IN Town.-Col. H. J. Madill and Cot. CHAS. MERCUR, of the 141st Regiment, and Lieut. MASON, of the Regular Army, have been in town during the past week.

If there are any friends of I. or J. MEROSE HIGGINS, of the U.S. Army, they can hear of amething to their advantage by calling on the under S. W. ALVORD, P M. Towanda, Jan. 10, 1863.

The Tinga & Bradford Democrat says the Mansion House at Athens, narrowly escaped being the Mansion Revening last. The fire caught in the Saof Mr. Michael Walsh, and damaged the building seriously. Mr. Walsh's loss is about $200.

HORRIBLE !- An insane woman named SALLT, residing in the northern part of Columbia counon Monday morning murdered three of her step chilty, on monday motored the other step chil-dren, aged respectively 7. 9, and 14 years, by severing dren, aged responsible their bodies and throwing their remains into the fire. She is now in Columbia county fail.

SMALL Pox .- As this malignant disease is raging in almost every town, and in fact in differ est places in this county, our borough authorities have appointed a delegation of physicians to vaccinate every sident of the borough. This precaution is commenda ble, and if any person is overlooked they will be gratui tously vaccinated by calling at the office of most of our physicians. There has been no case of small pox in this place, as yet.

NEW RENDERINGS .- Many of the say ings of the day are becoming threadbare and need new renderings. The following will perhaps be regarded as improvements upon the texts :

" A Big thing on Ice"-It is an object of proportions vast That looms up gradually o'er congealed water.

"I Don't See It"--In faith the thing of which thou glibly pratest, And whose existence I would fain affirm, is to my optics quite impalpable.

"Do you take Postage Stamps ?"-Those dainty effigies of our patriot sires, So deftly graven, that insure the flight Of Love's fond missive, or the graver billet Familiar to the teeming marts of trade, Prithee as filthy lucre dost accept?

The quarterly meeting of the Bradford County Teachers' Association, will be held at Or- der Ennis and Cyrus Fuller. well Hill, commencing on Friday, February 13th, at 10 o'clock, A. M., and continue in session till Saturday noon. All are invited to attend.

There will be a lecture by Mr. Roscel, on Friday evening also, an essay will be read by Miss MARY FULLER. The Committee will report resolutions for discussion.

upon the following topics, viz: 1. The duty of teachers to elevate and ennoble the pro other professions.

2. The importance of order, and care of books and the rights of property, &c.

3. Methods of teaching writing. 4. The importance of giving more attention to moral

5. The propriety of baving female teachers take part in the discussions.

ANOTHER SOLDIER GONE. - A letter dated "Camp near Newbern, N. C., January 19," has the and intelligence of the death of Wilson D. GILLETT, of Typhoid fever in the Panh year of his age. The letter says: " Wilson was a bon of Lewis B. Gillett, of Sheshequin, and was, at the time of his death, a Corporal in Capt. U. E. Horron's Company of 171st regiment Pennsylvania Militia. He died in the service of his country, and gave his life as a sacrifice to its cause, as really as if he had fallen on the battle field. When he was drafted his father offered him money to hire a substitute, but his patriotism and unselfish nature prompted him to refuse the offer, for, as he said in conversation with the writer. while at Suffolk, he did not wish another to die for him But alas! little did he think that Death was so soon to mark him as his own. Though scarcely three months had passed since we first made his acquaintance as a fellowsoldier, he had won the friendship and esteem of the whole company, by his honest and upright course. He friends in a better world. WILSON is the second son that Mr. GILLETT has lost in the war-the first having been killed in the battle of Fair Oaks. Such sacrifices on the part of our patriotic citizens, are worthy of the gratitude of the nation, and those who are called upon to make them, deserve the sympathy of a grateful people.

Com. vs. Morris & Son .- Charge of the Court, as reported by a member of the bar :-TEXT .- " Thou shalt not steal."

Thou shalt not steal thy neighbor's goods, And say you found them in the woods, Where a soldier hid his ill-got plunder, When he had left the battle's thunder. Thou shalt not steal by night or day, And in the darkness take away From TRACY's Store his merchandise, On which you looked with evil eyes. Thou shalt not steal from any one, And lay it to your youthful son; Far better that the truth you tell, If you'd avoid the road to hell. If the cause is won or lost,

The Jury can't control the cost. SWEAR A CONSTABLE.
