We learn that the residence of Col James Dregan, situate a mile and a half this side of Dushore, was destroyed by fire on Monday night last. We did not learn the origin of the fire.

On our first page will be found a "rich, racy, and rare" story, entitled "The Major's Samp Party"-the characters in which will be readily recognized by most of our readers. It was written by one of em," and from its local character will be perused with interest.

READ AND REMEMBER-That if you don't want to endanger the lives of your selves and your children, use D. B. DeLand & Co.'s Chemical saleratus, enlures, using the caustic, unbealthy, impure stuff that is so common in the market. You may possibly save a doctor's bill by taking our advice.

BE CAREFUL IN DIRECTING LETTERS -Last week there were received at the dead letter office at Washington, four thousand and twelve letters. Of these ninety-seven had been misdirected, one hundred and ffty nine were unintelligible, and fifty-three contained money amounting in the aggregate to $294. Forty-three had draits and checks to the amount of $12.853.

THE AUDITOR GENERAL AND THE BRO 188.-Hon. Thomas E. Cochran, the Auditor General of State, has issued a circular inviting the attention of brokers and bankers to the provisions of an act of mbly, enacted at the first session of 1861, relating to kers and private bankers. The first section of this equires a return to be made under oath, to the Au-General, of the receipts from commissions, disnts, &c., and requiring a tax of three per cent. upon aggregate, to be paid into the State Treasury for a king fund for the reduction of the State debt. The section provides a penalty of one thousand dollars, be collected as taxes on bank dividends are now col cted. The brokers hold the law to be at once oppreslive and unconstitutional, and, for the most part, refuse comply with its provisions. The matter will doubtless go to the Supreme Court.

Prof. PERKINS will be accompanied by his wife and othdistinnuished singers, among whom we notice the name of Prof. J. G. Towner, of this county. This New Year Festival will no doubt be interesting and instructive, and we advise all lovers of music to attend.

Admittance to the whole course, including Concert-Gentlemen $1 00; Ladies 50 cents. Clergymen are invited to attend, free of charge.

REMEMBER THE POOR .- For though today you may be reveling in all the luxuries that money and triends can command, to morrow's setting sun may find you a medicant at the door of charity. Though today all may seem sunshine and happiness to you, to-morrow may bring its howling blast, and storm clouds may well up in your path and engulph you in their vortex. Perform the the part of the "good Samaritan"-visit the children of poverty in their lowly dwelling places-minister to their wants and necessities -- for by those little actions you will not only prevent much soffering that would otherwise occur, but will be carrying out the golden rule, "do unto others as you would that others sho'd do unto you." You will, too, feel much happier and better for having furthered the ends of charity by the perormance of a kind action towards your poor neighbors. "The secret that doth make a flower a flower,
