But as he very properly remarks, nothing postitive can be predicted at this early day :

There are a few scattering Senators here Opposition, in organizing the House, driving camped. in the Harper's Ferry affair as a wedge to open a breach. But if ordinary discretion be the Governor's proclamation for Thanksgiving because in this selfish party object, should be the very plentiful harvests this year, whereas, they say, every one means of bringing these interests together; which, after all, are only divided by a name and not by a substance, except in regard to abstract ideas on the subject of slavery. Both sides would doubtless be prepared to pass res olutions condemning that outrage in the most emphatic terms, and reprobating any such movement whatever. The northern Opposition press have spoken out decisively and it is freely admitted by all the leading men of all parties here, that the tone of these journals tants along the Rio Grande frontier. in particular, is not only unexceptionable, but but worthy of all praise as just, patriotic and proper. The partisans who have endeavored to make capital out of this tragedy, have overdone the business in their zeal to realize a prompt profit, and the motive being discovered the reaction has begun. It is a two-edged felt when reason asserts its full influence. The two most prominent candidates for Speaker. of the Opposition, are Mr. Sherman, of Ohio, and Mr Grow, of Pennsylvania. It is due to the former to say, that he is an earnest and faithful friend of the protective policy, as his vote in Congress, on all occasions, prove. The latter is too well known in Penusylvania to need any reference to his record. They are for the villains. both well informed in parliamentary practice, and capable in other respects.

THE WISCONSIN RAILROAD ACCIDENT. - The Chicago Times says the manner in which the bodies of persons killed in the railroad disaster near Watertown were mangled and torn to pieces, is almost to horrible to be believed. Mr. T. L. Gillett, of Fond du Lac, was caught by the feet in some way so that his body was literally split asunder to some distance. he recognized his friends, and begged them to terminate his life, and thus his pain. Dr. platform, was so crushed between the cars that not a single bone was left in his body unbroken. Jerome Mason, an express agent, had his head cut open, and his bowels partly burnt of Pennsylvania, we notice those of Hon. David Taggart, by the stove. Mr. Sickles had both his legs Hon. John Covode, Col. A. G. Curtin, Hon. Samuel Cal cut off below the knees, and afterwards survived amputating above the knees. He lived was thrown from the car upon the ground, and which was wrecked on the Hudson a few days since. quickly rising upon his feet, reached his arms upward to their full length, as if to grasp something beyond his reach, then wi'h almost superhuman strength was approaching the ruins, in spite of the resistance of his friends. who had taken hold of him ; then as suddenly fell into the arms of those at hand, and immediately died. Mr. Petersilia had both legs broken, or rather crushed, the flesh being torn into shreds. He lived about half an hour in the most horrible agony. All the others killed were terribly torn and mangled. The Times says that had there been a statute requiring the road to be fenced before any train could be run, nothing of the kind would probably have occurred.

He in- no indi sulted the Democracy of New Jersey by the a puzzle to the savans. manner in which he treated such men as Col. candidate for Governor, RYERSON, ADRAIN, Biggs, and others; he insulted the Democracy of New York by his public and indecent courtship of James Gordon Bennett, of the New York Herald; he insulted the Democracy of Massachusetts by setting his office-holders upon the Democratic party in New England, pecause of their preference of Judge Douglas; he insulted the Democracy of Michigan by his treatment to STUARY, and the gallant men who stood by the great Northwestern leader in that State; and he insulted the Democracy of Wisconsin by the manner in which he attempted to disgrace the leading men in that quarter. The result of these experiments is before us. Our people in Pennsylvania are, to this moment, patient under his new attempt to degrade and disgrace them, as manifested by the interference of his officials in the late primary elections. Are we to wait for another general election to convince ourselves that the Administration cannot lead us anywhere but to defeat ?- Forney's Press.

ACCIDENT AT OWEGO. - At the funeral of Mrs. Englebert, which occurred on Sabbath period in the history of the anti-slavery party in America, evening last, as the carriages were returning down hill from the cemetery, just as the first got within about five rods of the lower gate. the pole strap of one of the double teams immediately behind broke, and the double carriage, full of women and children, crowded forward on the horses. One of them began to kick and leap, and the driver having lost control over them, they dashed forward and drove the single carriage, containing some three or four individuals, down the precipice some eight or ten feet. The wagon turned gets intoxicated whenever she has an opportunity. completely over; the horse, however struck on his feet; but the team behind drove their wagon over also. The single and double carriages, well filled, were thus tossed nearly on each other. It is remarkable that several of John Brown, to procure for him such comforts as he may the children did not get killed. One lady and one young man only appeared to be injured. LOCAL AND GENERAL.

HIS ANTECEDENTS .- The Johnstown (Pa.,) Echo furnishes the following information in reference to the antecedents of WILMAN HARRISON, alias HAZLETT who was surrendered at Carlisle, on Saturday last, to the authorities of Virginia, as being implicated in the Harper's

If our information be reliable, Aftert Hazlett, one of the insurgents killed at Harper's Ferry, of reported so in the first accounts, is not unknown in this region. It is said by some here who claim to be cognizant of the fact, that Hazlett was reared in Westmoreland County, and some years since was employed in the capacity of a boatman on the Pennsylvania Canal. While so engaged he was intrusted with the care of a section boat belonging to Mr. John M'Govern during one trip, but when he reached his destination on the other side of thir mountain he disposed of the boat and team and pocketed the proceeds. He was afterwards arrested, but the matter was doubtless adjusted by the disposing of the money, as he oubtless adjusted by the disgorging of the money, as he ever came to trial

never came to trial

His next appearance is in connection with a band of horse thieves, one of whose depredations was committed near Wilmore, in this county, and as such was arrested, but upon turning State's evidence and giving testimony against his confederates, during their trial at Elmira, N.
Y., he was discharged, and again appeared in this part of the country. While here he expressed his intention of leaving for parts unknown, as he feared the vengames of those whom he had betweed into the bands of intention of those whom he had betrayed into the hands of justice, Shortly after this he was lost sight of until he turned up as one of the deperadoes led on by the infamous Brown at Harper's Ferry, where he was reported as shot and killed, after cowardly taking to the water and imploring for life.

If HAZLETT, as stated above, was the man implicated in the celebrated " Horse Thief Gang " in this County some two years since, and concerning which so much excitement prevailed at the time, he must personate a great variety of names. Here he was known as no less a peronage than the somewhat famous JOHN RUTTER.

JAMES TRUESDELL, a gentleman of some seventy years, living in Liberty, Susquehanna county (says the Republican) has been for over twelve years past ndustriously engaged, when the weather and his health would permit, in digging over a piece of ground near his dwelling, and carrying the stones and some dirt into a pile. Here he has labored, taking one stone or a shovel full of dirt at a time, until the mound has reached the height of thirty or forty feet, and is much larger than his house. He said as a reason for his labors that he lost a sixpence in his garden. He soon after found several sixpences, but continued to dig until his whole garden as been carried to increase the mound. He is peaceable and industrious in his way, so his family let him work. To their offers of assistance he gives a decided negative, and digs away alone. Mr. Truesdelli s a well-informed man, and talks rationally on every subject but his lost

With this intent he visited the cele. brated medicinal springs at St. Catharines, where he remained but a few short weeks before the fell destroyer cut him off. The deceased was possessed of strong intellectual faculties, a finely cultivated mind, and excellent skill in his profession. A large number of the prominent citizens of Elmira, followed his remains to the Second street Cemetery, Thursday afternoon.

Hon. G. A. Grow has been speaking to itizens of New York, with decided effect, if we may judge from the favorable notices of the press. The Buffalo Express gives an account of a meeting held in that city on Wednesday evening, Nov. 2d, which in enthusiasm was equalled only by the contest of 1856. The great speech of the evening was delivered by Hon. G. A. Grow in Kremlin Hall to an audience of thousands; while thousands of people could not get into the Hail. Two seperate meetings were formed on the street and addressed by able speakers on the great questions of the day. We give below the closing paragraph of the article in the Express, reviewing Mr. Grow's speech of the preceding night:

"The speech of Mr. Grow was a lengthy one, but held the interest of the audience so entirely to the close, that he was loudly urged to proceed when he spoke of concluding. It was one of the most cloquent, stirring and convincing speeches that has ever been delivered before the Electors of Buffalo, and made a deep and lasting impression upon the minds of all who listened to it. He was applauded from beginning to end, and took his seat amid the most deafening demonstrations of the satisfaction and pleasure his address had given."

A dreadful case of suicide took place on Thursday last in Washington. A young man named Lewis H. Jones shot himself at the house of his mother, on New York Avenue. His course of life was characterized by considerable irregularity, which was a cause of great grief to an excellent mother, who frequently remonstrated with him. Thursday morning she had again een in conversation with him in relation to his irregularities, and concluded her maternal counsels by embrac ing and kissing him, when he stepped back a few feet, and drawing a Derringer pistol from his pocket, and pointing it at his head, exclaimed, "I'll kill myself," and instantly discharged the weapon into his forehead. The ball entered near the centre of the forehead and traversed the brain, finally lodging at the base of the skull, near the back of the neck. Young Jones is described as a youth of very impulsive nature, and accustomed from a boy to make use of threats of self-destruction, in the presence of his family, whenever his desires were resisted, which threats were never intended to be carried out, but rather to frightening his family. It is confidently supposed by those who knew him well, that, on the presence of the deceased, our profoundest sympathies and condolements. The act was committed in the parior. The subject of this unfortunate occurrence, was well known to most of our citizens, having been for some time in the employ of C. L. WARD Esq. He was known by his associates as being of an impulsive temperament, hough it was little expected that he would thus become victim to his want of self-control.

It is claimed that the present location will cause great inconvenience to a large proportion of our business men. "SWEET ARE THE USES OF ADVERSITY."-The omsburg "Star of the North," derives the following comfort from the late utter rout of the administration in Pennsylvania :--

"The present Republican victory in Pennsylvania has many happy results for the Democratic party, and not the least of these is the security it gives that we shall elect a Democratic President of the Union, and thus give a sure guarantee of the safety and perpetuity of our glorious Democratic institutions."

RAYMOND SEWING MACHINE. - The following notice of the machine of which B. F. Snaw of Ulster, is agent, is from the St. Louis Democrat, one of the leading papers of the West. The agent assures us that he has sold some thirty of these machines in this County, all of which have given satisfaction. The machine is said to be equal in every respect to the higher priced ones. [From the St. Louis Democrat.]

This machine, though but recently introduced has realized probably as large a sale as any other machine offered in St. Louis. Its cheapness first attracted attention. Afterwards its remarkable simplicity of construction and easier man igement, and its great utility secure it abundant favor.

The machine has been wonderfully improved of late, by the introduction of Kelsey's Patent Feeder. This new feature obviates all cause of complaint, and renders the machine unexceptionable.

machine unexceptionable. The use of this machine in the family of the editor of this paper, enables us to speak by the card in another column in refrence to this machine, and to recommend it as the best and cheapest now offered in this city.

FAIR .- The Trustees and members of the First Wesleyan Church return their heartfelt thanks to the generous and benevolent citizens of Towarda and vicinity, for the aid rendered to the said church in the past, and would say that on TUESDAY, DECEMBER 6th they will hold a Fair, for the purpose of raising means to pay off the last instalment on their church, which will fall due in a few days. We solicit help for this Church. Two colored females will call on the ladies of Towarda and vicinity, for the purpose of receiving any contributions for the Fair, in fancy or plain work or money, or anything they are willing to give. It is hoped that the citizens will contribute liberally for this purpose.

There will be a public meeting of the Alpha Epsilon Society on Tuesday evening next, commencing at 7 o'clock. An essay will be zead by Dr. E. D. PAYNE, and the following question will be discussed:

Resolved, That the rates of interest on money ought to be regulated by law.

DIED.

In this Borough, on Saturday evening, Nov. 12, 1859, of Consumption, Francis D. Montanye, aged 26 years, and 3 months. In the bloom and strength of youth, surrounded by all that can make life desirable, with the brightest anticipathe scenes of time to another and better world. During the time when he languished and suffered under the gradual but certain progress of the insidious disease, Con sumption, which was hastening him towards the grave. he bore his sufferings with fortitude and patience, and calmly and hopefully prepared himself to meet the great event, expressing his resignation to the will of his Divine Master, in whose loving kindness he confidently trusted. Around the deceased clustered an unusual extended rircle of relations and friends. Possessing in a remarka won the love and friendship of all who came in contact with him, he had knit himself with the strongest ties of affection to his acquaintances, who watched his gradual decline with sorrow, and mourn him dead with the most ble degree those manly, social and genial qualities which poignant grief. His noble and generous nature governed him in all things. Liberal to a fault, he scorned an unmenly deed, and was the very embodiment of uprightness, nobleness and chivalric honor. But not all these qualities, the devotion of relatives nor the anxiety of friends could save him from the attacks of the fell destroyer. He is gone from amongst us, and we can only revere his memory and emulate his virtues. Affectionate son, loving brother, true and noble friend, Farewell.

At a special communication of Union Lodge, No. 108. held at the Masonic Hall, Nov. 15, 1859, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted :-WHEREAS, it has pleased the Great Architect of the Iniverse to summon from Earth, our beloved Brother,

FRANK D. MONTANYE.

Resolved, That while we bow with humble submis Resolved, That while we now with numble subhission to this dispensation of Him "who doeth all things well." this Lodge mourn the loss of a Brother: whose Masonic virtues and manly qualities had gained our affections and inspired our friendship and esteem.

Resolved, That we shall best exhibit our respect for our deceased brother, by emulating his Masonic charac-ceased, and published in the papers of the County. At a meeting of Lin-Ta Hose Co. No. 3, held at Fireman's Hall, Nov. 14, 1859, the following preamble and olutions were unanimously adopted : WHEREAS, it has pleased the Almighty ruler of the Universe, in his beneficent Providence to remove from Earth our former Foreman, and companion, FRANK D. MONTANYE.

Resolved, That in mourning the loss of one who had by his many amiable and manly qualities endeared himself to all who knew him, we mingle our sorrows with the great grief of his relations, and tender to them our heart-felt condolements at the dispensation which has thus sorely afflicted us all.

Resolved, That as a testimonial of our high regard and extern for the decreed while living, and our respect to his memory, we will attend as a body, to follow his remains to their last resting place.

Resolved. That the usual badge of mourning be worn; a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, and published in the County papers. At a special meeting of UNA BOAT CLUB, held Nov. 14,

At a special meeting of the great giver of good and dispenser of sorrow, to remove from active duty our shipmate, F. D. MONTANYE,

Resolved, That we take this opportunity of expressing our appreciation of his true worth and sterling character. That in losing him, we lose a man of a warm and generous nature combined with a fearless spirit, who was always ready to buffet the storms that arose on the sea of life; whose pleasure was his duty, and whose reward was the knowledge that it.
