ICE CREAM .- If you wish to get a nice dish of Ice Cream, call on WILSON, at the Bakery. He makes a very fine article.

Mr. H. A. BEEBY, of the Owego Gazette, we regret to learn, has lost his it the daughter-Rosa, aged nine years. She died on Thursday last. On a windy day the dust in our streets is almost insufferable. Where is the street sprinkler? or is almost insulciation or citizens afford it, if they can't let us all pray for rain.

FROST .-- On Saturday night last this vicinity was visited with quite a severe frost. Corn, &c., on the uplands was considerably "bitten." The peach es, also, we are informed, suffered considerably.

The well known horse called the "Elmira Pet," owned by PETER PIERCE, of Elmira, was sold a short time since to an Eastern gentleman, for eighteen hundred dollars.

The fire on the mountains in this vicinity is still raging, presenting a magnificent view from this place, in the evening. We see by our exchanges that fires are raging in the woods and on the mountains in al-most every county in the State. This has been an extremely dry spring, thus far.

THE TAX ON COAL .- The Senate Committee has reported the Tax bill back to the Senate. The Coal item is reported in these words: "On Anthracite Coal, except such as is known in the trade as pea coal, fifteen cents per ton. On Bituminous Coal, one-eighth of one cent per bushel."

NEW COUNTERFEIT. - A new $3 counterfeit on the Bank of Tioga has made its appearance .-The vignette is a farm scene, with a group of females seated on the foreground. On the left lower corner is an engraving of a woman with a sheaf of corn. The name of the Bank on the genuine bills is green and red, and on the counterfeits with tinted.

RELIC BUSINESS .- The number of civil ians, says an exchange, with the army of the Potomac, unting relies, is so large, and the prices paid so liberal, pat the soldiers are said to be doing a good business in selling articles which they get up by a very simple pro. cess. A letter from a Pennsylvania Reserve, stationed near Manassas, says: "Old worn out five dollar pistols eserved in vinegar, sell readily at from fifteen to twen dollars. Knives which originally cost from one to two ollars, command from five to ten dollars."

RELIGIOUS NOTICE. The Pennsylva. da Scate Convention of Universalists, will meet in Troy prough, Bradford county, on Wednesday and Thursday, une 4th and 5th. Religious services both days at the usual hours, and rinds and foes are respectfully invited to attend.

Directors should bear in mind that the w requires the four months' report and annual report ed to the County Superintendent by the first Monday in June. If they are not sent in by that time. he State appropriation is forfeited. It is hoped that cretaries will be very particular to have these reports led out so as to give the true history of the operations the schools for the year, otherwise they must be re-C. R. COBURN. rued for correction.

The Bradford County Teachers' Asso tion will meet at Litchfield, at 10 o'clock, a. m., on day, the 13th of June.

Lecturer-H. Keeler, alternate, C. K. Phelps Essavists-Misses A. M. Iveson and R. F. Vanghan. Declaimers - W. H. Thompson, C. K. Canfield, Readers -- Miss H. C. Gates, J. F. Blocher. Interesting questions will be discussed. Public attendance is invited.

SUICIDE .- Eliphalet Stephens, one of be oldest residents of Nicholson township, Wyoming nty, committed suicide by hanging himself, on Sun-, the 18th inst., at a schoolbouse, near the place of residence. Mr. Stephens was about seventy years of e and the father of a large and respectable family. He had been subject to fits of insanity and had attempt nicide at various times before, but was prevented ough the vigilance of his friends.

SUMMER .- Nearer and nearer comes the tle tread of Summer. Over the green fields, and on Il side, and in the valley, and along the winding d, the grass is growing brighter in its hue, and the happier in its verdure. Now among the closely en tree tops the swelling buds are opening to the geair, warming into life by day, and drinking in the de due, in the quiet hours of the night. How more all the other seasons of the year the Spring time back the scenes of earlier years when life flowed like appy dream, and the clouds and gloom of after time but a myth, that never was to be reality to us.
