 Pupil's boarding in the Hall will furnish their own towels, and the table silver, their option. It is desirable that they also furnish their own bed and bedding when it is convenient, but when otherwise, these will be furnished at a slight charge.
 It is strongly recommended that students from abroad should board in the Institution, as better opportunities for advancement in study are thereby secured.
 Normal Department.—Special exercises are arranged without extra charge for those preparing to enter the Teachers of Common Schools. Prof. C. R. COBURN, the able and well known Superintendent of Common Schools in the county, has kindly consented to organize the Normal class, and direct the course to be pursued.
 He will also be present to conduct his exercises as often as practicable, and will deliver frequent lectures on the Theory and Practice of Teaching, as also on other subjects connected with Normal School instruction.
 Those persons, therefore, intending to engage in teaching for the winter, will find it greatly to their advantage to be present during the course of instruction.
 Prof. Coburn's connection with the Institution is not such as to in any way interfere with the discharge of the regular duties of his office.
 No pupils will be admitted, on the part of the Faculty and Trustees, who do not possess the high reputation the Institution has hitherto enjoyed, and in rendering it more worthy of future patronage and support.
 WILLIAM H. DEAN, Principals.
 Aug. 9, 1860. OLIVER S. DEAN.

BOOK BINDERY.
 THE subscriber having withdrawn from the Argus building, respectfully informs the public that he has removed his Plain and Fancy Bindery to the North Room of the old building, formerly occupied by the Post Office, where he is now prepared to bind all kinds of books in the most approved and workmanlike manner. Having to share my profits with no second person I flatter myself that my prices will meet the satisfaction of the public.
 Thankful for the confidence reposed in me and the public appreciation of my work, for the last two years, I shall endeavor in the future to merit the continuance of public support.
 Particular attention given to re-binding Books. All work warranted. Terms, cash.
 Also, a large assortment of STATIONERY of the best quality, at the lowest prices. Justices' and Constables' BLANKS of all kinds.
 PICTURE FRAMES, round, square and oval; and pictures framed to order, cheaply and known here.
 JOHANN P. BENDER, Bookbinder and Artist.
 Towanda, Jan. 11, 1860.

CAUTION.
 "To be, or not to be, that is the question!"
 Whether his name in the mind to suffer the same and across of some preparation, or by taking up arms against a sea of printing ink, And opposing, end them."
 THE proprietor of the Argus takes occasion in advertising to the public, that he has removed his Plain and Fancy Bindery to the North Room of the old building, formerly occupied by the Post Office, where he is now prepared to bind all kinds of books in the most approved and workmanlike manner. Having to share my profits with no second person I flatter myself that my prices will meet the satisfaction of the public.

TREMENDOUS EXCITEMENT.
LINCOLN TO BE ELECTED.
YET all these seem only to increase the business and prosperity of the Old Foundry and MACHINERY SHOP,
 (South side of Pine st., one door East of H. S. Mercantile Store.)
 The undersigned would call the attention of all concerned to the fact, that he has removed his shop to the above place, and is now prepared to do all kinds of machinery work, and is in the most workmanlike manner.
 FITTING UP MILL IRONS, REPAIRING STEAM ENGINES, from the simplest to the most complicated, in any of their parts, and WARRANTED to give satisfaction.
 PLOWS always on hand of the most approved pattern, wooded in the most substantial manner.
 The undersigned has recently received a large stock of iron, and employing experienced workmen in every department, he is confident that he can satisfy all who favor him with their patronage.
 Towanda, Oct. 15, 1860. JOHN CARMAN.

GEO. H. BUNTING.
 RESPECTFULLY informs his former customers and the public generally, that he has removed his
TAILOR'S SHOP,
 To one door south of Tracy & Moore's store and immediately opposite D. C. Hall's Store, and Tin Store Main-st. He is confident that from his long experience in business he will be able to please all who may favor him with their custom. Owing to the low pressure in the money market, he will make Coats from $2.50 to $4.50 each, and other work in proportion for READY PAY.
 Country Produce in payment, will not be refused, if offered.
 Towanda, March 20, 1858.

A. WICKHAM & SON,
 WOULD respectfully announce to the public that they have just received a large stock of DRY GOODS, and in addition are now receiving from New York, large supplies of Goods adapted to the season, embracing all the varieties of
STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS, HATS & CAPS, and YANKEE NOTIONS, &c.
 Which they now offer for sale, at the store formerly occupied by Humphrey & Wickham, (west side of the Public Square). They would most cordially invite all to call and examine their extensive assortment, as they are determined to offer their goods, for cash, at such prices as cannot fail to suit the closest purchaser.
 N. B.—Dealers can be supplied by us with Gents Bosoms and Collars, Sewing Silks and Gillott's Pens, at the manufacturers price.

The Argus Book bindery
 Again in Full Operation!
 WE have the gratification of announcing to our friends, customers, and the public, that we are now prepared to do
BOOK BINDING,
 in all its branches in the latest and most approved styles, and on the most favorable terms.
 Having secured, permanently, the services of Mr. H. C. WATKINS, a finished workman from Philadelphia, and having added extensively to the fixtures of the concern, giving greater facility than formerly—we can present to the public the most positive assurance of our ability to please our patrons.
 Our customers should be particular to remember that the "Argus Bindery" is in the Argus Building, as formerly, (first building north of the Ward House) and is connected with our Book and Stationery Store and Printing Office, where all work should be delivered.
 CAUTION.—We are compelled in justice to ourselves, and our old customers, as well as to prevent an imposition upon the public generally, to caution them against a sort of concern, that falsely holds out to the public that it is the Argus Bindery. This fraud is practiced no doubt, with a hope of deceiving the public. Against this bold and deliberate attempt to deceive, they are hereby cautioned.
 Particular attention paid to re-binding. All work guaranteed.
 Country Produce of all kinds taken in payment for work.
 Having made complete arrangements, we are prepared to Rule and Bind BLANK BOOKS in any style or pattern, at prices as low as elsewhere.
 Towanda, March 5, 1860. E. A. PARSONS.
