

facts, or were influenced by other considerations than the merits of the application.

There are other matters urged by the respondents which we pass without expression of opinion.

OPINION OF THE SUPREME COURT. The opinion of the Court was delivered at Philadelphia, January 7th, 1861, by Chief Justice LOWRIE, as follows:

The school law does not leave the Directors without any discretion relative to sending children to the schools of an adjoining district, and does not seriously impair the district divisions.

There must be great distance and great difficulty of access to the schools of the district, before there can be any right to ask to be sent to a more convenient school of an adjoining district, and it seems to us that there is nothing of the kind here.

Whether the distance or difficulty of access is to be regarded as great or not, depends much upon circumstances, such as the age of children, the density of the population, and the customs of the locality; and therefore must be left, in a great degree, to the discretion of the Directors.

We think that the dismissal of the plaintiff's petition is fully justified by the reasons assigned by the learned President of the Sessions. It is well for the school system, for the peace of neighborhoods, and for the securing of discreet men for Directors, that he should be so treated, as to warn men that they must be cautious in attempting to get the courts to interfere with the discretion of the School Directors.

Honorable and trustworthy men will not accept public positions, if they understand it to be the rule, that all their official acts are subject to a suspicious supervision by the people, or by their official superiors.

Order affirmed at the costs of the petitioners, and record remitted.

FACTS FOR FARMERS.—"Those farmers who have most difficulty to make ends meet, always plough most and keep most stock. Now these men take the true plan to keep themselves always poor and bring little."

Next thing to an ANGEL UPON EARTH.—A gentleman walking through Knightsbridge on Sunday overheard the following conversation between a man and a woman, who appeared as if just come from some pleasure trip into the country.

Woman. "Blow me, Bill, how tired I do feel! I'm as miserable, too, as a starved herring. What a miserable world is this! I wish I'd never been born, that I do; and now that I'm born, I wish myself dead again."

Man. "Why, Bet, what's the matter with you now? What are you grumbling about?"

Woman. "Why don't I tell yer I am as miserable as a rat?"

Man. "Miserable, indeed! Why, what on earth would yer have? Yer was drunk Monday, and yer was drunk again Wednesday, and I'm blessed if yer hasn't had pretty near enough to-day. If that ain't enough pleasure for yer, I'll be blasted if I know what is. I suppose you wants to be a downright hangel er upon hearth."

A QUERER MISTAKE.—One of the ridiculous mistakes which will sometimes befall soldiers, befell a whole file of the snugly attired military of New Orleans on the day of the Twigs reception. They were drawn up along the street in front of a building in course of construction, and close in their rear was a long mortar bed, two feet deep with that plastic composition, ready for the workmen.

THE SUBSCRIBERS having leased this well known Hotel for a term of years, would inform their friends and the traveling public, that they will be most happy to accommodate all who may favor them with their presence.

WHAT IS THE PALMETTO?—The South Carolinians have adopted the palmetto as an emblem of their State. The palmetto is defined as a cabbage tree. It attains the height of forty or fifty feet, and is the tallest of our palms.

BOOKS AND STATIONARY. (SUCCESSOR TO O. D. BARTLETT.) AT THE OLD STAND!!

HAVING purchased the entire stock of Books and Stationary, Paper Hangings, &c., of O. D. Bartlett, to which has been added a large assortment of everything in the line of BOOKS & STATIONARY, making a large and complete assortment as can be found in the county. I invite my friends and the public to call and examine for themselves.

My stock consists of SCHOOL BOOKS, MISCELLANEOUS LITERATURE, HISTORIES & BIOGRAPHICAL, RELIGIOUS WORKS, a large assortment of BLANK BOOKS, of all shapes and sizes, and as low as can be had at any other establishment. Also, a fine lot of BIBLES, large and small, Commentaries, Prayer and Hymn Books. I would call particular attention to my stock of PAPER HANGINGS. Of which I have a great variety of patterns and of the latest styles. I still continue the NEWS ROOM, and have constantly on hand all the Daily and Weekly papers, standard Monthly Magazines, Thompson's Bank Note Reporter, Monthly and Semi-Monthly, and a variety of Political Text Books. Subscriptions received for the Weekly Tribune, Genesee Farmer, &c., &c. It shall be my aim to sell everything at the lowest rates. All I ask is that my friends and citizens throughout the county will give me a call before buying elsewhere, and I think I can please them both as to price and quality. I shall be continually adding to my stock and intend to keep on hand the largest assortment that can be found in the county. Remember the place, at O. D. Bartlett's old stand. Towanda, Oct. 15, 1860. A. F. COWLES.

A. WICKHAM & SON, WOULD respectfully announce to the public that they have purchased of J. D. Humphrey, his entire stock of DRY GOODS, and in addition are now receiving from New York, large supplies of Goods adapted to the season, embracing all the various kinds of STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS, HATS & CAPS, YANKEE NOTIONS, &c. Which they now offer for sale, at the store formerly occupied by Humphrey & Wickham, (west side of the Public Square). They would most cordially invite all to call and examine their extensive assortment, as they are determined to offer their goods at such prices as cannot fail to suit the closest purchaser. N. B.—Orders can be supplied by us with Gents Hats and Collars, Sewing Silks and Gilted's Peas, at our manufacturers price. A. WICKHAM & SON, Towanda, Oct. 22, 1860.

Instrumental Music will not, as heretofore, be taught in the Institute, but by special arrangement—a class will be taught in a hall adjoining the grounds of the Institute, by the Teacher of Vocal Music. This arrangement has been adopted for the past term, and experience has proved it to be eminently superior to the plan pursued in former years. Special patrons will be taken to secure the greatest progress of those wishing to take lessons in this branch. Terms will be as heretofore: Tuition on Piano Forte, per term, $10 00 Use of instrument on which to take lessons, 2 00

Normal Department.—Special exercises are arranged without extra charge for those preparing themselves as Teachers of Common Schools. Prof. C. R. COBURN, the able and well known Superintendent of Common Schools in the county, has kindly consented to organize the Teacher's class, and direct the course to be pursued. He will also be in attendance on the exercises as often as practicable, and will deliver frequent lectures on the Theory and Practice of Teaching, as also on other subjects connected with Normal Training.

Those persons, therefore, intending to engage in teaching for the winter, will find it greatly to their advantage to be present during the Fall term. Prof. COBURN'S connection with the Institute is not such as to in any way interfere with the discharge of the regular duties of his office. No pupils will be spared, on the part of the Faculty and Trustees, in sustaining the high reputation the Institute has hitherto enjoyed, and in rendering it more worthy of future patronage and support.

Carriage Manufactory at Alba. REYNOLDS, FELLOWS & CO., respectfully inform the people of Bradford and the public generally, that their operations have not been in the least disturbed by the fire, and they are as usual prosecuting their business in all their branches. They are manufacturing to order, and will keep on hand, Carriages, Sleighs, Buggies, Skeletons, Lumber and Democrat Wagons, &c., made of the very best materials, and in the most substantial and workmanlike manner. They use nothing but the best of stock, their timber being mostly from the East, and everything being selected with reference to its durability. As an evidence of the value of their work they point to the fact, that they received the first premium at the last Bradford County Fair, and at a previous Fair the first premium for Carriages. BLACKSMITHING done in all its branches, and particular attention paid to Custom Work. Alba, April 4, 1860.

The Argus Book bindery Again in Full Operation! WE have the gratification of announcing to our friends, and the public, that we are now prepared to do

BOOK BINDING, in all its branches in the latest and most approved styles, and on the most favorable terms. Having secured, permanently, the services of Mr. H. C. WHITEHEAD, a finished workman from Philadelphia, and having added extensively to the fixtures of the concern, giving greater facility than formerly—we can present to the public the most positive assurance of our ability to please our patrons.

Customers should be particular to remember that the "Argus Bindery" is in the Argus Building, as formerly (first building north of the Ward House) and is connected with our Book and Stationery Store and Printing Office, where all work should be delivered. CAUTION.—We are compelled in justice to ourselves, and our old customers, as well as to prevent an imposition upon the public generally, to caution them against a sort of concern, that lately holds out to the public that it is the Argus Bindery. This fraud is practiced no doubt, with a hope of deluding the Public. Against this bold and deliberate attempt to deceive, they are hereby cautioned.

Particular attention paid to re-binding. All work guaranteed. Country Produce of all kinds taken in payment for work. Having made complete arrangements, we are prepared to rule and bind BLANK BOOKS to any style or Towanda, March 5, 1860. E. A. PARSONS.
