HE COLD THURSDAY .-- ITS EFFECTS ON THE Burbank's Bakery ! CROP .- Few of our readers, we presume, have a the extreme severity of the weather on Thurs. a 7th instant. Since that date, our exchanges tiven discouraging accounts of the prospective op throughout the State. We were at first slow this unpleasant report, and have hoped that the was exaggerated. But we find the worse accounts as exaggerated. But we find the worse accounts atly confirmed. The peach crop of 1861 has pped in the bud, and the peach-growers in the pred in the bud, and the peach-growers in the have lost thousands of dollars by this little freak weathery elements. We learn that Col. FROST. ighland Nurseries, Schuyler County, does not exharvest a bushel. MILES BALDWIN, Esq., of ng, informed us on Tuesday last that the " cold ay" had entirely cut off all prospect of a peach in that locality. The buds were all killed. Mr. WIN owns the largest and best assorted Nursery in nty, and his loss in this particular will amount the southern slope of a hill, and, although that is red by many as the best locality for them, it is ably the worst ; as they receive the effects of the more directly-the buds swell early, and of course a change to extreme cold must ent them off. ting has no effect upon the trees until after the buds -Elmira Press.
