OUR TERMS.

The great increase in the price of paper which we have before noticed , has caused newspaper publishers throughout the country to raise their subscription to meet the emergency. Paper has within the last few weeks gone up from 10 to 22 cents per pound. Should it remain permanent at this latter price, we cannot furnish the REPORTER at one dollar a year, without a loss upon every copy issued. We are loth to increase the subscription, but from present indications, and from the information we have from our paper manufacturers, we shall probably be obliged to.

The response made by our subscribers to our late appeal, has been very satisfactory, though not as general as it should be. We shall receive subscriptions at our present rate until the 14th day of February next, after the prices of materials to warrant) the terms tucky was adopted-23 to 13. of subscription will be ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS per year. We shall also at that time discontinue every paper not paid for in advance, without "fear, favor or affection," as the change in price will make such a course an absolute necessity.

the REPORTER in the country furnished at one dollar per year. As a business, it would take but a short time to "close out the concern," at the present high prices of everything used in a printing office.

We trust those who have been receiving the REPORTER without paying anything, will see the justice and propriety of not putting off the "good time " any longer, but will promptly square old accounts, and avail themselves of the limited time which now remains to pay in advance at one dollar a year. After the close of February Court, we shall not send the RE FORTER to non-paying subscribers. We should be happy to, but we can't stand the expense.

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

Gov. CURTIN delivered his annual message to the Legislature of Pennsylvania on Tuesday week. The able document will be found on the first page of our paper, and we invite for it the serious perusal of our readers. When these are fairly weighed and digested, when the local government of the Commonwealth is tested by the force which these present, Penosylvania will be found in a position at once prosperous'and impreguable; prosperous when considered in reference to her internal trade and resources, and impregnable when contemplated as a life giving power to the existence and stability of the American Union

CONGRESS.

In the United States Senate on Monday a bill was offered and referred to aid West Virginia in a speedy and final abolition of Slavery The bill for a further issue of bonds and notes was adopted. (This is Mr. Chase's great financial measure.) The bill for the more prompt payment of soldiers was postponed, it being stated that its chief provisions were embraced in the financial bill just adopted. After discussion of the bill to reorganize the Court of Claims, the bill for the discharge of State prisoners was taken up, and Mr. Wilkinson made a speech. No vote was taken. In the House, an attempt was made to take up the bill reducing the duty on printing paper but did not succeed. The House called for a statement of the expenses incurred for the support of slaves in disloyal States. A resolution fully indorsing and ratifying the President's Proclamation was referred to the mouth of the Hiawassee. They give a fearbounty lands to soldiers. The President was corn at $2 to $3 per bushel, wheat at $6 per asked to send in his instructions to Military Governors concerning elections of Members of Congress. Leave was asked to bring in a bill Committee was voted to report on the expediency of building a military and post road from New-York to Washington. The Naval Committee were asked to inquire into the expediency of laying a telegraph wire from Fortress Monroe to New-Orleans. It was voted that no more money ought to be given to civil creditors until the soldiers in service are fully paid. A bill was proposed to raise 150,000 none. Its consideration was postponed to the

THE LEGISLATURE.

The Legislature convened on Tuesday, the 6th inst., and both branches organized without any difficulty, by the election of GEO. V. LAWRENCE, of Washington, Speaker, and GEO W. HAMERSLY, of Philadelphia, Clerk of the Senate, and JOHN CESSNA of Bedford, Speaker, and JACOB ZIEGLER of Butler, Clerk of the Hovse of Representatives. The election of Messrs, CESSNA and ZIEGLER, is regarded as a triumph of the conservative element of the Democratic party.

TIME and space will not permit us to speak in an extended manner of the Lecture before the Ladies' Aid Society of this place, on Monday evening, by J. G. PATTON, Esq. His theme was the ancient one of "Temperance," which he handled in a masterly manner, presenting many original and felicitous ideas. The idience was an intelligent and appreciative one, and all spoke very highly of it. It is a very difficult matter to introduce new ideas upon so time-honored and universal a subject, but we give Mr. P. great credit in this instance. His arguments were clear, lucid and parliamentary, quite frequently soaring from dull practicalities into enhancing strains of grandiloquence. He spoke as one of experience in lecturing, and the least we may say is that to one who has made so few attempts it was more han a mere success. May the good work, of which this lecture is an inauguration, continue until its effects shall be wide-spread and vastly perceptible !

NEW YORK, January 11, 1863. By the arrival of the United States gunboat Clifton at the South-West Pass, on the evening of Jan. 3d I learn that early on the morning of Jan. 1st the rebels made an attack by land and water on the Union forces st Galveston.

Our gunboats were attacked by five Rebel steamers, protected by double rows of bales of cotton, and loaded with troops, armed with rifles, muskets, shotguns, &c.

The Harriet Lane was captured by boarding after about all of her officers, including crew of 130, all told, had been killed by musketry from the Rebel steamer. My informant states that but one or two of the officers, and but 12 or 15 of the crew escaped death. The gunboat Clifton and Owasco were engaged and escaped-the former losing no men, and but one wounded The Owasco lost one killed, and 13 wounded. Two barks, loaded with coal, fell into the hands of the enemy.

The Westfield (flag-ship), Commodore Renshaw, was not engaged, being ashore in another channel. Her crew were transferred to transports, and Commodore Renshaw fearing she would fall into the hands of the Rebels. blew her up. By some mismanagement or accident, the explosion took place before a boat, containing Com. Renshaw, First Lieut. Zimmermanu, and the boat's crew, got away, and ship

The rebel force was estimated at 5,000, under the command of Gen. Magruder. Our land force, under the command of Col. Burrell of Massachusetts, probable did not exceed 300, the residue not having arrived, or not having disembarked at the time of the fight.

Our loss was estimated at from 150 160 killed, and 200 taken prisoners. The navey suffered the most. It is thought the rebel loss must have been much more, as our guns were midst al experience as County Superintendent, have not on-identified him with our Common School system, but ave so familiarized him with its practical workings as o enable him to fill the position of State Superintendent n a manner that will promote the great cause of popuar education. Nor is his fitness the only reason for sug-gesting his name, but locality should have some weight. This section of the State is entitled to recognition-de-serves attention in this respect. We hope the appointng power will think and act upon this.

We clip the above from the Columbia County Republican, and take pleasure in saying there is not a word in the article that the friends and neighbors of the gentleman mentioned will not cheerfully endorse. No man throughout the limits of the State could be chosen who would give such universal satisfaction to the friends of our Common Schools as CHARLES R. CORURN. Identified with them from his earliest manhood, both in this and the adjoining State of New York-possessing a practical mind and talents of the highest order united with an irreproachable moral character, his selection for the responsible office of State Superintendent would convince all who knew the man that the interests of the Common Schools could not be entrusted to better hands.

If a mere politician is desired he is not the man, although identified with the Republican Party from its origin. He is something far better than a mere partisan —an able, earnest, faithful, honest man in every relation of life. Our first County Superintendent, he still holds the office, without, so far as we know, a single school di-rector desiring a change, and no one of any party with sufficient assurance to enter the list as this comparison.

sufficient assurance to enter the list as his competitor at another election. Loth as all our people would be to part with him, we still feel that the benefit to the State at large would more than compensate us for the loss ; Capt. Wainwright and Lieutenant Lee, and a and therefore we urge most earnestly upon the appointing power his peculiar fitness for the place.
