The Great Balloon Voyage.

the clouds. At 5.50 they were at least two miles high-thermometer 34 degrees They continued to ascend very rapidly, and at 6.10 the thermometer indicated a temperature of 18 degrees. The bailoon then began to descend, At about half past seven they descended into a valley near a high mountain, but as the place looked forbidding they threw over 30 pounds of ballast and rose again. In about twenty been left, but finding her very much torn, minutes they made another effort to descend. but found themselves surrounded by a dense wil derness and over a small lake. They then threw over all their ballast but 18 pourds, and after of civilization they were treated with much getting over the wilderness, settled down by the side of a tree to wait till morning. Much rain fell through the night, and they became thoroughly drenched with it. At about six o'clock next morning they threw overboard all their remaining ballast, blankets, shawls, &c., and rose again. They were rapidly driven northward over an unbroken wilderness, and concluded that they had gone too far. Mr. HADLOCK Says :

'As the current was driving us still to the north, we dare not stay up, as we were drifting further and still further to that 'frozen tide' from which we knew there was no escape. Mr. La M. seized the valve cord and discharged gas, and we descended in safety by the side of a tall spruce. We made the Atlantic fast by her anchor, and for a moment talked over to eat; no protection at night from the damp ground; were distant we knew not how far from habitation ; were hungry to start with ; no earthly hope of raising a fire, and no distinct idea as to where we were. We settled in our own minds that we were either in John Brown's tract or in the great Canada wilder. ness-to the south, we thought, of the Ottawa -and knew that a course south by east would take us out, if we had strength enough to travel the distance. La M. stepped up to the balloon and gave the edge of the basket a parting shake, saying, 'Good bye, old Atlantic,' and I fancied I could see a tear in his honest eye when he said it."

on Friday by the unknown creek, they discov- us off to the northward at the rate of 100 ered an uninhabited lumber shanty, in which miles an hour, we soon reached a country not they spent the night. The next morning they pleasant nor profitable to land a balloon in built a raft, in the hope that could be floated out of the wilderness, as the lumber is floated out in the spring : but they encountered great difficulties from the shallowness of the HADDOCK says:

"It had now been four full days since we we time was a frog apiece, four clams, and a few wild berries, whose acid properties and bitter good. Our strength was beginning to fail very had means to make a fire-we had none.

les appeared to thicken

could get no response. We kept our poles I called La Mountain's attention to what I Diana of the Ephesians. Such a revulsion of feeling was almost too much and credited anything favorable to our condi- that State. tion with the utmost caution. Our bitter disappointments had taught us that lesson.

We paddled the raft with the ends of our poles directly across the lake, near, perhaps, three-fourths of a mile wide, and made for the canoe. It proved to be a large one, evidently Up the bank I pressed, leaving La Mountain at the canoe to cut off a retreat by the Indian, in case he was timid and wished to avoid us. I came at once upon the shanties of a lumbering wood, and from the chimney of the furthest building a broad volume of smoke was rising. I halloed—a noise was heard inside and a noble-looking Indian came to the door. 'Vous parlez Francais?' was my eager inquiry as I grasped his outstretched hand. 'Yes.sir and English, too,' He drew me into the cabin and there was the head of the party, a noblehearted Scotchman, named Angus Cameron, of Jas McMillen, in Havana, got into a dis I immediately told my story—that we came in pute with one Bradford Campbell about some with a balloon, were lost, and had been four days without food, asking where we were .--Imagine my surprise when he said we were one that he died from the injuries inflicted. hundred and fifty miles due north of Ottawa -in the dense, uninhabited forest, whose only limit was the Arctic circle. In a word, we in jail at Havana.

from Watertown, in latitude 47. ed of four persons-Mr. Cameron, and his as Branch Railroad at Havana, was broken into, sistant, who was also named Cameron ; LaMab and an effort made to open the iron safe of MacDougall-a half-breed-and his son Pean- the U. S. Express Company. Burglars sucabsolute picture of wretchedness. All that the been discovered. cabin contained was freely tendered us, and we began to eat. Language is inadequate to ex were nearly 300 miles in a due north course

"Here let me state that the stream we came down so far with our raft is called Filliman's The Watertown (N. Y.) Reformer of the 5th instant contains an account of the Balloon Bostekong lake and drains into Bosketong ascension of Mr. La Mountain and Mr. Hab- river, which flows into the Catineau. The DOCK, from Watertown on Thursday, the 22d Catinane joins the Ottawa opposite Ottawa ult, written by the latter. They ascended at City. Mr. Cameron assured us that these 5 33 P. M., and in six minutes were far above streams are so tortuous, and in many places so rapid, that no set of men could get a raft down no matter how well they knew the country, nor how much provisions they might have. regarded our deliverance as purely Providential, and many times remarked that we certainand a quantity of ballast was thrown over .- ly would have perished but for seeing this

Under the guidance of Mr. CAMERON they returned to the place where the balloon had concluded to abandon her. A party of Indians then accompanied them out of the wilderness, and on their return to the regions kindness.

Mr. HADCOCK concludes his narrative as follows : "Several general conclusions and remarks shall terminate this narrative, already too long. 'Why did you permit yourselves to go so far?' will naturally be asked. To which we can only reply that the wind was exceedingly light when we ascended; that we were very soon among the clouds, and consequently unable to take cognizance of our course, or to judge how fast we were travelling. Perhaps it is well balloon you are utterly unconscious of motion, unless you can see the earth. Nor can you tell, by a compass, in which direction you are travelling unless you are sufficient of an astronomer to judge from the shifting angles formwhat we should do. We had not a mouthful ed by certain stars. In a word, if you cannot see the earth, you cannot tell how fast nor in which direction you move. This will, perhaps explain why we unconsciously drifted off to thick masses of clouds, before sundown, we undoubtedly struck a rapid current which carried us northeast. It is my opinion that, after we had travelled in this current about an hour, we altitude, which bore us off to the northwest. When we descended near the earth the first time, we ought to have come down; but we were unwilling to land at night in a deep wood, They then started to the south, on foot, and out a better place. This was our error, and it after travelling about a mile and a half came to came very near being a fatal one to us-it the bank of a small creek, upon which they certainly was so to the Atlantic. In trying found an old pork barrel with a Montreal in- to find our 'botter place' to land, we were unspection mark upon it, from which they con- consciously up longer than we supposed, and of the late election Judge Terry sent a chal-

Politics in Minnesota.

The distinguished Pennsylvania champion of waters, and from entering large lakes where Freedom and Free Labor, Hon GALUSHA A. they lost the channel entirely. Thus several Grow, has just returned from a visit to Minweary days of suffering were passed away. Mr. nesota The editor of the Pittsburg Commercial Journal, who had an interview with reports from Paris respecting the settlement him in that city, says his opinion is, that nothate a meal. All we had eaten in the mean ing but enormous frauds can prevent the success of Alexander Ramsey, the Republican Gubernatorial nominee, and the election of the taste had probably done us more harm than Republican Congressional ticket. We hope and Austria will speedily be signed, but that fast, and our systems were evidently about to time, and that the Republicans will not be undergo an extraordinary change. I did not again cheated out of their certificates. Mr. permit myself to think of food-the thought G.'s report confirms what we have before heard of a well-covered table would have been too in regard to Minnesota being in a blaze of exmuch. I thought over all of poor Strain's citement. Her people, while in a Territorial at Brussels, under the Presidency of the King sufferings on the Isthmus of Darien, where he, condition, could not take part in our Presiden of the Belgians, and that the Archduke Maytoo, was paddling a raft down an unknown tial excitements, and are disposed to make up stream, but never believed he could stand half for that by a breeze now. Quite a number of the amount of suffering he did. Besides, he her principal nominees and voters are old Pennsylvanians. Mr. Grow tells a good anecdote ers. "He was upon a stream which he knew of the eloquent and eccentric Tom Marshall. would lead to the sea and safety-we were up- of Kentucky, who was making a tour of that on waters whose flow we knew really nothing State, and accidentally was present at a Hoof, and were as much lost as though in the of, and were as much lost as though in the tel when a political discussion was being held. The Fox, which she sent to mountains of the noon. But we 'could not The type of Democracy there represented was give it up so,' and took fresh courage as troub- of the Douglas stripe, and they had heard that the Artic regions last year, has returned, bring-Tom Marshall was one of them. He, howev- ing precise intelligence of the death of SIR Well, we turned the raft around, and er, utterly refused to be called out, but they John Franklin, with positive information as poled her back toward the place where we had only shouted the louder, "Marshall! Marshentered this last lake. We had gone about a all ! !" Finally Tom mounted the portico of mile when we heard the sound of a gun, quick- the hotel, and discussed political affairs in his ly followed by a second report. No sound pleasant way. He began to give the history was ever so sweet to me as that. We halloed of the Missouri Compromise-warmed up and 25th of April, 1848-nearly a year later-had as loud as we could a good many times, but became even more than himself in his eloquent description of the merits of that measure going, and had gone about half a mile, when He compared it to the magnificent temple of "But," says he, thought was a smoke curling up among the "there were 'little giants' in those days. One trees on the side of a hill. My own eyesight of the most ambitious of these had long adhad begun to fail me to an extent that I could mired this work of art—he knew he could nevnot depend upon it when a long, steady gaze er equal it-what do you think the little raswas necessary. He said it was smoke, and cal did? Why, he applied a torch and burnt that he thought just below it, on the bank, was it to the ground !" Tom launched off on some a bark canoe. In a few moments the blue other subject, but the Douglas Democracy could smoke rolled gently yet unmistakably, above the not be found, when his speech was ended, to that the United States troops on San Juan sult must be particularly gratifying to Mr. Sones and his tree tops, and we felt that we were saved .- return him thanks. The felicitous manner in which this description was given is said to for us. We could hardly believe our senses have exceeded anything ever before heard in

> A NOTHER BREACH OF PROMISE. - A wretch in the form of a man, was, a tew weeks since, introduced to a lovely and confiding girl of sixteen. He pressed her hand and said in a thril ling tone that he thought the recent cold than ever.' She blushed and said 'very.'-Her parents considered the thing settled, but he basely deserted the young lady, and her friends have instituted a suit to recover from into fragments their lovely hearts.

> MAN KILLED AT HAVANA .- A man by the name of Edward Fleming, while in the store whiskey. The dispute ended in a fight in which Campbell kicked Fleming so severely

> Campbell was indicted by the Grand Jury in session at Watkins last week. He is now

BURGLARY AT HAVANA .- On Wednesday "Dinner was all ready. The party consist- night the 21st., the Depot of the Chemnng press our sensations while doing so. The Arnole Smith of Friendship, Allegany county, buildings were destroyed, together with their clouds had all lifted from our sombre future, was suddenly struck and killed by a limb from contents. The estimated loss amount to about and the silver lining shone all the brighter for a falling tree, while out in company with sev- $250,000-insured for $145,000 in city comthe deep darkness through which we had pass eral other young men, on Monday night, hunt panies. The origin of the fire is at present The counterfeit is a perfect fac simile of the ing coons .- Limira Press.

Bradford Reporter.

E. O. GOODRICH, EDITOR.

TOWANDA:

TERMS—One Dollar per annum, invariably in advance.— Four weeks previous to the expiration of a subscription, notice will be given by a printed wrapper, and if not re-newed, the paper will in all cases be stopped.

Thursday Morning, October 13, 1859.

CLUBBING-The Reporter will be sent to Clubs at the fol | lowing extremely low rates :
| 6 copies for$5 00 | 15 copies for$12 00 | 10 copies for$8 00 | 20 copies for$15 00

ADVERTISEMENTS-For a square of ten lines or less, One Dollar for three or less insertions, and twenty-five cents for each subsequent insertion.

JOB-WORK—Executed with accuracy and despatch, and a reasonable prices—with every facility for doing Books Blanks, Hand-bills, Bali tickets, &c.

THE ELECTION.

At this time, (Wednesday noon) we have sufficient returns of the election held yesterday, to show that the general apathy has resulted in a very light vote, and a corresponding falling off in our usual majorities. The majority for the Republican here to remark that when you are sailing in a State ticket will probably be between 2000

> Our entire County ticket is, of course, elected, though with reduced majorities.

> We are without any intelligence as to the result in the State.

The Hon, DAVID C. BRODERICK, United latitudes so remote. When we rose above the States Senator from California, was killed, Sept. 13, in a duel with Judge TERRY, of the Supreme Court of California. The difficulty originated in a political quarrel. In June last struck another current, from a variation of our in a speech delivered at the Lecompton State Convention, at Sacramento, Judge TERRY spoke of Mr. Broderick in abusive terms, and Mr. B. retorted with barsh epithets, uttered, not even though we knew we were not far from in the pesencre of TERRY, but to his friend, one habitations, and we thought it best to pick D. W. PERLEY. The latter challenged Brop-ERICK, who refused to fight, but intimated his willingness to meet Judge TERRY at the close of the pending canvass. At the conclusion cluded they were in Canada. After travelling as we were travelling in a current which swept lenge to Mr. Broderick, who accepted it. The meeting took place near San Francisco on the morning of the 13th of Sept. and at the first fire Mr. B., fell, his antagonist's ball having pierced his lungs.

> Foreign New .- The steamer Canada, ar rived at New York on Saturday. The political news is embodied in various rumors and of Italian affairs. On the one had it is asserted, on the authority of the London Herald, that a definitive treaty of peace between France "moceasin tracks" will be watched this no formal treaty will be concluded between Austria and Sardinia. On the other hand. the Paris Patrie states that a Congress for the settlement of Italian affairs will be held IMILIAN is about to be appointed Governor-General of Venetia, with extraordinary pow-

> > TIDINGS OF SIR JOHN FRANKLIN .- The heroic patience of Lady Franklin has at last to the fate of the ships which he commanded. Sir John, it seems, died on the 11th of June. 1847, and a record of the Expedition to the been discovered. The ships Erebus and Terror had been abandoned in the ice three days previously, and their crews had started for the coast. The intelligence 'has no special importance to the world-but it possesses a melancholy interest, as giving precision and certainty to what was already known to be the fact.

By later news from California we learn posision. General HARNEY, has written a letter to Gov. Douglass, intimating doubts of stood charged. his sincerity, and expressing a determination to maintain the position which he has taken at all hazards.

REPUBLICANISM IN VIRGINIA.—It appears weather had rendered the ladies more lovely that an out and out Republican has been elected to represent the Wheeling District, in the lo! the cell door had been unlocked, and Mr. Warner had Senate of the Old Dominion. The discovery of this fact has caused much excitement among him damages to the amount of $6,000. The slave dealers and politicians, who are in a quanscamp will be cautious in future, how he trifles dary to know what to do with such a "rare with the affections of young ladies and breaks bird." Some suggest the expediency of getting him to resign, and that failing, to torcibly expel him from his seat, for holding opinions likely to endanger "the future growth of the negro crop."

> THE WATCHWORD .- They are forming "Irrepressible conflict clubs" in the State of New York. That is a capital idea. The slave and tired of that phrase as the British were of Yankee Doodle. A paper is soon to be started called "The Irrepressible Conflict." If well conducted, we predict for it a great run.

LAGER BEER BREWERY BURNED .- At ten ceil. I despatched the young Indian for La ceeded in breaking the hinges of the safe, but o'clock last Sunday night a fire broke out in Mountain, who came in after a moment the failed to open it. No trace of the villains has the extensive lager beer brewery of Albert Speyers, called the Lion Brewery, situated between 107th and 106th streets and Eighth and KILLED .- A young man by the name of Tenth avenues, New York. The whole of the LOCAL AND GENERAL.

SHIPMENTS of Coal by the Barclay Rail Road and Coal Company :-Previous Shipments For week ending October 8 Amount for the season.....

ince a Revolutionary Pensioner named Manhart died n Van Etten, Chemung County, leaving a wife, who soon married again, thereby losing her claim to the pension. One James Van Etten, formerly a prominent citizen of that town, devised a plan to secure the pension by getting Mrs. French-Manhart's widow-to swear that she emained un-married. Van Etten took the larger share of the money for the reward of his perjury and villany. The fraud was recently detected and Van Etten is now in jail awaiting a trial.

FATAL RAILBOAD ACCIDENT. - A man by the ame of WM. PERKINS was run over and killed by the Night Express, about a mile and a half east of Wellsburg, a few mornings since. Mr. Perkins was walking on the track in a western direction. Seeing a train coming toward him he stepped from the track he was on to the other, when the Express coming up from the east at the same moment struck him and killed him instantly.

It is found impossible to prepare the deports of Premiums awarded at the Fair, in time for this issue. The List will be completed this week, and placed in the hands of B. S. Russell Esq., who will pay the premiums upon application of those entitled to the same. The list will be published in full next week.

MR. E. O. GOODRICH-Editor Reporter-Dear Sir: I am not in the habit of taking notice of Newspaper articles, there is, however, an article in the Herald of last week which I have thought prudent to notice, written by the real Editor of that sheet, at whose will the entire Democracy of this county must succumbalthough his name does not stand before the public as such-purporting so give the proceedings of the Republican Conference, which among other things states that I sent Col. LEE to Whoming county for the purpose of exercising improper influences upon Mr. HABDING, one of the Conferees of that County, to vote for Mr. MYER, and also, the writer states that he speaks knowingly when he says that a roll of Bank bills was put into the pocket of Mr. Ross, by a man in the support of MYER. Now, Sir, that gentleman in making the above state ments, asserts that which is without the foundation of truth. Col. LEE I do not know, having never to my knowledge spoken to him upon any subject in my life. And having heard the story as to Mr. Ross, during the ihterval between the two meetings of the conference, I ought when there the second time an interview with him upon that subject, and he then informed me, that the story so far as it implicated the friends of MYER, was J. H. WEBB.

Two Editors Gone.-In Condersport, on the 22d ult., Mr. HUGH YOUNG, Editor of the Tioga Agitator was married to Miss L. A. BUTTERWORTH, of the

And on the 28th ult., Mr. THOMAS S. CHASE, Editor of the Potter Journal was married to Miss IDA BUTTERWORTH of Coudersport.

The two young ladies implicated in the above noted transactions are neices of Judge Wilmor. We tender o our brethren who have thus rashly ventured upon the congratulations, and wish them all the felicity attainable under the circumstances."

The "Choral Union Association," of astern Bradford, will hold their third annual Musical Convention, at Stevensville, commencing on the 1st of engaged to conduct the exercises, which, together with the other arrangements, must render this session both entertaining and profitable. The whole is to conclude with a Grand Concert on Friday evening the 4th. which we have no doubt will be a musical treat rarely to be

Prof. Loomis has already attained considerable reputaion in this section as a musical leader, and will doubtles make this occasion one of interest and profit.

COLLECTIONS FOR THE MOUNT VERNON FUND in Bradford County, continued: Amount previously reported ... Received from Mrs. A. Dewing, of Warren :

 Miss Sarah T. Curtis, Phila.
 $3 00

 Mrs. J. C. Manning, Warren,
 1 00

 "E. Tallmadge,"
 1 00

 "S. Marriner,"
 1 00

 Miss Emma Cooper,
 1 00

 Received from Miss Clara H. Stevens, of Athens :

 Mrs. J. E. Canfield, Athens,
 $1 00

 " N. C. Harris,"
 1 00

 Miss Sarah Wheelock,"
 1 00

 " Clara H. Stevens,"
 I 00

The next monthly report will be made about the last Mrs. C. L. WARD, f November. Lady Manager.

Two cr three of the days of the Sullivan County Court, says the Democrat, were occupied in for one having traveled for so long a time without rest. the trial of ISAAC SONES and HENRY WARNER, charged with driving cattle from the North Mountain to which we have heretofore alluded. The case was ably conducted by attorneys on both sides, and was submitted to the Jury on Saturday morning, which, at about 12 o'clock in the evening brought a verdict of "not guilty." This re-Island are busily engaged in fortifying their family, as Mr. S. has heretofore sustained a high reputation for honesty. We are glad that he is able to prove himself innocent of the disgraceful crime of which he

> When Court adjourned in the evening, the Judge or dered the Jury that when a verdict was agreed upon, they should ring the bell. According, about 12 o'clock the bell was rung and the Judge and lawyers, together with a crowd of spectators repaired to the Court House to hear the verdict. The Judge ordered the Sheriff to bring the prisoner, Warner, into Court. The Sheriff went to the cell for the purpose of bringing Warner forth, when left for parts unknown. By means of a key which he had manufactured, he made his escape about an hour be fore the Jury, by their verdict would have liberated him. He has not since been heard from.

> BRADFORD COUNTY FAIR .- The sixth exhibition of the Bradford County Agricultural Society, held at this place on Thursday and Friday last, was attended by a large concourse of people, and in every respect was successful, beyond the most sanguine expectation of its managers. The weather was delightful, and those in at tendance highly pleased with the arrangements and dis-

A MANLY ACT .- Just as the Boston express train of Saturday was leaving the Bridgetrading Democracy should be made as familiar port depot, a girl, 8 years of age, and daughter of Mrs. Maitinee, fell between two cars upon one of the rails, while attempting to pass from one car to another. Mr. Wm. H. Clapp, of Hiram, Ohio, saw her fall, and at the imminent peril of his life jumped down between the cars, caught the child with one hand, and with the other clung to the car until the train was stopped. The child was uninjured, except some slight bruises received in falling.— Mr. Clapp was severely, though, it is believed, not dangerously, bruised.

> A New Counterfeit. - Very dangerous coun terfeit Five dollar bills on the Lock Haven Bank, at Lock Haven, Pa., are in circulation.

News from all Nations.

Hon. John Letcher is in a very dangerous condition from an attack of crysipelas, a disease to which, for some

-The Bridgeport Advertiser understands PENSION DRAWN BY FRAUD .-- Some years that Mr. P. T. Barnum intends to improve East Bridgeport by setting out shade trees along the highway. Mr Barnum has advertised for one thousand trees to enable him to carry out his plans.

-A lady came near losing her life by a singular accident, in Louisville, while riding in a buggy.-One end of a scarf, which she wore around her shoulders, blew off, and was caught in the spokes of one of the rapidly revolving wheels of the vehicle, and wound up in such a manner as to draw her neck down to the wheel, choking her severely.

-The Equinoctial storm of Sept. "spiled" a great many Agricultural Fairs. The Dauphin county folks " stuck it out" a few days, but finally adjourned un til the middle of October, hoping it would clear off by that time.

$200,000 in well secu ed real estate in 1850, is now in jail as a vagrant-a victim of wine, women and the gam

-One James Snyder who stabbed a man in Baltimore, the wound resulting fatally, has been arrested

-It is said Blondin is "played out" at the Falls, and no longer attracts a crowd. The boats which used to go to the exhibition from Toronto, Buffalo, &c., with hundreds on board, can now only muster a dozen or so of passengers. -The "Americans" of New York State have signalized the utter want of any principle by adopting half of the Republican ticket, and half the Democratic. A" half and half" thing, sold out cheap as it could, claiming the "balance of power."

-Among the competitors for the prize to the best steam Plow, at the Chicago State Agricultural Fair, was one invented by James Waters, who like Fawkes -According to an official return of the Austrian Government just published, the total loss of the army in Italy, in killed, wounded and prisoners, was 1461 officers and 48,500 men. -A well known scientific writer, informs us that the next deluge will certainly not take place for 6300 years, which will be tolerably satisfactory for the present generation. -Colonel John Miller, a highly-respected citizen of Reading, and formerly representative from Berks county in the State Legislature, died suddenly Friday morning, of apoplexy. -At the late election in San Francisco 10, 889 votes were polled.

-A breach of promise of marriage in Calfornia is a serious affair. A bad fellow, named Nicholas Mathewson, recently neglected to consummate his oft- of the package. He called in a neighbor, and repeated vows to Elizabeth Hildebrand, and Miss Elizabeth demands $20,000 from the naughty Nicholas, as a salve for her lacerated heart.

-The Ship Vivid Light, about to sail from Boston, Mass., for Alexandria, Egypt, will take out fourteen railroad cars for the railroad in Egypt.

-The bondholders who purchased the Northwestern railroad are endeavoring to make arrangements by which the Central Reil Road Company will lay hold of and purchase the work.

-The new Presbyterian Church at Harrisburg is nearly completed. The spire is now being raised, and will be the highest in Pennsylvania, outside of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.

-An arrival from Gonaives brings advices from Hayti to September 17. The conspiracy which had been discovered simultaneously with the recent shooting of the President's daughter had been suppressed after a large number of arrests had been made. A visit from the President was looked for at Gonaives.

WALKER, were captured Tuesday at the Southwest Pass. by the United States Marshal. The surrendered without lawyer, was charged with forging a desposition-signal ed child badly burned, but not fatally. Sh obtained a divorce from his own wife.

drew H. Reeder for Governor.

-A man named Jackson walked a hundred and fifteen hours, without sleep or rest, at Williamsport week before last. He commenced walking in the parlors at the Eagle Hotel, on Tuesday morning at 4 o'clock, and continued walking until Saturday night at 11 o'clock .. The Gazette says he did not appear very much fatigued

-The trial of R. S. Macdonald, who shot Virginia Stewart at the Brandreth House in New York. has been postponed till the first Monday in December.

-The Public House owned by John A. Shaut, in Avoca, was entirely consumed by fire, on Satprday night last. The barns and other buildings were saved with great exertion.

-Mayor Weaver of Pittsburgh, has positively prohibited the running of cars upon the city railroads on Sunday. An extended correspondence has ta-ken place between the mayor, the citizens and the companies, and the result is that the Sunday travel is forbid-

The Vermont State Journal says : "Every than any known for many years, prevailed through the are blooming the second time this season.

-The man, Wm. Fulton, who recently killbeen found guilty of murder in the second degree. The Jury recommended him to mercy.

beat up new quarters.

-The Rome Sentinel is some on big stories. Its last is to the effect that the other day Mr. M. K. West, of Vienna, was riding in a buggy leading a colt behind it. when suddenly the colt jumped clean over Mr. W., and -- The whole number of votes in the Charleston Democratic Convention will be 606, of which 404, or heavens be no more." two-thirds will be necessary for the choice of a Presidential candidate.

At Indiantown, Bureau county, Ill., Sept. 11, SIMON KINNEY, Esq., aged 75 years and 15 days.

-Various plans for reducing the number of dead letters in the different Post Offices are being consid- liever. He was the first born white child on the waters ered by the Post Office Department, with a view of adopting the most efficient method.

-- A man in Philadelphia on Friday night was ferociously attacked in the street by a woman armed with a razor. She inflicted a serious gash in his neck .-It is supposed she mistook him for another person.

een arrested and held for trial, at the suit of widow. he settled in Illinois, where he identified himself with whose husband had died from the effects of drinking to her interests, and was one of the founders of her State excess at the tavern of the defendant. A civil suit for Government. There, as here, they lament the loss of so

A VOLCANO IN OREGON .- The Oregonian of August 20th says: "On Wednesday last -The Richmond Enquirer learns that the (August 17th) the atmosphere became exceedingly hot about mid-day. In the afternoon time back, he has been subject, but which now is more the heavens presented a singular appearance; formidable than usual. Mr. Letcher is at his home at dark, silvery condensed clouds hung over the top of Mt. Hood until evening. An occasioal flash of fire could be distinctly seen rolling up. On Thursday night the fire was plainly seen by every one whose attention could be called to the subject. Yesterday (19th) the mountain was closely examined by those who have recently returned from a visit to its summit when by the naked eye or a glass, it was seen that a large mass of the northwest side had disappeared, and that the immense quantity of snow which, two weeks ago, covered the south side had disappeared. The dense cloud of steam and smoke constantly rising over and above its summit, together with the entire change in appearance heretofore, convinces us -John Henry Kimball, who was worth that Mt. Hood is now in a state of eruption which has broken out with in a few days.

> The Austin (Texas) State Gazette, of the 23d ult., favors us with an extra, giving an account of the killing of Major R S. Neighbors, late United States Indian agent for Texas. The Gazette gathers its information from a memorandum forwarded on the stage way bill by Capt. J. M. Smith, of the Waco House: "On Wednesday, the 14th inst, while Major R. S. Neighbors was crossing from his hotel, at Belknap, to the old garrison, he was intercepted by Messrs. Murphy and Cornet. The former asked Major N. if he had reported that he (Murphy) and certaid others had, themselves, stolen certain horses, charged to have been stolen by the Indians. Major N. said "No, I never did," and was in the act of explanation, when young Cornet shot him. He exclaimed 'Oh Lord !' and fell dead. Cornet, at last dates, was at Murphy's and not arrested.

> The Chatauque Democrat learns that Judge Chamberlain, of Randolph, recently received a package from some place in Pennsylvania, by mail. The package looked as though it might have contained miniature likenesses. but upon removing the outside wrapper, the Judge became suspicious of a certain string that seemed to be connected with the contents the package was carefully opened, and found to contain two pistols loaded with powder and ball, capped and cocked, the string communicating with the triggers.

ON TRIAL FOR MURDER .- Three young men, named M'Donell, Bain and Kelly, aged respectively 16, 18, and 20 years, are on trial in Burlington, Vt., for the murder of John T McKeen.

STARTLING COINCIDENCE.—While Rev. S. B. West, of Painesville, Ohio, was preaching before the Grand River Association, last Wednesday evening, and at the moment while he was illustrating a truth, by a startling allusion to a burning dwelling, the flames were actually consuming the dwelling of an aged couple, who were sitting thrilled with the eloquent words of the preacher. Comfort Wetmore and wife -The Fillibusters who recently attempted to had early in the evening left their home in the escape from New-Orleans, under the guidance of Gen. care of two little girls, aged about eleven years, one an adopted child of the old people, the other a grandchild who was on a visit to her grandparents. As they neared their house -That was a singular forgery committed after the evening service, they discovered the last week, way down in Maine. Benjamin Kimball, a house to be on fire, and soon found the adopttures of deponent and magistrate-by which the lawyer had crawled out at the window, and vainly entreated her companions to follow; but frighten--The Opposition of Northampton county ed out of her reason, she took refuge under held a Convention at Nazareth, on the first of October, the bed and perished. She was soon drawn and unanimously adopted resolutions recommending An out with hooks, her head and limbs mostly consamed.

MARRIND.

At the M. E. Parsonage in Towanda, the 8th inst., by Rev. S. Nichols, Mr. GEORGE R. EGLESTON, to Miss MARY ANN SULLIVAN, both of Ulster.

DIED.

Conneant, Crawford County, Pa., Monday, Sept. 19, of heart disease, Mrs. JULIETTE, widow of the late C. D. Godard, and daughter of Plym and Lucy Phelps, of West Burlington, Bradford county, in her 25th year. a this village, on the 20th ult., Capt. TIMOTHY AL-DEN, of Monroe township, aged 89 years and seven

Capt. ALDEN was one of the pioneer settlers of northern Pennsylvania; emigrating from Massachusetts, and fix ing his home in these sylvan wilds in December of the year 1800. His axe cut the road for the teams as he approached the place which he had selected for a home. He grappled manfully with the inconveniences of frontier life, and the wild beasts of the mountains, and the forests alike stood out of his way, and the earth and his mechanical industry were compelled to yield him a support. He has lived until all the original surroundings have changed while he gazed upon them-the village, the church, the month has been marked by frost, and a drouth, severer railroad, and all the accompaniments of thrift, now occupy the cities upon which he gazed, in their original Summer. But under the influence of the rains of last attire. The red man has gone to his imaginary hunting week the grass has started vigorously, and strawberries ground, the sturdy pioneer has fallen a martyr to his pri vations and hardships; and two generations have passed away from this western home, leaving a patriarch to tell ed his child in Detroit, while firing a gun at his wife, has thus to stand as a connecting link, associating us with men and events of quite another era of time. The aged oak has finally fallen and the connecting link is broken -The Mayor of Rochester has officially and forever gone. Bowed with age and with locks prohibited any further exhibitions of rope-walking at the whitened by the frosts of many winters, the sluggish Falls of the Gennese. De Lave will be compelled to stream is stayed and the weary wheels of life have ceased to move. Panoplied by a life of rich experience, and fed by fruitful thought and meditation, and nerved for the event, by long and careful observation, he wrapped around him the mantle of his christian faith, and sat down to await the day of his appointed time as quietly as the infant reposing in the arms of maternrl affection landed by the side of the horse in the harness! Nobody He has gone on that long journey. Verily, "As the waters fail from the sea, and the flood decayeth and drieth up; so man lieth down and riseth not, till the

After a severe and protracted illness, he quietly passed away to that spirit world in which he was a strong beof the Susquehanna, between Wyoming and the head o that river. At the age of 23 he left his native place (Sheshequin) and read law with - Shepard, of Aurora, N. Y., and soon after the organization of Bradford, mov ed to Towanda, where he practiced law for a series of years, and was twice elected a member of the Pennsylvania Legislature. With him, D. Cash, Hon, D. Wilmot -A tavern-keeper in Harrisbug, Pa., has and others read law; and after leaving for the far west,