Very many companies were drilling, under the command of experienced men. They were mostly new re eruits, and very awkward. They learn, very quick, how ever, as the great body of the volunteers are intelligent men, and have their hearts in the duty they have under taken. Both arms and uniforms were lacking when we were there, but probably by this time, an abundant supply of both has been procured.

Two volunteer companies raised in this place, and one company principally from Athens and the neighborhood, left this place on Wednesday week, for Troy, expecting to take the Williamsport and Elmira R. R. for Harrisburg. At Troy they were joined by four or five companies from Tioga County, and met by the unwelcome intelligence that they must proceed no farther, the State quota being filled. It was resolved at once that they would not return, and arrangements were made for encamping at Troy until they were ordered be-low. To find comfortable quarters for six hundred men was no small undertaking, but it was accomplished very satisfactorily. The two companies, A and B, from this place, were marched to East Troy, and are quartered at the East Troy House. The others occupy the churches and halls in Troy. The time was occupied with drilling, in which they are making great progress.

Reports that the May Term of the Courts has been postponed, is incorrect. A large amount of business is upon the calendar, and Judge WHITE WILL attend the two last weeks to preside during the trial of cases in which Judge MERCUR is interested.

WAVERLY VOLUNTEERS .-- The Advoeate says that" the drill of the Military Company at that place is going on regularly and most successfully. Capt. POWERS understands his business, and is making his soldiers understand theirs. The roll is yet open for voluzteers, and they are still coming. Through the liberality of R. D. VANDUZER they are enabled to occupy Davis's Hall for all military purposes. The citizens are organizing and drilling a company for a Home Guard. Capt. Powers must "look wild" or his laurels will be taken
