driving wheel, was horribly mangled, the shin bone brok en in three places as well as hadly slivered, and the whole leg more or less injured up to hip. Dr. H. H. PURPX, of Elmira, was sent for, who repaired at once to the residence of the injured man, and found him suffering intensely. On examining the injured leg., it was found necessary to amputate it, as above stated, below the knee. Dr. A. RICE, of Southport, was also present, and assisted in the operation, which was performed with much skill by Dr PURDY, the patient, during the operation, being under the influence of Chloroform. Mr. Owens is about sixty seven years of age.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE, for January, 1860, omes to us with many ovidences of increased beauty and value. It has grown in usefulness, and consequently in popular estimation, until it has attained a front rank in the Magazine world. We can cheerfully recommend it, both for the beauty of the illustrations and designs it furnishes, and for the high character and correct tone of its PORTERS GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, for January 1860, is already received, and in commencing a New Year, the proprietor, as usual, endeavors to add new features of attraction to his already attractive Lady's periodical .-The Book stands unequalled and unapproachable amongst imilar literature-judging from the demand for our copy.

Rev. B. J. DougLass lectured before the "Young Men's Christian Association" in the Court se, Monday evening, to a large audience upon the bject :- " Moral Beauty ; or the Beautiful in its appli cation to Morals." A well chosen theme, which was eloquently and ably handled.

DEATH OF WASHINGTON IRVING .--- WASH-INGTON IEVING, the genial, warm-hearted, benevolent man,-the illustrious author, has ceased to exist. He died at his well-known rural retreat on the banks of the Hudson on Monday evening, 29th ult. His funeral took place Thursday, at Tarrytown. Business was suspended. Stores were closed. From almost every house mourning drapery was hung. The bells of the churches tolled for some hours. From the surrounding country, and from New York and other cities, thousands of people assembled, in and about the church, where the funeral services took place. A procession more than a mile in length, followed the remaines of the deceased to the grave, where, besides many of the most distinguished men of New York city, were nearly all the Episcopal clergy, including the Provisional Bishop of the Diocese. The New York Common Council and the Trustees of the Astor Library were present; and the Historical Society was well represented. The services in the church and at the grave were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Creighton, Pastor of the church at Tarrytown, of
