SUNBURY AND ERIE RAILROAD. - We are informed that the Sunbury and Eric Railroad Company will run their own road from Sunbury to Whetam, a distance of eighty-three miles on and after the first day of July next The intention of the company is not to furnish the rolling stock, but merely to supply the motive power wherewith to haul the cars of the Northern Central Railroad Company. At Lock Haven commodious machine shops and depots have been erected. A sufficient number of Locomotives are now building to accommodate the traffic. The portion of the Sunbury and Erie Railroad between Lock Haven and Sunbury is in excellent order. The western division, under the superintendance of Samuel A. Black, Esq., has been in efficient operation since the first of the year, and is doing a heavy freight business from the oil region of Pennsylvania. On the first of July next, the Sunoury and Erie Company will have one hundred and forty-nine miles of their own road in use, and with upwards of ten miles additional almost in working order.

THE LATE DESTRUCTIVE TORNADO AT THE WEST, according to the calculation of the Chicago Tribune, swept over the space of four hundred and fifty miles, without diminution of force, smiting towns, farms, forests, and everything on the surface of the earth with appall ing violence and destruction. Towns were laid low, and whole forests crushed in an instant, and large streams of water literally scooped out by the mighty tempest. The course of the ornado is now traced from Fort Dodge, Webster county, Iowa, more than two hundred miles west of the Mississippi river, to the northeastern corner of Ottowa county, Michigan. Nor is it at all probable that the entire range of devastation is yet known, though its direction at both extremities leads us to hope that however far it may have traveled, it did not involve much more destruction of human life than is already known The time occupied by the tempest in making the entire distance cannot yet be currently estimated. We know merely that it swept over Webster county, Iowa, on Sunday afternoon, and Ottowa county Michigan, on Sunday night.

The Majority and Minority Committees on the John Brown Insurrection made their report. The Tariff bill was then taken up, and was strongly opposed by Mr. HUNTER, who argued that no change in the present tariff was necessary, as it afforded sufficient revenue for the economical support of the Government, and the extinguishment of the public debt. Mr. SEWARD spoke at length on the subject, and strongly advocated the bill and its immediate consideration .-To postpone it to the next session, he said, would be to postpone it indefinitely. The arguments for postponing it were so weak as to show a manifest disposition to avoid the whole subject. By a vote of 25 against 23, further onsideration of the bill was postponed. The Army Appropriation bill was taken up, and some of the House amendments agreed to .-The Overland Telegraph bill, already passed by the House, was concurred in by the Senate. THE COVODE COMMITTEE .- Much has been said in regard to the expenses of the Covode Committee. They have been in session three months, and have examined about one hundred witnesses. Their whole cost, with mileage, does not exceed $2,500. As an offset to this, the Committee has done an immense deal of good in exposing the frauds and rascalities of the Locofoco politicians, which in no other way could have been brought before the public and the value of which cannot be measured in dollars and cents. The developments it has made will contribute largely to the defeat of the corrupt party in power, and that is a result worth many thousand times the paltry sum named as the cost of this investigation.

THE BALTIMORE CONVENTION.

The Baltimore Convention which meet on Monday, spent the first day of its session in a bitter wrangle upon a proposition to admit to fellowship again those delegates who seceded at Charleston. Mr. Sanford E. Church of the New-York delegation made a proposition re- $3 a year. quiring all who were admitted to seats in the Convention to abide by the nomination made. This "test oath," as it was called, excited a fresh outburst of rancor.

A special despatch to the New York papers, Tuesday, at 1 o'clock, says that "Mr. Dougnow appear to favor a union upon Horatio the celebration. SEYMOUR, of New York."

The feeling is intense and bitter, and the breech seems wider than at the adjournment at Charleston. New York seems to have control of the Convention, and votes steadily with the South, though it is claimed her vote would

The charge of fraud in the election of Hon. George W.Scranton, of the Luzerne district, has been effectually disposed of Mr Winslow, of North Carolina, who insisted on an investigation before the Covode Committee after the examination of several witnesses, became disgusted with the whole proceedings, and refused to take more testimony, acknowledgng that he had been imposed upon. Among the witnesses examined were the Hon. George Sanderson, Democrat, of Scranton, who testified that he knew of no money having been used to further Mr. Scranton's election, but that the great change in that district was caused by the disaffection which prevailed among the Democracy towards the present Administration, and by the high character and popularity of Mr. Scranton among all classes; much importance. The request of the Senate J. H. Puleston, who testified that he accompanied Mr. Scranton thro' the greater part of the canvass of 1858, and that no money was improperly used to his knowledge, nor any improper means, to advance his election ; Dr. "the rain, the plashing rain," of which Davis, editor of the Scranton Herald, a Demwe sometimes get too much here, has not been ocratic paper, who testified that he supported Mr. Scranton in opposition to the regular Democratic nominee, because of his fitness and dethermometer ranges from 90 degree to 95 de. votion to the best interests of the People of his District and that he received no pecuniary consideration for these services. Others, including Mr. Brisbin, formerly Democratic Member of Congress, were present anxious to testify in Mr. Scranton's behalf, but further testimony was declared unecessary.

D. S. Koon, lawyer, residing at Pittston, who preferred the charges, knew nothing beyond vague statements, and upon the examination of Dr. Puleston in reply, was unceremoniously dismissed as unworthy of notice. The er, unanimously ordered that Mr. Koon should not receive either mileage or fees; but Mr. Scranton very generously directed his returning expenses paid, notwithstanding bis base aspersions.

This experiment has cost about $1000. When the investigation was proposed, Mr. Covode protested against calling witnesses without specific information, but Mr. Winslow appealed to the House and obtained the order.

HON. JOHN GALBRAITH, formerly a Representative in Congress from the Erie District, and for several years President Judge of the Courts of Erie, Crawford and Warren counties, died very suddenly yesterday at his residence in Erie. He served in Congress from 1833 to 1837, and again from 1839 to 1841, and ocenpied a high position as an intelligent and sagacions representative. As a learned, upright aud impartial jurist, few men ever enjoyed a larger share of public confidence. For the last couple of years Judge GALBRAITH had given up almost his entire time to the establishment of an Industrial Reform School for the instruction and reformation of the destitute the administration democracy. Justice has at and criminal, and with a liberal act of incorporation procured in 1859, mainly through his efforts, the institution was in a fair way of suceessful inauguration, a farm of several hundred acres in Western Pennsylvania having already been purchased for its location.

Near these remains were found a saddle, bridle and martingales, very much decayed. The saddle was a club, some two or three feet in length, and many who examined it say that traces of blood are distinctly visible upon it. No bones of the skeleton were fractured, however. Three of the horses' hoofs were found, two of The reports concerning GARIBALDI and the which still retained their shoes. COUNTY REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN ASSOCIATION. In pursuance of previous notice, the Republicans of Bradford county assembled at the Court House, in this borough, on Saturday last at 4 o'clock, P. M., to organize and adopt a constitution, etc. for a county Campaign Association, and to put the machinery in motion wherewith to ensure a certain victory of the Republican party in the approaching State and Presidential canvass

The meeting was organized by calling W. C. BOGART. Esq., to the chair, and appointed E. A. Parsons Sec'y. On motion, a committee was appointed to report per nanent officers for the Association, who made the follow ing report :

President-B. F. POWELL. Vice-Presidents-E. H. PERKINS, Col. IRAD WILSON. Recording Secretary-E. OVERTON, JR. Corresponding Secretary-G. H. WATE INS. Treasurer-THOMAS M. WOODRUFF.

Executive Committee-E. GUYER, P. D. MORROW, J. F. KIRBY, JAMES H. WEBB, W. C. BOGART; after which it was moved and carried, that the following additional names be added to the Executive Committe : D. WILMOT, H. L. SCOTT, E. R. MYER, U. MERCUR.

The Committee asked and obtained leave to report a constitution and by-laws for the government of the Association at an adjourned meeting.

On motion, there was a committee of five appointed t draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the Associa-"THE FARMER AND GARDENER," for June is tion, viz :- E. GUYER, G. H. WATKINS, Maj. U. TERRY, Col. G. F. MASON, E. P. SHAW.

The Committee through their Chairman, after a short absence presented the following Resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

unanimously adopted:

In view of the approaching Presidential election election, the Republican electors of Bradford county deem it advisable to organize a County Campaign Republican Association, the sole purpose of which shall be to coperate with similar organizations in the respective townships of the county, stimulate the formation of republican clubs in the election districts where this has not yet been done, and do whatever else is essential to secure the triumph of the republican cause; and that this may not be misunderstood we declare. not be misunderstood we dealare, First, That it is our solemn conviction that free labor

First, That it is our solemn conviction that free labor alone can preserve this government, and that to uphold and advance it, is alike our privilege and our duty, to the past, the present and the future.

Second, That as the institution of Slavery as sustained in the Southern States of this Union, denies to the colored race the rewards due to both mental and physical labor, it degrades the industrial pursuits of the Free States, and abnegates the inalienable rights of man, thus practically refuting the whole theory of our democratic institutions as understood by the fathers of the republic.

Third, That as the propagandists of this institution are endeavoring to extend its territorial area, and social and civil influence, it behooves us, as consistent freemen, to oppose this extension at all points, and by all constitutional means, wishing it to be distinctly understood that we chaim no right to interfere with it in the states where it now exists.

Fourth, That as the doctrine of Protection to Home Industry, as recognized in the earlier impost laws, tends to ennoble toil, elevate and strengthen the laboring man, in all his relations of life, we declare an unfaltering adhesion to it.

Fifth, That as strict economy in administering the fiscal affairs of the nation, is due to the people and necessary to keep down peculation, we avow our utter adhorrence of the wastefulness of the public funds, and the fraudulent purposes on which they have been applied by Mr. Buchanan and his administration.

Sixth, That as a party, we are opposed to rebellion against the constituted authorities, and long established usages of the government, no matter from what quarter they spring.

Secenth, That we hold no personal animosity towards any portion of the people of this confederacy fand that any portion of the people of this confederacy, and that in opposing political dogmas, and institutions obtaining in any division of the country, we are only exercising our rights as freemen, and do it from convictions of duty to the country.

Eighth, That in order to carry out fully the positive

Eighth, That in order to carry out fully the positive and inferential principles hereful set forth, we pledge to them our present and future support.

Ninth, That in ABRAHAM LINCOLN, HANNIBAL HAMLIN, and ANDREW G. CURTIN, we recognize able and consistant Republicans, true ment and good citizens, whose public and private lives give evidence of fidelity to the government, and the noblest interests of our race, and who therefore deserve, as they shall have, our unified suffrages.

On motion the Association adjourned to meet on Wednesday evening, June 21, at Mercur's Hall, for the purpose of adopting a constitution and by-laws, and to transact such other business as may be necessary.

By the arrival Sunday evening of the Bohemian at Farther Point, from Liverpool ecreted under a fallen tree. Near the skeleton was found on the 6th inst., and Londonderry on the 7th. we have three days later intelligence from Europe. It is of considerable importance .-bombardment of Palermo are as usual, conflicting. According to some advices, the bombard ment still continued, while others describe mode of shoeing is practiced anywhere in this vicinity. GARIBALDI as having stormed the citadel, after her expressions were earnest and confident, yet ever the capture of a portion of the Neapolitan martingales, and hoofs bearing the shoes, are now in the artillery. Subsequent accounts state that on Death came when the love of life was probably strongest, a proposition of General LANZA, commander surrounded as she was with worldly comforts and beloved of the royal troops, an armistice had been concluded, GARIBALDI demanding that the Neapolitan army should evacuate Palermo. This would seem to be true, as still later advices from Naples represent the King as refusing the conditions, the recommencement of hostilities being close at hand. Later dispatches still state that the bombardment had commenc ed, while a telegram from Falermo, of the 3d, announces that the armistice still continued : that GARIRALDI was master of the town, but that the Neapolitan troops held the forts -Letters from the French squadron say that GARIBALDI was compelled to grant through a failure of ammunition. Officers from the Sardinian army were about to join them. From England we learn that the Post office authorities had notified the Company of the Galway. Line that services on the mail contract were to commence on the 26th inst., for New-York, and on the 10th of July for Boston. The Company were to hold an extraordinary meeting, to borrow money. In the House of Commons Mr. GLADSTONE stated that £500,000 more would be wanted for the expenses of the China war. Lord JOHN RUSSELL denied that it was the intention of the Government to postpone the Reform bill until next session. In commercial maters there was a slight decline in cotton, with an advance in flour and wheat, owing to the unfavorable state of the weather. Provisions were at nominal prices. Troy Budget understands that John Morrissey is to go immediately into training at the "Abbey," with a view of fighting Heenan in August. He has left New York, and expres- mitted himself to the Lord, who, he was persuaded ses his determination to vanquish the champion of the world, notwithstanding he (Morrissey) is threatened with consumption.

By the California Overland Express. arrived at Springfield, Mo., on the night of the 14th inst., we have news from California, which is not of special interest, to the 25th ult. The news from Japan is to April 2, and that in relation to the attack upon Prince GoTAIRO is of interest. The statement is that about a week prior to the date of the news. Prince Gotairo, while on his way from his residence to the palace in Jeddo, with his usual guard of sixteen, was attacked by a party of eighteen, and six of the guard and four of the assailants were killed. Seueral others were wounded, among them the Prince, but his recovery was confidently anticipated. It is feared by many that a revolution is impending which, if successful, will result in the expulsion and death of all foreigners.

MASSACRE OF MISSIONARIES .- We have intelligence of another massacre of missionaries in Patagonia. It took place upon one of the islands near the coast, to which the Patagonia Missionary Society had sent agents, in hope of civilizing and Christianizing the people .-Not long since, the Captain of the mission ship, with the Catechist and six of the crew, while on shore, were set upon by the natives some two hundred in number, and were beaten to death with clubs.

THE HOMESTEAD BILL .- After several meetngs of the Committee of Conference on the disagreeing votes of the Senate and House on the Homestead Bill, and a great deal of discussion on the various propositions, the Committee reported that they were utterly unable to agree, and asked for their discharge. Thus ends the matter for the present. The friends of the Homestead bill know upon whom the blame rests. The Republicans of the Senate and House have done best to secure the passage of this beneficent measure, and the democracy has effectually prevented them. The triumph of Lincoln alone can secure the success of a measure to which the people of the free North are so much attached.

HON. JEREMIAH S. BLACK, Attorney-General of the United States, is spoken of in connection with the vacancy upon the Supreme Branch caused by the death of Judge DANIEL.

Of Scarlet Fever, at Macedonia, Pa., on the 24th of May, in the 10th year of his age, WALTER, eldest son of WM. F. and ANN E. COLE.

The writer of this notice has seldon been called upon to discharge a more painful duty than he experienced in performing the functal obsequies of the deceased.

WALTER was an unusually sprightly and winning lad, intelligent quite beyond his years. He possessed many excellent qualities of both head and heart; was obliging to his friends, always courteous to strangers, dutiful to his parents, respected to his teachers, and kind to his little rothers and sister. His early death is greatly lamented; but we console ourselves with this pleasing reflection that what is "odf loss is lifs unspeakable gain." R. W.

Thy first-born son is called away. Dear mother, to be free. To dwell with Jesus ; hear him say ---Let children come to me.

With truths divinely given, That be must preach, and so be blest. Beford he went to heaven. But God, to show his work of grace, Released this little one, That he might see his Father's face.

And glorify his Son: Thus WALTER died. God chose his time, And broke the earthly tie, To plant him in a fairer clime

Above the starry sky. Fond parents, do not mourn your loss, For him there's no more pain, Devoutly cling unto the cross, And thus ye'll meet again.

Herrick, Pa. June 14, SARAH, wife of Rev. GEORGE Lampon, of Lung disease, aged 42 years, 2 months and the pearl of great price in her youth, and identified herself with the M. E. Church, and during the remaining term of her mostal Wild, worthily shared the confidence and warm affection of her christian associates. She was joined in marriage with the Rev. GEORGE LANDON on the 31st of October, 1842, and with him shared in the toils and trials incident to the christian ministry. Sister Landon was uniformly cheerful, had a tender sympathetic heart, free from ostentation and deceit,-one that was always herself, at home and abroad. She was a warm and trusty friend, a doting mother, and an affeconate wife, fully consecrated to the interest and happiness of her family. In her social exercises of worship companion, and five interesting children, (one having receded her to Heaven,) but grace triumphed,-she en joyed peace with God, and calmly resigned herself to his How blest the righteous when he dies ; When sinks a weary soul to rest; How mildly beam the closing eyes!

chastened with christian modesty and self-abasement .-

How gently heaves the expiring breast. The high respect and esteem in which the deceased as held by the community where she lived and died, was clearly evinced by the unusual number that were in attendance, on the occasion of her funeral, notwithstanding the day was somewhat unpropitious and forbidding.

Farewell! We meet no more On this side Heaven; The parting scene is o'er, The last sad look is given. Rome, June 18, 1960. At his residence in Warren, Pa. June 6, EBENEZER CO-

He was born in Oxford, Worcester county, Mass., Sep. tember 4, 17,8, and had consequently obtained the age of eighty-two years, nine months and two days. He came to the region of country in which he lived and died about the year 1800, when it was a wilderness. Hither he was soon followed by his father and the remainder of his family. He lived to see the wilderness, once echoing with the howl and shriek of the wild beast, inhabited by industrious men, crossed by rumerous and good roads, and trees formed into fruitful fields. He became a member of the church of Warren and Orwell (then Congregational) in 1818. When this church was divided his lot was cast with the Wagren (now Presbyterian) church, in which he remained until his death. He was 'quiet, inoffensive, intelligent christian man and emphatically a man of peace. For forty two years he was permitted to follow in the footsteps of Christ .-He adorned the religion he professed by a consistent walk, by his constant attendance upon the sanctuary. when able, and by liberal contributions to the support of

During his last and long sickness, he delighted to speak of the sufferings of it, and to profess him before men.-He was greatly interested in all the revivals of religion and especially desired one in the church to which he bo longed, as all know who heard his frequent prayers and exhortations. As he approached the hour of dissolution his hope seemed bright and his faith strong. He comwouldtake care of him, and fell asleep. He lived a peace. ful life and died almost without a struggle, and as we believe, enjoying a good hope of a glorious resurrection.
