. If a different spirit shall prevail, and calamity come upon the Republican party, let the authors of it beware the just indignation of the increased people's to live and tools of trade. No scruples exist among us, but a general paroxysm of Hatred to the State ticket, and to all who voted for it.

THE STATE TICKET.—Not to be confused with the State ticket, and to avoid

Do our friends realize that is only three weeks to the election? The time is slipping rapidly away, and as yet but little has been done. If anything is to be done, it must be done soon. We have a watchful and wary enemy to fight, and it will require all our vigilance to keep him under.

The significance of the present contest lies in the fact that its result will be taken as an index of the fight in 1860. It may be that the result will not be a fair index of what is to follow; but it will be so regarded.

The party that carries Pennsylvania in 1859 will be considered able to carry it in 1860; and the party that can carry Pennsylvania in 1860 will be able to decide the Presidential contest.

Neither party can succeed without this State.

Our friends will see, at once, from these premises, that the whole Presidential contest hinges on the result in Pennsylvania this fall. If we carry the State, as we are able to do on a full vote, it gives us, not merely the power of deciding the Presidential contest itself, but the party that carries Pennsylvania in 1860 will be able to decide the Presidential contest.

Arrangements have been made at the Bridge for the passage of all stock, (except horses), intended for the Fair, free of toll, and for horses certified to have been on exhibition the toll will be refunded. The toll on teams, etc., will be but one price for going and returning.

The usual arrangements have been made for the safety and comfort of articles and animals on exhibition.

The Annual Address is to be delivered by

Hon. A. S. Davis, at 2 o'clock, P.M., of the

7th. Mr. D. is an eminently practical man, of

ability, and is more on the present occasion,

of some good sense.

The Annual Address is to be delivered by

Hon. A. S. Davis, at 2 o'clock, P.M., of the

7th. Mr. D. is an eminently practical man, of

ability, and is more on the present occasion,

of some good sense.

The Annual Address is to be delivered by

Hon. A. S. Davis, at 2 o'clock, P.M., of the

7th. Mr. D. is an eminently practical man, of

ability, and is more on the present occasion,

of some good sense.

The Annual Address is to be delivered by

Hon. A. S. Davis, at 2 o'clock, P.M., of the

7th. Mr. D. is an eminently practical man, of

ability, and is more on the present occasion,

of some good sense.

The Annual Address is to be delivered by

Hon. A. S. Davis, at 2 o'clock, P.M., of the

7th. Mr. D. is an eminently practical man, of

ability, and is more on the present occasion,

of some good sense.

The Annual Address is to be delivered by

Hon. A. S. Davis, at 2 o'clock, P.M., of the

7th. Mr. D. is an eminently practical man, of

ability, and is more on the present occasion,

of some good sense.

The Annual Address is to be delivered by

Hon. A. S. Davis, at 2 o'clock, P.M., of the

7th. Mr. D. is an eminently practical man, of

ability, and is more on the present occasion,

of some good sense.

The Annual Address is to be delivered by

Hon. A. S. Davis, at 2 o'clock, P.M., of the

7th. Mr. D. is an eminently practical man, of

ability, and is more on the present occasion,

of some good sense.

The Annual Address is to be delivered by

Hon. A. S. Davis, at 2 o'clock, P.M., of the

7th. Mr. D. is an eminently practical man, of

ability, and is more on the present occasion,

of some good sense.

The Annual Address is to be delivered by

Hon. A. S. Davis, at 2 o'clock, P.M., of the

7th. Mr. D. is an eminently practical man, of

ability, and is more on the present occasion,

of some good sense.

The Annual Address is to be delivered by

Hon. A. S. Davis, at 2 o'clock, P.M., of the

7th. Mr. D. is an eminently practical man, of

ability, and is more on the present occasion,

of some good sense.

The Annual Address is to be delivered by

Hon. A. S. Davis, at 2 o'clock, P.M., of the

7th. Mr. D. is an eminently practical man, of

ability, and is more on the present occasion,

of some good sense.

The Annual Address is to be delivered by

Hon. A. S. Davis, at 2 o'clock, P.M., of the

7th. Mr. D. is an eminently practical man, of

ability, and is more on the present occasion,

of some good sense.

The Annual Address is to be delivered by

Hon. A. S. Davis, at 2 o'clock, P.M., of the

7th. Mr. D. is an eminently practical man, of

ability, and is more on the present occasion,

of some good sense.

The Annual Address is to be delivered by

Hon. A. S. Davis, at 2 o'clock, P.M., of the

7th. Mr. D. is an eminently practical man, of

ability, and is more on the present occasion,

of some good sense.

The Annual Address is to be delivered by

Hon. A. S. Davis, at 2 o'clock, P.M., of the

7th. Mr. D. is an eminently practical man, of

ability, and is more on the present occasion,

of some good sense.

The Annual Address is to be delivered by

Hon. A. S. Davis, at 2 o'clock, P.M., of the

7th. Mr. D. is an eminently practical man, of

ability, and is more on the present occasion,

of some good sense.

The Annual Address is to be delivered by

Hon. A. S. Davis, at 2 o'clock, P.M., of the

7th. Mr. D. is an eminently practical man, of

ability, and is more on the present occasion,

of some good sense.

The Annual Address is to be delivered by

Hon. A. S. Davis, at 2 o'clock, P.M., of the

7th. Mr. D. is an eminently practical man,