R Trincer's Bill? This question has suggested itself to my mind, on re-ceiving from somebody through the mail, a copy of the "Bradford Argus" of last week. a paper which I had supposed to be thoroughly devoted to the cause of our National and State Administrations, the firm support of which at this time seems to me so vital to the success of principles and measures involving almost the very exis-tence of our Government and country. But to my sur-prise I found the paper filled with matter advocating what it styles a "People's Ticket." for the district and county, in opposition to the candidates well known to have been regularly nominated as champions of tho-measures. On this ticket appears the name of Henry W. Tracy in opposition to GEORE LANDON for Con-gress, and Elhanan Smith in opposition to WILLIAM J. TURBELL, of this county, for State Senator. It is only with the latter that we are now immediately concerned, in this county; and it is perhaps sufficient to say of this, that if Susquehanan County was not notoriously entitled to the Senator at this time, and if the nomination of Mr. to the Senator at this time, and if the nomination of Mr. TURNELL was not eminently satisfactory to all the "Peo-ple's party" we know of here, we might with propriety inquire what superior claims or qualifications could be presented in the nomination of Col. SMITH, and whether the latter can be any more ardently devoted to the great cause of sustaining the Government in this emergency, than the former is known to be. In determining this question, might there not be some pertinency in the old adage, that a man is to be judged by the company he

In conclusion, although it is for the people of Bradford, now in a separate district from this county, to judge of the relative merits of their own candidates, and they should decide on the vasily prominent question of who will most ably, earnestly and faithfully sustain the Government in this hour of its imminent peril ; yet, if comparatively trifling incidents may ment perior, yet, it com-paratively trifling incidents may sometimes indicate a man's character for honesty and fidelity in higher trusts, it may be asked if a man can be safely trusted who ex-hibits the sublimate of meanness in cheating a poor prin-ter. The following dispatch has been received at headquarters here : FIRST DISPATCH.

GRANT'S HEADQUARTERS, JACKSON, Tenn. Oct. 5, 1862-8 A. M. To Maj.-Gen. H. W. Halleck General-in-Chief United

Yesterday the rebels, under Price, VanDorn and Lovell, were repulsed from their attack on Corinth with great slanghter.

The enemy are in full retreat, leaving their dead and wounded on the field.

Rosecrans telegraphs that the loss is serious on our side, particularly in officers, but bears no comparison with that of the enemy. Gen. Hackleman fell while gallantly leading his brigade.

Gen. Oglesby is dangerously wounded. Gen. McPherson, with his command reach ed Corinth yesterday.

Gen. Rosecrans pursued the retreating eneemy this morning, and, should they attempt to move towards Bolivar, will follow to that place. Gen Hurlbut is at the Hatchie River, with five or six thousand men, and is, no doubt, with the pursuing column.

From 700 to 1000 prisoners, besides the U. S. GRANT, Major-General Commanding,

If TERRY should be elected to the Legislature, how far is the partnership with DULL effected by it ? Does it include all the lobbying schemes for which the latter is so celebrated?

The election of LAPORTE & LILLEY will secure the votes of the Representatives from this County for a sound Republican for United States Senator. Will the election of TERRY and McKEAN produce the same result ?

SYLVANIA, Pa., Oct. 4, 1862. MR. GOODRICH-Sir :- The editor of the Argus, in his defamations of the Republican Convention, has said that the delegates from this Borough in that Convention would have voted for TRACY, had it not been for LILLEY. Now, as one of those delegates, I distinctly deny the assertion. Mr. LILLEY, nor any other man, knew anything of my votes in that Convention till they were cast, save the one on Representative. 1 went into the Convention free to vote as I saw fit, yet I had my mind made up before the convention assembled. I voted for Mr. LANDON because I judged him to be the best man for the place, and not because Mr. LILLEY wished me to, and in fact I knew nothing of his wishes in the matter. The editor of the Argus may wish to show that the majority of the Convention favored his side of the question, but let him do it by producing facts, if he can, but not by assertions that are as false as can be.

I am confident that the other delegats from here was not influenced in the manner spoken of, any more than myself, and in fact he told me so but a few days since.

If you please, print this in your next issue. Respectfully, G. P. MONRO.

The key to the late disorganizing proceedings in Bradford is furnished by the action of the Democratic Congressional Conference, which met at Bloomsburg on Tuesday last. The Republican cause, its principles and its candidates, are to be principles and its conditioners, and the ambitious overthrown to forward the ambitious schemes of HENRY W. The Colonel has long claimed to hold Wyoming in his breeches pocket; but if he has heretofore, we think he will find a large hole in it about the 14th of October. The nomination of Mr. TURRELL was made unanimously by the Conferees of all the Counties, and was made so on the motion of the Conferees from Wyoming. The game that Smith played in 1855 cannot be repeated. The game is played out. That the Democratic party has been sold out to Smith, does not admit of a doubt ; but whether the rank and file will consent to the transfer is still an open question. We believe there are hundreds of Democrats in this Coun ty, who when the nauseous dose is presented to them will exclaim, " This is not the feast to which we were bidden," and will stoutly refuse to be transferred to an old defunct Know Nothing, even if the leaders do demand the sacrifice. As Elhanan was an old Whig, he and his Democratic friends and supporters appear to have fallen into the old Whig policy of running old and broken winded politiciaus of the opposite party. SECOND LISPATCH.

GRANT'S HEADQUARTERS, JACKSON, Tenn., Oct. 5, 1862.

To Major-General H. W. HALLECK, Commander-in-Chief U.S. Army :

Gen. Ord. who followed Gen. Hurlbut. met. the enemy to day on the south side of the Hatchie, as I understand from a dispatch, and drove them across the stream, and got possession of the Heights with our troops. Gen. Ord took two batteries and about 500 prisoners. At this distance everything looks most favorable, and I cannot see how the enemy are to escape without losing everything but their small arms. I have strained everything to take into the fight an adequate force, and to get them to the right place.

U. S. GRANT. Major-Gen. Commanding.

IN EXCELLENT COMPANY .- We notice that Henry W. Tracy has had himself nominated for Congress, in the Bradford district, by a socalled " People's" Convention, and that the loquacious and ubiquitous Victor Emanuel Piollet, (of McCook bribery notoriety,) has undertaken the task of electing Mr. Tracy, by villifying, traducing and belying Hon. GEO. LANDON, the Union candidate in that district for Congress.

It is not our business to interfere with the candidates or the difference existing among the people in any of the election districts of the state, outside of the one in which we are a voter, and yet we cannot refrain from expressing our surprise to find Mr. Tracy in his preent company-in company of such sheer political harliquins and weather-cocks of the Piollet stripe. If Mr. Tracy had done nothing but accept a nomination from such creatures, it would be sufficient to damn him in the estimation of decent and independent men-but as he has allowed his name to be used as a means of contributing to the success of a clique notoriously in conclave to bring disgrace on the country and defeat to our armies, he must earn for himself, before he gets through with the work which has been allotted to him by these demagogues, a measure of infamy which it will be hard for him to shake off. We cannot for a moment believe that any independent cy while he is bolstered up by such demagogues as Piollet, and their kindred associates .---Harrisburg Telegraph.

We observe that J. C. ADAMS is advertised to address a meeting at Troy, with the bogus candidate for Senator. Suppose he TRACY his experience with PIOLLET & Co.

The Argus man complains of dictation and leaders. Is the leadership and dictation of Col. PIOLLET more to his mind? If so we are not disposed to find fault.

imself to all the duties and obligations to which his principal would have been subject had he personally serv-ed, shall be accepten in lieu of such principal. 3. The persons thus drafted shall assemble at Towanda within five days after the time of drafting, which will be on Tuesday, October 21, whence transportation will be furnished them to the place of rendezvous. 4. Each district (Township or Borough.) can offer Vol-inteers, to the Commissioner at any time before that day to make up their quota, and thereby obviate the draft entirely, but we are not authorized to subsist them until the day of draft. 5. As the sudden call for volunteers and Militia, has exhausted the supply of blankets it for Military purpos-es in the market, and it will take some time to procure manufacture or importation, a sufficient supply, al tizens who may volunteer, or be drafted, are advised citizens who may volunteer, or be drafted, are advised to take with them to the rendezvous, if possible, a good stout woolen blanket. The regulation military blanket is $4x66 inches and weighs five pounds. for The examinations are made, and no more appeals will be heard, except from volunteers who were away in response to the call of the Governor, and have not had an opportunity to appeal, Those will be heard at the Court House, in Towanda, Saturday, Oct. 11, 1862. JOHN A. CODDING, Com'r. Towanda, Oct. 6, 1862.
