

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

From Sullivan county, we learn that the whole Democratic ticket was elected. Tarr and Trites (Democrats) are elected to the Legislature, from that district.

HOB. WARREN J. WOODWARD, late President Judge of the 20th Judicial District, has been elected President Judge of the Berks district. Judge Woodward is one of the ablest lawyers in the State and has already proved himself an able and efficient Judge.

"SOME PUMPKINS"—Mr. CHARLES V. TRINCK, of Wadhams township, writes us that he has a pumpkin vine which measures one foot and five-eighths in circumference, at a distance of twelve feet from the root. The vine has sixteen pumpkins upon it. Who can beat it?

FLORAL CONCERT.—The Floral Concert given by fifty young ladies, of this place, on Thursday and Friday evenings, under direction of Prof. J. H. HUNTING, was a decided success, and gave very general satisfaction to the large audience in attendance. We understand that it is to be repeated in Troy.

Eaton's Mercantile Academy is beyond all doubt, the cheapest school of the kind in the country. Young men desirous of becoming qualified to enter the counting room, or for business generally, have an opportunity of doing so, at one-fourth the expense of a like course of instruction in any other Commercial College.

We see it stated that there are now stored in the Arsenal, at Harrisburg, 12,000 stand of arms, 4 brass six pounders, 1 brass eighteen pounder, 4 brass six pounders brought to this country by Lafayette, 4 brass six pounders from the King of the Continent, 600 heavy cavalry pistols, 600 cavalry sabres, 10,000 sets of complete infantry accoutrements, and 750,000 rounds of cartridges.

Keep it before the people, that D. B. DE LASK & Co.'s Chemical Saleratus will universally prevail all that the proprietors claim that it will, and therefore it is not only the cheapest, and its effects are certain and uniform, and consequently sports no bread or biscuit. It is for sale by all respectable wholesale and retail dealers in the country.

"THE INDIANS ARE COMING!"—By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that the celebrated young Chief "Awanetunk," from the Great Sioux Nation, assisted by several young Warriors and boys, will give one of their entertainments at Alpha-Beta Hall, in this place, on Friday evening next. The programme embraces games, dances, songs, stories, tableaux, acrobatics, &c., which are very interesting and amusing. Admittance 15 cents.

A circular has been issued from the Treasury Department in relation to the settlement of the claims of deceased soldiers. The widow of an officer or soldier is entitled to receive the money due; if there is no widow, the pay goes to the children or their guardian. If the soldier dies unmarried, the father, mother, brother or sister, or unmarried child, receives the amount. Written applications must be made under oath, and addressed to EZRA B. FRENCH, Second Auditor of the Treasury Department, Washington.

NEW FIRM—MADILL & PATTON.—We have notice this week in our advertising columns, of the new partnership in the drug trade, between Dr. MADILL of Wysox, and J. G. PATTON. This is as it should be, and we compliment our friend PATTON for securing a valuable partner. Dr. MADILL'S reputation as a skillful and safe Physician, will make his Drug Store one of the most desirable in the country. The residence of the new firm among us is very much desired and will be appreciated.

A very curious calculation has been made relative to the Union troops on the banks of the Potomac. Taking as a basis the regular allowance of room and board for a soldier to stand upright, and in close quarters, it would require the whole roadway from Jersey City to the capital to form the line. If the same troops were to be reviewed it would take a railway train, going at the rate of sixteen miles an hour, over fourteen hours to pass along the line of soldiers.

BEYOND ALL DOUBT.—ALL persons indebted to E. S. BENEDICT, by Note, Judgment, or Book Account, are notified that if the above-named indebtedness is not cancelled by the first of October, proper steps for the collection of the same, will be taken, forthwith. E. S. BENEDICT. Towanda, Sept. 20, 1861.

Railroad, and distant five miles from Waverly and Smithboro depots, contains about 170 acres of land, mostly improved, in a high state of cultivation, and has upon it a large and profitable orchard. It is well adapted for tillage or grazing, being well watered and well located. The attention of those desirous of purchasing a farm is solicited, in the confidence that no greater improvements can be found elsewhere. and more extensive display of poultry never graced a fair in this County. From a mammoth turkey down to a bantam chicken, with all intermediate varieties, were fully represented.

The display of fruit was excellent—far better than could have been expected, as it is evident that the season has been very unfavorable.

The ladies' department of fancy articles, &c., was well represented and most tastefully arranged. It would be difficult for us to name a tithe of the beautiful articles here submitted for inspection. Articles of ornament and utility, from a heavy bed quilt to a woolen stocking of the finest texture, blended with the adornment of the needle, in the shape of tidies, worked capes, collars and baby-dresses, in rich profusion, met us at every turn—white cakes, jellies, snow-white bread, domestic wines, &c., did ample credit to the good taste and industry of Bradford's fair daughters.

Take it all in all, the last exhibition of our Agricultural Society may be regarded as affording gratifying evidence of progress in all that pertains to the material welfare or industrial prosperity of our country. It was well attended by both exhibitors and visitors.

The various rumors which have been put about from time to time concerning the deaths of some of the old leaders in the South all proved the effect, no doubt intended, of keeping alive the excitement, but in our opinion that description of sensation reports ought now to be dispensed with. They are about "played out." First we had the announcement of the death of Beauregard, who was killed by one of the big guns of Fort Sumter, with full descriptions of his funeral, which was attended in Charleston by a number of "reliable" ladies and gentlemen, who subsequently made their escape from Secession under great difficulties. Then Jeff Davis died at Richmond, and all the rebel flags from the Potomac to Manassas Junction were seen at half-mast, and even crape was observed on the arms of some of the rebel military officers in the Southern army. The body of the President of the bogus confederacy was hardly allowed to get above St. Petersburg before the telegraph announced that he was killed by the telegraph at the battle of Davis' Creek, in Missouri. JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE, of course, having lived too long, was next shuffled off the stage of existence, and sent "to that bourne from whence no traveller returns." All these worthies having, in the course of time, turned up alive and kicking, it seems that the old reports are now to be revived, in the hope, we suppose, of creating new sensations. BEN. McCOLLUM has been killed again, and his son has, according to that report, stepped into his father's shoes. Unfortunately for this last rumor, its free currency has been checked by the general knowledge that young BEN. is a myth, not having any real existence, and therefore, if a portion of the rebel forces are still under the command of a man bearing that name, he is no other than old BEN. himself.

Elmira Commercial College. Here special attention is given to reading in the Elements of Knowledge, viz: Spelling, Reading, Writing, Geography, Arithmetic, Grammar, Elocution and Composition. DEPARTMENT OF PENMANSHIP.
