*F. B. FORD. religion of the age, ann that the attempt to reopen it is an effort of the powers of darkness to bring again the reign of "chaos and old night," which patriots, philanthropists and Christians are under the most weighty and solemn obligations to oppose. Resolved, That we view with just apprehension and alarm the reckless extravagance in expenditure which pervades every department of the Federal Government, and the steady and persistent departure from the prin-ciples and policy of the founders of our institutions; that the restoration of a system of rigid economy and accountability is indispensable to restrain the plunderers who feast upon the Treasury, and to prevent our politics from degenerating into a wild and shameful scramble for the spoils, in which personal decency and public morality shall be overthrown

Resolved. That to maintain inviolate the rights of the State, and especially the right of each State to order and control its own domestic institutions according to its own judg ment exclusively, is essential to that balance of power on which the perfection and endurance of our political fabric depends, and we denounce now, as heretofore, the lawless invasion by armed forces of the soil of any State or Territory, no matter under what protext, as among the gravest of crimes.

Resolved, That it does not enter into the scheme of the Opposition party to seek the abolition of slavery in the States where it now exists, but to leave the amelioration and ultitimate abandonment of the system to the moral, religious, and economic forces which pertain to the slaveholding communities, as-sured of the final prevalence of justice thoroughout all the land, among all the inhabitants thereof. Resolved, That to the union of the States this nation owes its unprecedented increase in population, its surpassing developement of material resources, its rapid augmentation of wealth, its happiness at home, and its honor abroad; and that, consequently, we hold in abhorrence all machinations for dissension come from whatever scource they may. Resolved, That the threat of disunion in case the Republicans and their affiliants shall elect the next President, repeatedly made in both Houses of Congress by Democratic members, not simply without rebuke, but with uniform applause from their political associa'es, is a denial of that vital principle of popular government, free election, and a bold avowal and countenance of contemplated treason, which it is the imperative duty of the people to sternly confront and forever silence.

Resolved, That while we are now opposed, Resolved, That while we are now opposed, as we ever have been, to the extension of slavery, we hail the people of the South as brethren, in whose prosperty we rejoice, and the corner next south of the Ward House.
