And opposing, end them."

THE proprietor of the Argus takes occasion in adver-HE proprietor of the Argus takes occasion in advertising his Bindery to induite in an uncalled for fling about a "sort of a concern," which is hoping "to delude the public." As I have opened a Bindery on my own account, the inference is that if the public bring their binding to me, they are in no danger of being defrauded. For two years I have worked for Mr. Passons, and he has taken great pains t satisfy the public I was the "best Binder in America," as the columns of the Argus wil testify. Has he been all that time "deluding the public." If I have here reprayed in a fraud, he has been the estity. Has he been all that time "defining the public?" If I have been engaged in a fraud, he has been the rincipal. But I refer to my work during that time a vidence that there has been no fraud practiced.

Having served a long apprenticeship at the Bindery usiness, I have resumed business here on my own account, as I know of nothing which prevents me from fol-lowing a legitimate and bawful calling for my support.— I shafl ordeavor by good work and attention to my busi-ness to give public satisfaction.
