Senator Wade and Northern Back bone.

That lively little sheet the Mac-a-Cheek Press, speaking of the absurd practice of stiffening Northern Cack-bone, says :

Senator Wade inaugurated this absurd practice of setting up Northern backbone. A short time after taking his place in the Senate, he was grossly attacked by a Senator from a slave State. Wade retorted in his peculiar style. The next day a gentleman called on the Senator from Ohio, asked the usual question touching his acknowledgment of the code.

"I am here" he responded, "in a double capacity. I represent the State of Ohio, and I represent Ben Wade. As a Senator, I am opposed to duelling. As Ben Wade, I recognize the code."

"My friend feels aggrieved," said the gentleman, "at what you said in the Senate yesterday, and will ask for an apology or satisfaction."

"I was somewhat embarrassed," continued Senator Wade, "by my position yesterday, as I have some respect for the Chamber. I now take this apportunity to say what I then thought, and you will, if you please, repeat it. Your friend is a foul-mouthed old blackguard."

"Certainly, Senator Wade, you do not wish me to convey such a message as that ?"

"Most undoubtedly I do ; and I will tell you for your own benefit, this friend of yours will never notice it. I will not be asked for either retraction, explanation, or a fight."

This proved to be true. No further notice was taken of the affair. But since that Senator Wade has been treated with distinguished consideration.

The Presidency and the House.

As there is some probability that the choice of the next President of the United States may devolve upon the present House of Representatives, we subjoin a statement of its political caste by States. It will be borne in mind that in choosing a President, each State casts one vote. The present House is divided politically as follows :

Democratic.—Alabama, Arkansas, California, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Oregon, South Carolina, Texas, Virginia—14.

Republican.—Connecticut, Indiana, Iowa, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, Wisconsin—15.

Equally Divided.—Kentucky, Maryland and North Carolina—3.

American.—Tennessee—1.

It requires seventeen votes to effect a choice, and as neither the Democrats nor the Republicans have a sufficient number, the four last named States will, of course, hold "the balance of power." Should the House fail to elect a President before the 4th of March, that duty will then in effect devolve upon the Senate, which has the election of a Vice President, who, under the provisions of the Constitution, becomes President of the United States. The Senate is composed of a majority of Democrats.

RULOFF.—At the last Broome circuit held at Binghamton recently, Edward H. Ruloff was discharged from all the indictments pending against him in this State. It is well known that for several months this man has been an inmate of our County Jail, as it was considered unsafe to leave him in Tompkins county, the good people of that locality having given unmistakable evidence of a desire to have his neck stretched without the formality of a trial by the regularly constituted authorities. No sooner had the news been brought that he was discharged, than the Sheriff of Warren county, Pa, made his appearance to the Sheriff of this county, armed with a requisition from Governor Morgan, commanding Ruloff's delivery into the custody of the Pennsylvania official. He is now on his way to Warren county to answer to an indictment for burglary and larceny, said to have been committed by him during the time he was at liberty, after breaking jail in Tompkins county Ruloff seemed pleased with the termination of his case upon the charge of the murder of his wife, and said that he was once more a free man, as there was no foundation to this new charge, and that he would have no difficulty in proving his innocence.—Auburn Union.

THE MONTHLY LAW REPORTER.—With the May number, now nearly ready, this long established and valuable periodical changes editor and publishers. Hon. Geo. P. Sanger assumes the editorial charge of it, and Messrs. Walker, Wise & Co., of Boston, its publication. The well known character of the Reporter, and its value to legal profession, and hardly less to the merchant—from its frequent reports of important decisions in mercantile cases—should secure for it an increased patronage. In the hands of its new publishers we shall expect greater promptness in its appearance, thereby enhancing its value to subscribers.

☞ Burning Fluid explosions are not generally caused by contact of the flame with the fluid itself, but with a gas that is always escaping from the fluid when open to the air. People not understanding this fact, think they may safely fill lighted lamps if they do not allow the flame to touch the fluid itself ; but the invisible gas arises, touches the flame, the lamp explodes, and the consequences are sad, perhaps fatal. Never bring a lighted lamp within a foot at the nearest, of open fluid. A much surer and better method of avoiding these dangerous and often fatal explosions is, never to bring the fluid within a mile of your house.

BALLOON ASCENSION AT BINGHAMTON.—Prof. BROOKS made his ascension from Binghamton, in his balloon "Comet" on Saturday afternoon. The Republican states that he started about half past 2 o'clock, and the balloon shot rapidly up, and floated away in a north-westerly direction. Not more than two minutes elapsed before he was a mere speck in the horizon, and in four minutes more the balloon and Professor dodged behind a cloud and were no more seen by the thousands of spectators who witnessed the assention. Where he landed was not ascertained at Binghamton up to late Sunday evening.

FOR M'LEAN.—The Christian Advocate, the organ of the Methodist Church at the North, comes out strongly in favor of Hon. JOHN M'LEAN as a candidate for the Presidency.

☞ The Republicans of Pottsville testified their joy over the passage of the new Tariff Bill by the House of Representatives, by firing a salute of one hundred guns in honor of the event.

REVOLUTIONARY CLAIMS.

IT has been ascertained, beyond a doubt, that in many cases the children or grand children of Revolutionary Soldiers are entitled to land and back-pay, under existing laws, and that exertions are being made for the present Congress to pass an act for the further benefit of said heirs. I have a list of all the names of Revolutionary Soldiers who have resided in Bradford County, with Blank Forms, sent me from Wyshington. The application of one or children or grand children, with Power of Attorney, will enable me to have a search made of the Records at Washington. No costs to applicants, except 50 cents to pay for executing bonds, Postage, &c.
Inquire for me at the office of N. N. BETTS, Esq., Towanda Borough. J. D GOODENOUGH.
February 2, 1860. Agent for Bradford County.
