Der PAPER IN TROY .- The Elmira Gazette says the Schuyler County Temperance organ has been removed from Watkins to Troy, Pa. We understand it to be the purpose of its owner, Mr. LOMBARD, to issue a paper of a different character at his new location.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE .- The Pennsylva nis State Convention of Universalists, will meet in Troy borough, Bradford county, on Wednesday and Thursday, June 4th and 5th. Religious services both days at the usual hours, and frinds and foes are respectfully invited to attend.

The Harrisburg Telegraph is very much mistakea in supposing that we gave credit to the Colum-146 bis Democrat, for the article which we published last 319 week, in reference to Senator WILMOT's speech. We took 126 598 602 168 it from the Columbia Republican, and gave that paper the credit, and the Telegraph was honorably mentioned in the same article. When the Democrat adopts such an 314 article we shall think the millenium is about to dawn. 539

Directors should bear in mind that the law requires the four months' report and annual report to forward to the County Superintendent by the first Monday in June. If they are not sent in by that time, the State appropriation is forfeited. It is hoped that Secretaries will be very particular to have these reports filled out so as to give the true history of the operations of the schools for the year, otherwise they must be re-C. R. BURNED TO DEATH - On Thursday morning, the 5th inst., says the Waverly Advocate, Ro sa, a little daughter of WM. TRIPP, of Sheshequin, aged about six years, was burned to death under most shocking circumstances The parents were absent from the ouse leaving Rosa and a little brother younger alone .--From the little boy, who was able to talk but little, it is ascertained that she lighted a candle to go in the cellar for some purpose, from which her clothes took fire. Her reams brought neighbors to the house, but not in time to render her any aid. She was literally roasted alive, her clothes were all burned off and the flesh torn from her srms and body. When found she was speechless, and died in a few minutes.

The town of LeRaysville is somewhat noted as a musical centre. A great addition has lately been made in a brass band of more than ordinary merit. it is composed of the following persons : Stephen Gorham Asa Nichols, A. A. Beardsley, J. K. Jarvis, Burrett Beardsley, L. Maynard, J. P. Carle, J. L. Woodburn, Riel Baxter. The Band, on Wednesday, May 14, paid a visit to our late Senator, Hon. GEO. LANDON, discu the soul-sterring strains of our National Airs, and other with the honorable gentlemen and family, ample justice being done to his bountiful hospitality. It was a pleasant event, long to be remembered. [Com.

than in direct alms-giving-yet many a poor family has been made to rejoice from the bounties of his hand. He had an instinctive hatred of slavery and every species of oppression. He was among the first of the old Whig party to openly sustain Mr. Wilmot in his Proviso of Freedom. George Kinney lived and died a Universalist-believing that God's Government would not prove a failure, that no human being was too low to be reached by its influence-that it would accomplish the ends whereunto it was ordained, by turning every one from his iniquities and bringing the last wandering sheep to the fold of God. -Waverly Advocate.

On the 30th of April last George KINNEY, Esq., left als for a brighter and better world-for a land more con. gnial to the spinitual nature, and more specially adaptd to the development of those spiritual elements which stinguish man from all beneath him. Had he lived to hisday (May 13) he would have been 74 years old. He both first and last saw the light of life in the Valley Sheshequin. At the time of his birth, however, it was but a fearful wilderness-it is now not unfrequently likened to the "Happy Valley" of Rasselas. Mrs. Scott Pounding corn in an ladian mortar, or going eighty miles to get it pul-verized in a more scientific way, is a stern reality of which we know but little ; yet, amidst sreb and kindred realities the subject of this notice was reared. He pos-sessed a naive strength and clearness of mind which made him prominent in his day ; and with the aid of a borrow-dobok or two, and the faint glimmer of a fire light, he acquired the radiments of an education—a -few funda mental truths and principals which were his beacon. lights in after life. He contributed largely to his county papers, mostly political, but occasionally a miscellaneous papers, mostly political, but occasionally a miscellaneous gem of prose or poetry of which the more pretending might well be proud.
