

Agricultural Department.

Calendar of Operations for May, 1861.

Farm—The cultivator will be at no loss for steady employment during this month. The sowing of Spring grains is to be completed, the remaining stock of manure carted out, the ground prepared for hoed crops, and in most sections the planting of corn finished—in cold latitudes the bulk of the latter crop is often safely deferred until about June 1st. The forwardness of the season will, of course, be taken into account in getting in any crop. For corn, especially, it is essential that the ground be warm and dry enough to give a rapid start, and this is measurably true of other crops—a strong growth in the beginning is almost half the battle. Stagnation in business and depression in prices should not be permitted to discourage from sowing and planting a good breadth of grain. There must under any circumstances be a demand sufficient to make crops remunerative—all the more so if a large number of producers are withdrawn from active industry in consequence of disturbances in the nation.

Beans will often succeed on moderately fertile soils, where corn would not pay. They are always marketable, and are valuable for home use, and for feeding, especially to sheep. Prepare the ground as for corn, and plant white bush varieties in drills 2 1/2 feet apart. Drop the seed 3 to 4 inches apart.

Bees are very properly attracting increased attention. A moderate apiary can be easily attended to with little expense and trouble, and with great profit.

Broom Corn—Plant in hills three feet apart each way, or in drills four feet distant. Thin to eight inches in the row, at the first hoeing. Favorable reports have been received from several who experimented with the dwarf variety last season. This may be drilled in rows three feet apart.

Buildings—A good coating of paint will save its cost many times in the preservation of all buildings. Apply it before hot weather comes on, if to be done this season. Remove all litter from matted stalls and the bottom of bays, before it becomes a harbor for rats and mice, which soon take possession when the premises are least undisturbed.

Cabbages—Plant out from hot-beds, in heavily manured mellow ground, if not already done for first crops.

Calves—Mix oatmeal or shorts with skimmed milk for their feed as they grow older—giving but little at first, and gradually increasing the quantity. Allow them a little fine hay until the grass starts sufficiently to furnish a food. Castration of the male is most safely performed at about a month old.

Carrots may still be sown, last month was the better time.

Cattle—Continue to fodder until there is abundance of grass. They will relish a little hay at night even after turned to pasture—Keep up the flow of milk by feeding cows with wet bran, shorts, and roots if any remain until the pasture are in full growth. Feed grain to working cattle according to the severity of their labors. Potatoes or other roots once or twice a week will keep up their appetite.

Ceilers—Dampness or decaying matter in the cellar will injure the furniture and impair the healthfulness of the rooms above. Give free ventilation, remove all offensive substances and keep the sides and ceiling well whitewashed.

Clower—Sow, where it is wanted to enrich the soil by plowing it under while in blossom. Though quite late, it may yet catch if sown on winter grain.

Corn—Prepare the ground, and leave it until warm weather is established. The old rule is, to plant when oak leaves are as large as a mouse's ear. If heavy leeward be broken up this Spring, do not cross plow, and be careful not to disturb the soil in harrowing and marking out the ground. The fermenting sods will afford warmth and nutriment to the growing shoots. Examine seed carefully and reject all injured by frost. It is always useful to soak the seed, or at least wet it, and dry off with time or plaster. We prefer wetting with a thin mixture of tar and water.

Dairying laborers will increase this month—Provide abundant feed for the cows, a cool and neat room and convenient vessels for the milk, and conduct, every operation, for milking with scrupulous cleanliness. Be in no haste to buy a patent churn which is warranted to bring butter in four minutes or less—we know of no apparatus that will produce a good article in that time.

Cranberries may be planted any time this month. The Fall is a better season for grounds which are to be flooded. Secure fresh plants of the Bell variety, particularly for uplands—If cuttings be used, let them be five or six inches long, insert the middle in the soil, leaving the two ends projecting. Set them eighteen inches apart.

Fences—Keep all in repair, particularly boundary and road fences, and around pasture lots where young cattle are confined. If they once become unruly, an ordinary fence will not restrain them.

Flax culture promises to become more remunerative in future, from recent improvements in preparing the fiber. This crop and Hemp should be got in.

Grain Fields—A top dressing of plaster will often prove beneficial. Guano, lime, or wood ashes, sown liberally before the seed is covered, will benefit heavy soils. Keep all stock from fields newly sown, and from winter grain. Pull out weeds as soon as they are plainly visible among wheat, rye, or barley.

Grass [Seed]—Sow, upon grain fields not already seeded, and on poor meadows. Use plenty of seed.

Hedge Rows thrive and spread by being let alone. Tear them out by the roots, not only along the fences, but by the roadsides to prevent further encroachment. If time can not be taken for this, turn a flock of sheep upon them to eat off the young sprouts as they appear, which will destroy them, and keep all in check.

Hoeing will be necessary in many sections before the close of the month. Use the horse-hoe or cultivator where practicable. If hand hoeing is required, use a light and sharp steel hoe, with which the labor can be performed better and with less fatigue than with a poor implement.

Horses—Keep them in good condition during Spring work, by generous feed and thorough grooming. An experienced horseman recommends a frequent allowance of boiled potatoes with grain, which the horses will soon learn to relish. When not in use they will soon fatten rapidly upon this feed.

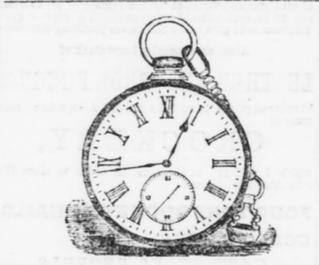

Peas for feeding out may be sown. A low growing variety put in with oats, will be partially supported by the grain, and both will yield a good crop in a favorable season.

Oats—Sow, if not already done.

BOOK BINDERY.

THE subscriber having withdrawn from the Argus building would respectfully inform the public that he has removed his Book and Fancy Bindery to the North East corner of the Argus Building, by the Post Office, where he is now prepared to bind all kinds of Books in the most approved and workmanlike manner—Having to share my profits with no second person I feel sure that my prices will meet the satisfaction of the public.

Thankful for the confidence reposed in me and the public appreciation of my work, for the last two years, I will also be anxious in the future to merit the continuance of public support.

Particular attention given to re-binding Books. All work will be warranted. Terms, Cash. Also, a large assortment of STATIONERY of the best quality, at the lowest prices. Justices' and Constables' BLANKS, of all kinds. PICTURE FRAMES, round, square and oval; and pictures framed to order, cheaper than elsewhere.

JOHANN P. BENDER, Bookbinder and Artist, Towanda, Jan. 11, 1860.

CAUTION.

"To be, or not to be"—that is the question! Whether it is to be, or not to be, is the question! The slanders and arrows of outrageous opposition, or by taking up arms against a sea of printing ink, and opposing, and ending."

THE proprietor of the Argus takes occasion in addressing his Bindery to inform an unfeeling friend, that he has been engaged in a "binding" to the public. As I have opened a Bindery on my own account, the inference is that if the public bring their binding to me, they are in no danger of being defrauded.

For two years, I have been engaged in the "binding" business, and I have returned business here on my own account, as I know of nothing which prevents me from following a legitimate and lawful calling for my support—It is my duty to give the public notice, and attention to my business to give public satisfaction.

March 15, JOHANN P. BENDER, Binder.

TREMENDOUS EXCITEMENT. LINCOLN TO BE ELECTED. YET all these seem only to increase the business and prosperity of the Old Foundry and Miscellaneous.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

A COMPOUND REMEDY, designed to be the most effectual Altera re that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reported to cure. It is in fact, such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumatic complaints, and that one which will accomplish its cure most prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, BRUISES AND EFFUVEIANT DISEASES, ULCERS, PILES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DRUGS, NEURALGIA OR THE BOUTONNET, DEBRILITY, DYSENTERY AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, HOSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the Spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, be cured of those diseases which are the result of eruptions and ulcers sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body, and an alternative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and painful in the veins and capillaries; whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood pure and healthy, and all diseases will be prevented from arising. It is a great blessing to have a medicine which will do this, and which is so simple, and so easy to take, and which is so cheap.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Ayer's Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been found to contain the sick, for they not only contain little, if any Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, the public, in purchasing, should be careful to see the name of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we will not say that Sarsaparilla, and in fact to supply such a remedy as shall be found to be the best of the kind of which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it, has virtues which are irresistible in the ordinary cases of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.
