LOCAL AND GENERAL.

BREAK IN THE CANAL --- We understand that quite a break occurred in the Canal, a few miles below this place. It is being speedily repaired.

Rep A large number of Canal boats are now laying in this port for loading. Business opens brisk on the Canal, this spring.

Those having War Claims to be investigated at Washington, see Cardof MORBOW & MERCUR, in another column.

FIRE ON THE MOUNTAINS .- During the past week, fire has been raging on the different mountains in this vicinity. The Barelay Coal mountain has been extensively burned over, also, the range of mountains on the opposite side of the river.

The sporting season is now fairly commenced, and the sporting gentry are enjoying themselves immensely. The woods in the neighborhood of Barelay are alive with pigeons, where they are nesting, and the number captured daily is astonishing.

Trouting has also commenced in real earnest. We have seen several fine strings brought to town. This is fine recreation for those who have time to engage in it.

McCabe's MARBLE YARD. - In rambl ing around town the other day, we "dropped in" at Mr. McCABE's Marble Yard, on Main street, and were agreeably surprised at the superior taste and artistic mechanism displayed in his work, over all other establishments of the kind ever before in operation in this vicinity. Mr. M. is lately from Philadelphia, where he has been long in the business, and has supplied himself with a splendid variety of marble, on which he works most beautiful ornamental designs, at will. We noticed several magnificent specimens of tomb stones and monuments at his yard.

Lieht. MEANS is still enlisting recruits for the Regular Army, at this place.

ARREST OF DESERTERS .- Our usually

wiet town was thrown into quite a commotion on Monly evening last, by a rumor that a couple of men were n town who had enlisted with Lieut. ME NS, some time go, and had deserted a month or two after reaching Fort familton, and since that time had been frequently seen the vicinity of their home, in that romantic region of a large circle of relatives. ntry known as Pool Hill, a few miles from this place nday they ventured to come to town and secreted erselves in a' shanty, and in the evening Lieutenant MEANS and Constable NOFLE called out the Home Guard, e, " the boys," and armed with sticks, canes, &c., they reeded to surround the rendezvous of the delinquents. emilitary engineering of theCommander-inChief of the rigade worked admirably, and before they were aware of he fact they were completely surrounded, but nevertheass made a desperate effort to escape. They leaped from the back window and made a break down the hill, hotly ursued and unfortunately for them ran directly into a "detachment" below, where a brisk skirmish ensued, at they were soon overpowered by numbers and relucatly surrendered, when they were marched off to jail. Mer names'are WILLIAM and LORENZO HEMEN. They SPRING t Fort Hamilton.
