DIPTHERIA. - This terrible malady continues to make havoc all over the country. We hear of deaths in all parts from this disease, and in many instanses whole families are carried away. Mr. ADAM MESSER-SMITH, of Colley township, Sullivan county, lately lost seven children-all he had-from this disease. There are a few cases in this place.

SAVE YOUR RAGS .- The price of paper has of late advanced greatly-fifty per cent..at least .-It therefore behooves all housekeepers to use more than customary care in saving their rags. Double the quanti ty can be saved than is usually the case, with giving the matter a little attention. Each family should be its own rag picker. A dollar saved is more that two dollars earn-

PROVOST MARSHAL -JAMES PHINNEY, Esq., of this place, has been appointed Provost Marshal this county. As the duty of this officer is to arrest all diserters, absentees from the army who are not provided with proper papers, and to "bring to time" those who were drafted and have not yet reported themselves, we anticipate he will have his hands full.

EXTREMELY APROPOS .- " Hard times and scarcity of money," is just now everybody's excuse for non payment of dues. The times must indeed be hard to force a poor wretch to perpetrate the following

" OWED TO THE TIMES."

"Notes on the falling dew of eve,
Are pleasant thoughts in poet's songs;
But notes on ece of falling due
To one to whom the cash belongs,
And who, not getting it will sue— Aint so pleasant by a d-d sight."

TUMBLING DOWN AGAIN .- The Phila delphia Ledger says Petroleum oil, which rose so rapid y from 25 cents a gallen to $1 10, has taken the back track again, and is down to sixty cents. The rise was mostly speculative, and somebody will make or lose for. tunes by the sudden fluctuations. And so of many of the gambling operations in what are called the necessaries of life-they are not called for by the tariff, taxes, or the war, but are simply impositions. If people would quit buying articles at extravagant rates, they would soon become reasonable, and those seeking undue advantages would suffer the losses.

-But a few weeks ago Kerosene oil rose in this mark et from 40 cents to $1 00 per gallon, but can now be bought for seven shillings. As it can be bought for less than twenty cents per gallon at wholesale, the present exorbitant prices cannot be kept up.

We clip the following from the Danville Democrat. It is of importance to those interested: Amount of Internal Revenue Tax for September, 1862, assessed in the 13th Congressional District, including the CHRISTMAS.—There has been consider able speculation on the part of Young America, whether the war and the consequent hard times, and the shinplaster currency, have so affected their old friend SANTA CLAUS, as to cause him to "suspend." The following despatch received by one of Old Sant's agents, at this MOTT. of Suequehanna county, has been appointed a place, will put our young friends at ease on that subject: " The North wind which came down last night from Lapland blew positively that the rumored suspension of the of Sullivan county, has been appointed for the 26th Dis- Christmas Saint was wholly untrue. He also took the liberty of feelest traveling condition. He also took the liberty of feeling the Saint's checks on his way back to the house, and of pulling his short hair. Neither the one par the other.

Return the other is the other in the oth of pulling his short hair. Neither the one nor the other was the least bit "suspended." But the whole sky back of the Santa Claus mansion was suspended thick with every conceivable thing to gladden the hearts of children. Mr. Wind, however, seemed to feel that the Sledge was not quite as large as that he used in late years. He ventured to seek by direct question a confirmation of his be lief that the Saint was in funds, and eminently solvent. Patting, with a gesture full of comfort and good con-

The following exquisite gem is floating about on the tide of journalism without the name of the author. Sparkling sentiment and real poetry, such as are contained in these stanzas, should not be circulated in unclaimed parentage:

"I burn my soul away!"
So spake the Rose, and smiled; "within my cup
All day the sunbeams fall in flames—all day
They drink my sweetness up."

I sigh my soul away!

The Lily said; "all night the moonbeams pale teal round and round us, whispering in their play And all too tender tale!" 'I give my soul away !"

The violet said; the west wind wanders on, The north wind comes; I know not what they say, And yet my soul is gone!"

Oh, Poet, burn away
Thy fervent soul! fond Lover at the feet Of her thou lovest, sigh! dear christian pray— And let the world be sweet!

It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Stramous complaints, and that one which wilk accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:—

this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experinent on many of the worst cases to be found of the following conplaints:

Scropula and Scropulous Complaints, Eruptions. And Eruptive Diseases, Ulcers, Pimples, Blotches, Tumors, Salt Rheur, Scald Head, Syphilitic Affections, Mercurial Disease, Dropsy, Neuralgia or Tic Douloureux. Debility, Dyspersia and Indigestion, Eryspelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from Impurity of the Blood.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul cruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the-body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, cruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and slaggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must gowrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation, of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed jor it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, and toften no curative prop

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to defor their relief all it has ever been found to do. CAUTION. "To be, or not to be - hat is the question! Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer The slings and arrows of outrageous opposition, Or by taking up arms against a sea of printing ink,

And opposing, end them."

THE proprietor of the Argus takes occasion in advertising his Bindery to indulge in an uncalled for sting about a "sort of a concern," which is hoping "to delude the public." As I have opened a Bindery on my own account, the inference is that if the public bring their binding to me, they are in no danger of being defrauded. For two years I have worked for Mr. Parsons, and he has taken great painst satisfy the public I was the "best Binder in America," as the columns of the Argus wil testify. Has he been all that time "deluding the public?" If I have been engaged in a fraud, he has been the principal. But I refer to my work during that time a evidence that there has been no fraud practiced.

Having served a long apprenticeship at the Bindery business, I have resumed business here on my own account, as I know of nothing which prevents me from following a legitimate and bawfulcalling for my support.—I shall endeavor by good work and attention to my business to give public satisfaction.
