We neglected to state that the Protestant Episcopal Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, at its late ression, elected Rev. Wm. Bacon Strvans, the Rector of St. Andrew's chuch, Philadelphia, to the office of Assistant Bishop, made vacant by the death of the lamented Bishop Bowman,

HARD WINTER .- Farmers and other wise people in the rural districts predict an early winter along one, and a strong one. One of the signs is that birds are already flying southward, and another, that the huskot the corn is very thick and close, and covers the ears to the very ends, which is considered a never-failing sign by the "oldest inhabitants."

To our Merchants .- If you do not keep D. B. De Land & Co.'s Chemical Saleratus, procure it at once as it is gaining friends so fast amongst the good house keepers of the country that you will soon have a call for nothing else. You can get it at wholesale of the proprietors, at Fairport, Monroe Co., N. Y., or of most wholesale dealers in the country.

New Counterfeit - A finely executed coun erfeit of the Farmer's and Mechanic's Bank of Philadelphia, $5 notes, was detected in that city on Thursday last. The only difference of the counterfeit from the genuine is, that the letters in the name of the bank are less regular, and the figures on the side are shaded too deeply. Vignette is perfect.

FIRE - The Owego Gazette, of the 9th inst., says, the barn and corn house of Mrs. J. D. WEED, about two miles east of that village, were destroyed by fire last Friday night. A span of horses and several head attle were burned in the barn, together with hav and went into the barn with a lamp after a chicken. No in-

"A JOKE ON THE SUBSCRIBER."-On Monday night last, a young "buck" was caught in the jail yard, in close proximity to the grated window of a female risoner for whom he had became greatly enamored, and was accustomed to pay his devotions in the small hours of the night. On hearing a strange noise in that locality the Sheriff proceeded to an investigation when the young gent was caught in the "act" and furnished with lodgings in a cell adjoining his caged "loveyer." He is now in 'durance vial"-another evidence that the course of true love never did run smoothe.

We understand that Gov. CURTIN has ointed the following officers for the first regiment in Mountain Brigade, now in Camp Crossman, near ray, Colonel: T. C. McDowell, Lieut, Colonel: Wal Barrett, Major; Dr. G. F. Hoops, surgeon; Rev. Dr. r. This regiment is now fully organized, and as soon as they are uniformed and arms can be procured, will be ady for service. The regiment in a great part is con posed of Clearfield county men.

On Tuesday night last, some graceless camp, who had neither the fear of the law nor the devil before his eyes, maliciously and feloniously entered this office, and with "malice-aforethought" did purloin, thievy take and carry away one bushel of turnips (of the and variety,) which we had taken of an honest farmer nexchange for the Reporter, for three months. Such an strige to be perpetrated in a civilized community is without a parallel in the calender of crime. Stealing from a printer is acknowledged an unpardonable sin, and the perpetrator of this outrage is undoubtedly the vilest vilan unhang. May his dreams by night be of turnips, and his meditation by day be on the same delicate subject .-May he be obliged to eat the whole bushel at one meal. and the last one-red hot-stick in his throat. ACCIDENT .- We learn that on Saturav last, as a number of men were extracting stumps with a machine, on a farm in Ulster township, Mr. LEWIS wis met with an accident which will probably result in is death. It seems that a large stump had been raised om its foundation, and Mr. Lewis going under it, by ome means it flew back crushing Mr. L. under it. Here remained for some time, while twelve men with levers leavored to raise the stump off of him, but in vain .hey were finally obliged to attach the machine again to the stump, and by making it fast to another stump, succeeded in raising it and liberating Mr. Lewis from his perilous situation. Nearly all of his ribs were brokenmany of them entirely dissevered from the back-bone .-He was otherwise badly injured.

His brother was also caught under the stump, but not very severely injured.

The last number of the Wyoming Intelligencer has a description of an animal, or "what is it" captured a few weeks ago in the Susquehanna river, near the Horse Race Dam, by Mr. John Melhuish. The edito says it is certainly a strange creature to be found in the waters of the Susquehanna, and no one that has seen it pretends to give it a name. We were informed that sev eral gentlemen who were intimately acquainted with the various animals that inhabit our Lakes, and southern riv rs, had never seen anything like this, in any of them .t is about two feet, two inches in length, and in color resembles an eel though considerably darker about the ad and back. The head is flat and measures about three es, or three and a half across. It has four feet (webed) and has also the appearance of having claws like ose of a turtle. It will devour with very little trouble a fish from three to five inches in length. Altogether it is one of the curiosities of nature.

ENLISTING DRUNKEN MEN.—It has been lously decided in Boston that a contract of enlisting decided in Boston that a contract of enlisting the was drunk when he encountered undershirts and Drawers, he has 20 doz, at ENLISTING DRUNKEN MEN. - It has been ment does not bind a man if he was drunk when he entered into it. The case came before Judge DEWEY on the petition of Mary Finn, for the discharge of her hushand, a soldier in the regular army, on the ground that at the time of his enlistment he was so drunk as not to know what he was doing, and that as soon as he became her, he repudiated the act and asked to be released from his obligation. These allegations were sustained by evidence, and the judge held than an enlistment was but a Contract between the government and the individual, that it implied an assenting mind on the part of the individual, and that a person so drunk as not to know what he was about was incapable of legal assent. The court acngly ordered the discharge of the man. This ruling eneral application, and it should admonish recruitbg officers not to enlist any man when intoxicated.

A number of our friends of the country press are in a bad way because some of their subscribers refuse to come to time. The indignation expressed by some of them at the rapscallions who discontinue their papers without "pinting" is terrible. The editor of the "Man Man.—The fellow who licked the mollasses from a blind nigger's pancake is generally held up as a sample of moral perversity. But he was a good Christian compared to the scamps who swindle the printer out of a newspaper and then return it through the postmaster as refused. If a man is too poor to pay, he should be honest enough to call and stop his paper like a man. It he inclines to thieving, he should never commence at the highest grade of crime by cheating a printer. He should be gin small—rob children of pennies—steal chickens—serve six months as an army contractor—forge bonds of the Southern Confederacy—and when he is ready for a personal interview with the hangman or the devil, he can personal interview with the hangman or the devil, he can personal interview with the hangman or the devil, he can can the control of the control of the said court, are to be then and there to prosecute against the prisoners who are or may be captured to the said court, are to be then and there to prosecute against the prisoners who are or may be captured to the said court, are to be then and there to prosecute against the prisoners who are or may be captured to the said court, are to be then and there to prosecute against the prisoners who are or may be captured to the said court, are to be then and there to prosecute against the prisoners who are or may be captured by subscribing for a newspaper, and swindling the publisher."

We clip the following from the Waver-Advocate, of a late date :--

OFF FOR PENNSYLVANIA .- Ang. S. Perkins well known o many of our business men, and prominent among the military aspirants of our city, is off for Pennsylvania to raise a company under a Captain's commission from Gov CURTIN. His training in "Company D." and the " Elisworth Zouaves" has been most thorough, of which he carries abundant testimony.

We copy the above from the Chicago Tribune, of the 3d inst., and wish to add a word of our own. Capt. PER-KINS has arrived at Athens, and is making preparations for recruiting. He brings with him the strongest testimonials of the highest fitness for his post, and will certainly make a most gallant officer. We have personal assurance from Chicago that his drilling has been most thorough, and any one who sees him will know that he unites the best fighting qualities with his superiority as a drill master. It is a pleasure to feel that our men serve under Captains who have received their commissions on the strength of what they know-such an one is Captain PER-
