LOCAL AND GENERAL.

FUN AHEAD .- Gardner & Hemming's Great National Circus will perform at this place, on Monday next.

RAIN .- The weather for the past week has been decidedly cold and rainy. On Tuesday and Tuesday night it rained incessantly.

NEXT STATE FAIR .- The Executive Committee of the State Agricultural Society, met at Harrisburg on Tuesday of last week, and resolved to hold the next State Fair at Norristown, Montgomery county, on Tuesday, September 30th, October 1st, 2d and 3d, 1862. A. Boyd Hamilton was elected Recording Secretary of the Society, in place of John H. Ziegler, resigned.

During last week there were seveal teams ran away in our streets. In fact it has become quite a frequent occurrence to see a pair of horses dashing through town on " double quick." One day last week a horse attached to a wagon ran almost the entire length of the business portion of town, on the side-walk. Strange to say no very serious damage was done, although several women and children barely escaped being run over .--Persons leaving horses in the street cannot be too careful in tieing them securely.

REBEL PRISONERS .- The first Rebel prisoners sent to Pennsylvania, are about 500 in number, aptured by Gen. FREMONT, in the Valley of Virginia, and now in Camp Curtin, Harrisburg. They are described, on all hands, as the most filthy looking and ignorant set of Americans ever brought together in our State. They expressed great surprise to see everything going on as usual in Pennsylvania ; at home they left everything in the alarm, confusion and waste of warfare. It is stated that they will not be "exhibited," but will be scoured up, decently clad, and kept in comparative seclusion .---Many of them had scarcely clothing enough on them to cover their nakedness, while others were entirely barefoot, and not a few minus a shirt. We see that quarters are being prepared in Elmira for the reception of Rebel prisoners.

DEMOCRATIC CENTEAL COUNTY COM MITTEE .- At the Democratic Convention held in To wanda, 3d September, [1861-On motion of F. SMITH. Esq., of Troy, the President was directed to appoint a Central Standing Committee, to act for the ensuing year, and until another was chosen.

In pursuance of this authority, I have appointed Fran. cis Smith, of Troy ; V. E. Piollet, of Wysox ; John F. it was believed to be the body of the burglar who had been operating at various places in this valley, and whose arrest by, and escape from the police of Oxford, we have chronicled in another place. Coroner Bailey at once went introduced this season for the first time in any traveling down to hold an inquest, and he was soon followed by those of our citizens who were robbed a week ago last Monday night. The inquest established the fact that the body had been in the water for some days, and the imbody had been in the water for some days, and the impression prevails that the man was drowned on Tuesday night when he made his escape. When he ran away ing a correct idea of a night in from his captors he went as far east as the stone blacksmith shop and he was tracked from the road near there acoss a yard to the north. It is thought that he must have been confused by a blow from a club, dealt him by one of the watchmen, and that in the darkness he ran into the river at a point just north of the house of Mr. Miller, and was drowned.

In the pockets of the man were found a set of burglar's tools, two gold watches, five hundre | and tirteen dollars in money, and a loaded revolver. One of the watches was identified by Mr. Hammoud, of this village, as the one stolen from him last Monday night week, and there was also among the money an English crown which Mr. H. had carried for years as a pocket piece.

This is altogether a singular case. The man came here and stayed three days without attracting attention-committed three different burglaries-went to Oxford-was arrested and escaped to run keadlong to death. The anhals of crime and the punishment thereof record no such instance of trial, conviction and execution all in one moment.

P.S. We learn that there was also found upon the body a note of hand, given at Factoryville, by two men named Brooks, to " Dr. Johnson," for one hundred dollars.

-The above, says the Waverly Advocate, which we &c., &c copy from the Chenango Telegraph, of the 11th ins., seems to point to a Dr. Johnson formerly of Athens, Pa., and who married a very respectable young lady in this village last winter. We hope it may prove otherwise .--People about here are unwilling to believe he has been engaged in such criminal practices.
