Miscellancous: The Argus Book bindery Again in Full Operation ! WE have the gratification of announcing to our friends, customers, and the public, that we are now pre-pared to do pared to do BOOK BINDING, in all its Branches in the latest and most approved styles, and on the most favorable terms: Having secured, permaneintly, the services of Mr. H. C. WHITEKAR, a finished workman from Philadelphia, and having added extensively to the fixtures of the con-cern-giving greater facility than formerly-we can pre-sent to the public the most positive assurance of our abil-ity to please out patrons. "B" Custoffiers should be particular to rettember that the "Argue Bindery," is in the Argus Building, as form-erly, (first building north of the Ward House) and is con-nected with our Book and Stationery Store and Printing Office, where all work should be delivertd. "Custoffiers, and our old customers, at well as to prevent an imposition upon the public generally, to caution them against a sort a concern, that faisely helds out to the public that it is the Argus Bindery. This fraud is practiced to doubt, with a hope of deluding the Public. Against this bold and deliberate attempt to deceive, they are hereby can-tioned. "Particular attention paid to re-Binding. All work No.

Having made complete arrangements, we are pre-pared to Rule and Bind BLANK BOOKS to any style or pattern, at prices as low as elsewhere. Sowanda, March 5, 1860. E. A. PARSONS.

BOOK BINDERY.

THE subscriber having withdrawn from the Argus building would respectfully inform the public that he has removed his Plain and Fancy Bindery to the North Room of the Ward House, formerly occupied by the Post Office, where he is now prepared to bind all kinds of Books in the most approved and workmanlike manner.— Having to share my profits with no second person I flat-ter myseli that my prices will meet the satisfaction of the public.

CAUTION.

"To be, or not to be— hat is the question ! Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer The slings and arrows of outrageous opposition. Or by taking up arms against a sea of printing ink, And opposing, end them."

And opposing, end them." THE proprietor of the Argus takes occasion in adver-tising his Bindery to indulge in an uncalled for fling about a "sort of a concern," which is hoping "to delude the public." As I have operfed a Bindery on my own ac-count, the inference is that if the public bring their binding to me, they are in no danger of being defrauded. For two years I have worked for Mr. PARSONS, and he has taken great pains to satisfy the public I was the "best Binder in America," as the columns of the Argus will testify. Has he been all that time "deluding the pub-lic?" If I have been engaged in a fraud, he has been the principal. But i refer to my work 'during that time as evidence that there has been no fraud practiced. Having served a long apprenticeship at the Bindery business, I have resumed business here on my own ac-count, as I know of nothing which prevents me from fol-lowing a legitimate and bawful calling for my support... lowing a legitimate and bawful calling for my support.--I shall endeavor by good work and attention to my busi-ness to give public satisfaction. March 15. JOHANN F. BENDER, Binder.
