

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Two volunteer companies from this city... (Capt. TAYLOR and Capt. ISHMAN) are in the Great Naval Expedition.

Lieut. J. BILL MEANS, is now in this place, recruiting for the Eight Regiment of Infantry of the Regular Army.

Special Court is now in session at this place. It convened on Monday, and is to continue two weeks.

Workmen are now engaged in repairing the state, at this place, which was considerably damaged by the spring and summer freshets.

REUBEN STYLES has been appointed Postmaster at East Troy, this county, vice N. R. Beck, deceased.

We are indebted to Mr. COWLES, of the Telegraph office, for valuable dispatches, which he kindly furnished us, just before going to press.

Owing to a "rush" of job work, our paper is a day later than usual this week. It contains still later news, however.

C. H. KEELER, late publisher of the Sullivan county Democrat, has retired from that paper. We believe Mr. MEYLER, the proprietor, wishes to procure another publisher.

The storm that swept over the country on Saturday last, is said to have done immense damage to some localities. We have not heard of any very serious damage being done in this county.

We are informed that several couples of this place contemplate emigrating to Hayti, in consequence of the indentments held out by the Haytian Colonization Society. No doubt their condition will be greatly improved, both morally and socially.

A Yankee is decidedly a "calculating" institution, and nothing comes along that he does not subject to the ordeal of figures in some way. The last instance that has come under our observation is the following, which occurs in the way of some editorial speculations upon comets: "Its tail is at least 6,000,000 of miles in length. To graze that tail, it is estimated, would cost a basin of 'fat' as large as Lake Erie, and make constant employ for 15,000 'daughters' for not less than ten years."

REN OVER—A lad, named MICHAEL, seven or eight years old, while playing with other boys on Main street, on Tuesday evening last, was run over by a horse, and received such internal injuries that a recovery is considered doubtful. He was taken home on a stretcher, and medical aid summoned immediately, but it is thought that he cannot recover, notwithstanding the exertions of the physicians.

There should be an ordinance preventing fast driving through the streets, particularly at night.

ARTHEMUS WARD and Mr. PARTINGTON say some very good things, in their way. Somebody has been "talking" about the latter, and the old lady gets "upon her dignity" as follows: "If there is anybody under the name of Artemus, that I have in utter disrespect to a tale bearer and slanderer going about like a vile insect, circulating his vile calomel about my property, I always know one by his phisbagnomy. I know as if he belated had stamped him with his private seal, and everything he looks at appears to turn yellow." And having uttered this somewhat elaborate speech, she was seized with a fit of coughing, and called for some domestic drops.

GOOD CHEER—Ladies, if you are melancholy and cast down in your mind, use D. B. De Land's Chemical Saleratus; it will not only successfully dispel your brood, but, it will thereby raise your drooping spirits, so that you will be better prepared to endure the troubles and trials of domestic life. Call for this saleratus where you do your trading, and if they do not get it, tell them they must get it. Most wholesale and retail dealers in the country keep it.

The Bradford County Teachers' Association will hold its seventh Annual Meeting, at Monroe, Friday and Saturday, November 5 and 6. A lecture may be expected from the retiring President, NATHAN BROWN, Jr., and SAMUEL L. FISLER, A. B., an essay from the FRANCES KINGSLEY, and the reading of selected articles by Miss CECILIA LYONS and Mr. SHELTON CARROLL. Questions connected with the subject of Education will be presented for discussion.

A general invitation is extended. G. D. SCOTT, Secy.

KNIT MITTENS FOR THE SOLDIERS—An officer from West Point, who commands one of the finest regiments in the service, suggests that woolen mittens for soldiers will be greatly needed when cold weather comes in. As our patriotic women, throughout the country, are knitting socks for the soldiers, they will probably turn their attention to knitting mittens for the same purpose. Those of our young ladies who are fond of giving the mitten, "have now an excellent opportunity to gratify that propensity, and instead of being accused of having received the heart-felt thanks of our brave volunteers for their kindness. The mittens knit with one finger, to allow a free use of the fingers and thumb. It is said there were more soldiers killed in the Crimean war from frost bitten fingers than from any other cause.

OUR SOLDIERS—We clip the following from a late number of the Harrisburg Daily Telegraph, which explains itself. We hope it will satisfy some of our domestic cotemporary that Bradford has furnished some soldiers for the war:
