[From Forney's Press.]

The returns of yesterday's election indicate The returns of yesterday's election indicate the election of Col. Andrew Greece Custin, brought in profits enough to sustain the Scattergood Mission School for a year. as Governor of Pennsylvania, by an unprecedented majority. Mr. Foster's silence has assisted him, it would seem, with no section of the Democratic party. The vote has been unusually large, and the defeat singularly significent. The returns speak in bolder and stronger Saxon than we can write.

There can now happily be no more balking of the great question involved in the Presidential struggle. The reasons in favor of a combination against ABRAHAM LINCOLN, however they may have operated prior to the election decided yesterday, and however they may operate in advance of that which is to be decided on the first Tuesday of November coming, cannot be effective when men come to choose between candidates, each of whom represents a principle autagonistic to the other.

Now, we take it there can be no more union between BRECKINRIDGE and DOUGLAS than between two naturally repulsive forces. Each represents a distinctive platform. No advocate of Mr. Douglas believes, or affects to believe, in the doctrine upon which Major BRECKINRIDGE stands, and no advocate of Major BRECKINRIDGE believes, or effects to believe, in the doctrine upon which Mr. Doug-LAS stands. The Southern friends of BRECK-INRIDGE, more frank than the most of the friends of Douglas, declare as a general thing, that under no circumstances will they ever accept either the candidate or the creed upon which the regular Democracy stand. In the language of Senator Benjamin, of Louisiana, in his last great speech, they would not accept victory if their platform was to be construed in one way in the North, and another way in the South. They believe that the institution of slavery is carried by the Constitution of the of the United States into the Territories or the Union, and that it must be protected there against the popular will and rather than yield this principle, or submit to the election Northern man to the Presidency of the United States, like ABRAHAM LINCOLN, the most of them would be willing to justify a preparation for secession from the Union. They have made the issue. Standing upon this idea, they have so consolidated the Southern people around their candidate, Mr. BRECKINRIDGE, that we shall not be surprised, since Colonel CURTIN's election, to see a very large majority of the Southern people decide in favor of that candidate. They are sensible of this great adaantage : and while in the Southern States they reject with disdain all coalitions with Mr. Bell, whom they regard as a traitor to Southern institutions, and trample upon Mr. Doug-LAS as an enemy equally hostile to them with Mr. SEWARD himself, they are, with condescending sagacity, particularly willing to unite with the friends of BELL and Douglas in the free States to carry electors against Lincoln, because they know that in such a combination they will be able to gain something, which will be added to the controlling aggregate of their triumphant electoral vote in the South EVERY FUSION IN THE FREE

PRESIDENCY OF THE UNITED The friends of Mr. Douglas, rather than see themselves used as instruments in favor of extreme Southern Disunionism, will now leave the responsibility of the coming result to those who, while protesting that the election of ABDAHAM LINCOLN must lead to the dissolution of the Union, stubbornly refused to sustain and support the only candidate before the American people who could have prevented —Thos. STATES, THEREFORE, IS INTENDED the election of Mr. Lincoln. [From the Harrisburg Patriot and Union-Breckinridge.] on the 29th ult.

TO PROMOTE THE ELECTION OF

We believe that the great mass of the friends of Mr. Donglas supported Foster in good faith; but it is clear that many of the Forney tion of Foster could be of no possible advantage to Mr. Douglas, stabbed him quietly and secretly. This treachery was more extensive than was anticipated, and is no doubt as mortifying to the true friends of Douglas as it is to all enemies of the Republican party.

Passing from cause to effect, we say frankly that the election of ANDREW G. CURTIN makes the defeat of ABRAHAM LINCOLN hopeless. It is useless to attempt to keep up appearance by Democratic and conservative vote of Pennsylvania when generally united, could not carry Fostes, it cannot defeat Lincoln when divided among three candidates. Had Foster been elected, it is probable that a union might have been formed that would have carried the State in November-but since the field has been lost and won, nothing remains for the Demogratic and conservative voters of the State, but to test the relative strength of their several candidates, and to atter through the ballot box their protest against the election of a sectional President, by a minority of the people of the United States.

How this may best be done, is a matter for further consideration. We have stuck to the cause of union as long as it appeared possible the election of Lincoln. But since that seems the Bell-Everetts. Douglas and Lincoln neck and neck. to be a foregone conclusion, it is a matter of little consequence whether the friends of ticket or a union ticket, only so they are en- sent to the Dead Letter Office. abled to express their preference for Mr. Breckinridge.

> POLITICS IN BALTIMORE.—The late Reform triumph in Baltimore is likely to work a revolution in the political condition and prospects of the State of Maryland. The Republicans held a mass meeting in Baltimore, Friday night, which was attended by one thousand persons, and which was marked by a wonderful degree of enthusiasm-several speeches being made, and no indication of any desire to interfere with the proceedings being exhibited. On the contrary, many dissatisfied Americans and Union men united with them, including members of American Clubs and Bell and Everett Minute Men, chagrined at the result of the late election, and impelled by a spirit of retaliation against members of their own organizations, who voted with the Reformers. It is thought that the accessions to the Republican ranks may be so numerous as to imperil the chances of Bell and Everett in the State, and to improve those of Breckinridge materially. affairs of Congress.

AGRICULTURAL FAIR .- The Seventh Annual Exhibition of the Bradford County Agricultural Society took place upon the grounds of the Society, on Thursday and Friday of last week. We are pleased to announce that it was a decided success-far in advance of any pre-entries, and the number of persons in attendinge. A drenching rain on Thursday afternoon, threatened to prove disastrous, but towards evening, the sky cleared up, and the sun rose Friday upon as lovely a day as was ever experienced. The attendance Friday was very arge, more people being upon the grounds than had ever

Supreme Court .- The case of Ingham vs. Barclay Railroad, which went up to the Supreme Court parade. Sunday he went to Trinity Church from this County, was lately decided, by a reversal, and and then betook himself to his private apart a new trial granted, upon what grounds we did not learn.

GRAND CONCERT .- The celebrated Scottish vocalist, Mrs. Lindsay (late Miss Frazer) gave a Conert at the Court House, on Tuesday evening, ass Mr. J. Roy Frazer, tenor, and by Mrs. Ellason, of El mira, who presided at the Piano. The attendance wa quite large, and the Concert a decided success. Mrs INDSAY has a voice of great sweetness, power and flex cultivation and training. In singing some of the sweet lively manner. Mr. FBAZER's tenor is very fine and Mrs. ELIASON'S grace at the piano, with her fine performance, gave great satisfaction.

-We are pleased to learn that at the pregent reques of many of our citizens, Mrs. LINDSAY has consented to visit this place on Tuesday evening, 23d inst, when there who were unfortunate enough not to be pressent on th occasion spoken of will have an opportunity to hear her

[From the Philadelphia North American.] The returns from Indiana and Ohio justify us in expressing our thanks to Mr. Dougla for his efficient service in this campaign. Wherever he spoke in Vermont and Maine the Republican majorities increased. Without his assistance in Pennsylvania we should probably have fallen several thousand behind our present Now ready at Retail, and are offered a triumph. And now on the heels of these the western states come booming along with results which are almost astounding. Indiana is redeemed on the popular vote, in Congress and in the legislature, mostly owing to the speeche sin, and will probably contribute to like successes in those states. If we could send a few more such missionaries abroad there would be no use in organizing a campaign. Our allies selves. Mr. Douglas has been much mistified as to "popular sovereignty" of late, but if he would take the pains to study the election returns now coming in, he will be apt to get an

Sectional Candidates.—The election in Florida resulted in the success of the Breckin-ridge candidates: those of the Bell party stand next on the list; but at the last advices the votes for Douglas had not been counted. It is supposed that he will receive nearly as many as Lincoln, whose forces were not organized in that state. At the November election Lincoln will probably come nearer to success than his it. The Republican National Executive

The Republican Nationa emphatically not sectional, because there is no at my Garden, section, under the present appearances, from which he will receive a solitary electoral vote. The East, North and West are for Lincoln : while the Middle and South will be divided Republican House of Representatives to aid between Lincoln, Bell and Breckinridge .-Mr. Lincoln, if elected, in administering the Douglas ought to take up his residence in one of the territories and get naturalized.

EXECUTION OF WALKER -It is now ascertained, we believe, beyond a peradventure, that Gen. Walker was executed on the 12th inst. The British war-steamer Gladiator, brought the news to New Orleans, together with the remnant of Walker's "a:my." Ten shots, it is stated, were fired at him, amid the cheers of the natives, and he was afterwards buried by foreigners. Col. Rudler has escaped with a sentence of four years imprisonment.

Baron Renfrew-or as we may as well say, the Prince ow Wales-left Philadelphia, on Thursday. He arrived at Amboy about one o'clock, and was received by the New York committee of reception, General Scott, and a few d stinguished guests who were on board the Harriet Lune. His reception in New York was in accordance with the programme. He landed at Castle Gard n at three o'clock, suffered a speech from Mayor Wood, before visited an exhibition, while the display of cattle, and an introduction to the municipal police. horses and mechanical implements, fruits, vegetables, At about three he emerged from Castle Garden, and, mounting, reviewed the troops in his colonel's uniform. There was an immerse ed to the Fifth Avenue Hotel esorting the Prince, who rode in an open barouche. assembly is said to have been the largest ever seen in New York, and was a gratifying in liday night, covering the ground to the depth of two or cation of the good will felt by the masses to the heir of England's throne.

On Saturday, the Prince visited the establishments of some of the New York tradesmen and looked in at Barnum's Museum, closing th labors of the day with a sight of the firemen's ments. At 10 Monday he departed from the Bettery, in the Harriet Lane, for Albany, vis West Point
