The Collegiate year is divided into three terms of 14 weeks each. The Anniversary exercises will be held at the close of the Spring term.

No deduction will be made for absence, except in case of protracted illness of over two weeks.
Instrumental Music will not as heretofore, be taught in the Institution, but by special arrangement—a class will be taught in a hall adjoining the grounds of the Institute.

be taught in a nail adjoining the grounds of the institute, by the Teacher of Vocal Music.

This arrangement has been adopted for the past term, and experience has proved it to be eminently superior to the plan pursued in former years. Special pains will be taken to secure the greatest progress of those wishing to take lessons in this branch. Terms will be as here when it is convenient, but when otherwise, these will be furnished at a slight charge.

It is strongly recommended that students from abroad should board in the Institution, as better opportunities for advancement in study are thereby secured.

Normal Department—Special exercises are arranged without extra charge for those preparing themselves as Teachers of Common Schools. Prof. C. R. COBURN, the able and well known Superintendent of Common Schools in the county, has kindly consented to organize the Teacher's class, and direct the course to be pursued.

He will also be present to conduct its expersises as often cher's class, and direct the course to be pursued.

He will also be present to conduct its exercises as often as practicable, and will deliver frequent lectures on the Theory and Practice of Teaching, as also on other subjects connected with Normal training.

Those persons, therefore, intending to engage inteaching for the winter, will find it greatly to their advantage to be present during the Fall term.

Prof. Column's connection with the institution is not such as to in any way interfere with the discharge of the regular duties of his office.

No pains will be spared, on the part of the Faculty and Trustees in sastaining the high repulatation the institution has hitherto enjoyed, and in rendering it more worly of future patronage and support.

in all its Branches in the latest and most approved styles, and on the most favorable terms.

Having secured, permanently, the services of Mr. H. C. Whiterar, a finished workman from Philadelphia, and having added extensively to the fixtures of the concern—giving greater facility than formerly—we can present to the public the most positive assurance of our ability to please our patrons.

*Customers should be particular to remember that the "Argus Bindery," is in the Argus Building, as formerly, (first building north of the Ward House) and is connected with our Book and Stationery Store and Printing Office, where all work should be delivered.

CAUTION.—We are compelled in justice to ourselves, and our old customers, as well as to prevent an imposition upon the public generally, to caution them against a sort a concern, that falsely holds out to the public that it is the Argus Bindery. This fraud is practiced no doubt, with a hope of deluding the Public. Against this bold and deliberate attempt to deceive, they are hereby cautioned.

COMPOUND REMEDY, in which we

A COMPOUND REMEDY, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted tellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:—

Scropula and Scropulous Complaints, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases, Ulcers, Pimples, Blootcies, and Eruptive Diseases, Ulcers, Pimples, Blootcies, Mr.D. Canfield Dayton, Stewarl.

pleiley this compound will do it has been proved of the perinent on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:—

Scropula and Scropulous Complaints, Eruptions and Eruption Diseases, Ulcers, Pimples, Blotches, Tumors, Salt Rueum, Scald He D. Syphills and Syphillif Capterions, Mercurial Disease, Dropsy, Neuralgia on Tic Douloureux. Debility, Dyspersia and Indigestion, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from Impurity of the blood.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of toul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cléanse cut the vitiated blood whenever you find its inspurities bursting through the skin in pimples, craptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and slaggish in the veins: cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, andthe great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed jor it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, but often no caractive properties whatever. Hence, bitter and paintul

"To be, or not to be— hat is the question! Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer. The slings and arrows of outrageous opposition, Or by taking up arms against a sea of printing ink, And opposing, end them." And opposing, end them."

THE proprietor of the Argus takes occasion in advertising his Bindery to indulge in an uncalled for fling about a "sort of a concern," which is hoping "to delude the public." As I have opened a Bindery on my own account, the inference is that if the public bring their binding to me, they are in no danger of being defranded. For two years I have worked for Mr. Parsons, and he has taken great pains t satisfy the public I was the "best Binder in America," as the columns of the Argus wii testify. Has he been all that time "delading the public?" If I have been engaged in a fraud, he has been the principal. But I refer to my work during that fime a evidence that there has been no fraud practiced.

Having served a long apprenticeship at the Bindery business, I have resumed business here on my own account, as I know of nothing which prevents me from folcount, as I know of nothing which prevents me from fol-lowing a legitimate and bawful calling for my support.— I shall endeavor by good work and attention to my busi mess to give public satisfaction.
