f about eighteen years of age; the rest were om fourteen to eight. They undoubtedly did not awake to a sense of their terrible situation til perchance their couches were enveloped the flames, and then were suffocated in a ew moments by the smoke. This must be a ushing blow to these parents, bereft of their learest earthly comforts. Who can paint their guish and sorrow; O, when shall we learn to be more cautions and careful about fire!

A SICKLES AFFAIR IN WARREN, PA .- On Monday evening this town was the scene of one of those criminal affairs which tend to exite men's minds to the highest pitch. As the hole affair is to be investigated in Court and there appears to be no attempt to conceal the names of the actors in it, we will give a brief ecount of what took place. Mr. Wm. Whitney, a man quite extensively known as a lumerman, residing in Kenzua township in this ounty, had for some time past reason to susect the constancy of his wife. The supposed aramour was a man in the employ of Mr. W. med Nelson Luce. Mr. W. was convinced hat these parties had indulged their criminal astes, but as he emphatically expressed it, although he "knew it, he could not prove it."—
A plan was laid; Mr. W. pretended to start a visit to Elmira, N. Y., to be gone a week two; Mrs. Whitney being informed that a ackage containing $1,000 would be received t the Express office in Warren, which she must ake out. Instead of going to Elmira, Mr. W. omes to Warren, where he has remaind since Friday last unobserved. Monday afternoon Mrs. W. accompanied by Luce arrived in town opping at the Carver House. The package of money had not arrived, (and Mr. W. does et expect it,) and the couple concluded to top all night. By special request of Luce ey secured "adjoining rooms" and retired to ir apartments quite early. The denouement f it was, that about 9 o'clock Mr. W. with a party of friends, suddenly burst into Mrs. W.'s room, where the enraged hasband had ocmlar evidence of his wife's infidelity. The hilty paramour was very roughly handled, d his cries of murder soon brought a crowd to the scene of disturbance. His wounds were ressed by a physician and he was lodged in ail to awa't an investigation of the charges eferred against him. A summons in divorce has also been served upon Mrs. Whitney, and t is likely that Mr. W. will have no trouble in securing a divorce as soon as the law can give it. Mrs. W. is said to be quite a good oking woman, and is a second-cousin to her husband.

Luce had an investigation before a Justice on Tuesday afternoon and a commitment made out, but he was allowed to give "leg bail," and the last seen of him, he was making good time towards "York State." Mrs W. left for the East on the ears Wednesday morning. San qui peut .- Warren Mail.

THE TRIAL OF STEPHENS, one of the Harpe Ferry insurgents-was concluded at Charltown, Va., on Saturday. The case was st mitted to the jury 4 o'clock. They retired, and after fifteen minutes' absence, returned with a verdict of guilty on all the counts. The pris oner received the verdict with most perfect in difference, and smiled at the announcement.

REVOLUTIONARY CLAIMS.

T has been ascertained, beyond a doubt, that in many cases the children or grand children of Revlationary Soldiers are entitled to land and back-pay, unolationary Soldiers are entitled to land and back-pay, under existing laws, and that exertions are being made for the present Congress to pass an act for the further benefit of said heirs. I have a list of all the names of Revolutionary Soldiers who have resided in Bradford County, with Blank Forms, sent me from Wyshington. The application of one of children or grand children, with Power of Attorney, will enable me to have a search made of the Records at Washington. No costs to applicants, except 50 cents to pay for executing bonds, P. stage, &c. Inquire for me at the office of N. N. Bette, Saq., Towanda Borough.

BOOK BINDERY.

THE subscriber having withdrawn from the Argus building would respectfully inform the public that has removed his Plain and Fancy Bindery to the North Room of the Ward House, formerly occupied by the Post Office, where he is now prepared to bind all kinds of Books in the most approved and workmanlike manner. Having to share my profits with no second person I flat-ter myself that my prices will meet the satisfaction of the mublic public.

Thankful for the confidence reposed in me and the public appreciation of my work, for the last two years, I shall endeavor in the future to merit the continuance of public support.

Particular attention given to re-binding Books. All work will be warranted. Terms, Cash.
