DIED. On Wednesday, Feb. 6, of Diphtheria, JAMES, aged 31 years, and on Friday, Feb. 8th, JOSEPH G., in the 21st year of his age, both sons of James M'Case of this place. In the death of the last mentioned one, the circle of his friends has lost one who was much beloved and esteemed by all who knew him. He was a young man of good habits and gave promise of great usefulness. It seems but a very short time since he received the congratulations of his friends at his marriage, and since that event in October last he appeared to develop his character rapidly. When the disease of which he died entered the household and prostrated the other members of the family he watched and nursed them with all care until the recovery of his sisters, and then concentrating his attention upon his brother, he looked forward to his early recovery, but in this he was disappointed, and on the day of his brother's death, he was himself taken, and the terrible scourge soon ran its course. His death, so sudden, so unlooked for, cast a gloom over our entire community, by all of whom the deceased was beloved. It is a mysterious providence and it comes to each one with a lesson of instruction. When told he was near, on the morning of the day he died that his end was near, he received the message with calmness and resignation, sent for several of his friends and bade them farewell, expressed his confidence in his Saviour and died in the hope of eternal life through the atoning merits of the Lamb of God. "Be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of Man cometh."

At the residence of his father in Franklin, Feb. 10, 1861, NOHMAN F., son of Calvin and Mary Ann Varnoy, aged 17 years.

The deceased was a young man of an amiable disposition, industrious habits, and respected by all who knew him. Yet in the bloom of youth he was stricken down and the hope of fond parents blighted.

THOMAS SULLIVAN. I hereby forbid all persons from harboring or trusting her on my account, as I shall pay no debts of her contracting.
