AN OLD SUBSCRIBER. - The Lycoming Gazetee says. Mr. Adam King, of Larry's Creek, called last week to renew his subscription. For fifty-five years Mr. King's name has been on the subscription books of the Gazette, and his errand was to pay for the fitty-sixth

CHEERING .- As an evidence of the fact that the spirit of reform is still alive, we may notice the fact that a Division of the Sons of Temperance has been ofganized in Elmira. May its success in reformation be equal to the need of it.

The Chenango American of the 6th ist, contains the announcement of the death of Hon. ROBT. MONELL, formerly a Circuit Judge of the 6th Judicial District of this State, who died at his residence in Greene at the age of 74 years.

VETERAN GONE -The Tioga Agitator notices the death in Westfield township, of that county, of NATHAN WHITMORE, a soldier of the Revolution-aged 107 years. Another veteran, Enos Marshall, aged 106 years and 9 months, died at Covert, Seneca county, N.Y. on the 23d of Nov. Mr. Marshall was a soldier under Gen. Gates, and was at Saratoga in 1777.

Township and Lecal, Laws .- We are indebted to Mr. Edward F. James, of West Chester ublisher, for a volume bearing this title. It is a com he Peace, Constables, Supervisors of roads, &c., a h wilition it contains a number of blank forms for instruments of writing, most in use. The volume is a valble one, and should be in the hands of every man.

SKATING .- The river above the dam is now ozen over, with a surface clear as crystal, and every who is the possessor of a pair of skates now makes he best use of them. At all hours of the day the glassy surface of the pond is covered with adventurous skaters not boys only-but staid middle aged men, and ladies, e latter of whom do not possess that independence on e which they sometimes assume on land, for they all nifest a strong desire to bestow their hand on some ody. It is an exhilerating and healthy exercise, and the boys and girls should be encouraged in it.

LECTURE. - A Lecture was delivered at the Court House before the A. E. Literary Society, on Friday evening last. by Dr. R. Shelton Mackenzie, upon the subject of "The lights and shades of Irish character." The Dr. is well known to the public as a literary manbeing the author of several works of interest, and as being the literary editor of Forney's Press. The lecture was both instructive and amusing; instructive in regard was both instructive and amusing; instructive in regard to the light thrown upon the origin of the different clans. and in the illustrations which his personal association with many of the eminent men of that country enabled lim to make; and amusing from the fund of Irish anec

The Record of the Times, gives the par plars of a sad calamity, resulting in the death of thester Davenport of Ross township. With several ther young men he was hunting on North Mountain and was off at a runway while the others started to chase the deer. They had gone about 40 rods when they heard the gun and a shout which brought them back, when they found him a few feet from his station unable to peak, and is a few minutes breathed his last. It was hought that he stepped on a small tree lying down from which he slipped and the gun striking the tree was dis entering his side just below the ribs.

Christmas is coming, and by the looks the shop and store windows, it will be seen that our talers have made preparations to meet it. All kinds of toys for the little ones, and costler kinds for older chilren are displayed, sufficient, if all sold, to make everybody happy. #### DIED.

Of Scarlet Fever, in North Towanda, Dec. 12, 1869, AUGUSTA R., only child of Charles and Minnie Dunlap, aged 4 years, 3 months and 18 days.

The little one thus early called away from earth, was an exceedingly lovely child. Few children have enjoyed more of love and affection than did she. Indeed she seemed to feel that every one was her friend, and truly every one was. With her kind and winning ways, and her unaffected and pleasing artlessness, she gained the hearts of all who knew her. She had been taught obedience, and she loved it. In her last sickness, which was exceedingly severe and mainful, she uttered no nurmar gailty as charged in the indictment, but guilty of an attempt to commit missdemeanor.

Com vs. Simeon Cook.—Defendant pleaded guilty at present session, of larceuy, and is sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars and cost of prosecution, and undergo fait minimisonment in the Penitentiary for the term of one year and nine months.

Com. vs. Dennis Manahan.—Defendant found guilty of stealing a bee-hive, and is sentenced to pay a fine of the serious group.—That she is there. We believe that He, who took little children in his arms, has also taken her, and that henceforth she "will ever be with the Lord."

Her parents, though with crushed and bleeding hearts they mourn their loss, cannot but feel that they have still a great treasure of pleasing recollections, and fond remembrances. Hay the fact that our little ones are ta-ken from us here tend to loose our affections from earth, and fix them in heaven.

Erg sin could blight or sorrow fade

Death came with friendly carehe opening flower to heaven conveyed And bade it bloom forever there.

In Springfield, Bradford Co. Pa., Nov. 30th, LUCIN-

"There is a land mine eye hath seen, In visions of enraptured thought,
So bright that which spreads between
So with its radiant glory fraught:
A land upon whose blissful home
There rests no shadow, falls no stain;
There those who meet shall part no more,
And those long parted meet again,"
