

GREAT UNION MEETING IN NEW-YORK.

We publish on the first page of to-day's paper the speeches of JAMES T. BRADY and JOHN VAN BUREN, delivered at a Great Union Meeting held at the Cooper Institute, in New York, on Friday evening, the 6th inst., which was participated in by men of all parties, except the Copperheads.

Men who have heretofore been in full communion with the Democratic party, headed by HORATIO SEYMOUR, came out boldly in favor of Mr. LINCOLN, and justified most fully and unqualifiedly all his measures for suppressing this rebellion.

Most prominent among the speakers was J. T. BRADY, who has heretofore been one of the strongest supporters of the New York Democracy. Mr. BRADY took a proud position before the American people and announced himself in favor of war to the knife, until peace is restored. Speaking of the Confederates he said: "They have told us that if we gave them a blank paper and a pencil to write the terms of a new compact they would not agree to it. Therefore it is a war declared for all ultimate results that can come; and I spit upon any Northern man who takes any position except for the maintenance of the Government."

In speaking of the separation of these States, which he declared to be impossible, he said: "And now, gentlemen, in conclusion, I propose to answer the question, 'What will come out of this war?' You say you will never consent to be united with us. We say that we will never agree to the existence of two military governments arising out of the same people on the same territory."

"Now, I tell my Southern brethren that their only chance is to let the Constitution be their guide; for if the Yankees get down into that Southern territory, who have a theory about this war, and put arms into the hands of the negroes, and put their long feet on the tables of the estates of which they take possession, I don't want to be the lawyer in an action of ejectment."

Mr. BRADY'S speech was an able one, and he was cheered enthusiastically from the beginning to the end of his oration.

Mr. BRADY is an Irishman, and a Roman Catholic, and he is the mouthpiece of a large portion of his countrymen in the city of New-York.

JOHN VAN BUREN spoke in the same strain for more than an hour. During his remarks he said: "I am for a vigorous prosecution of the war. I am for a prosecution of the war until this rebellion is wholly overthrown. I am for destroying this usurped government that has been set over several States of this Union, known as the Confederate government; and until that is done, I hold all propositions for peace to be entirely preposterous and absurd. [Applause and cries of good!]

Now, being for the war, I am necessarily with everybody that is for the war; and being opposed to peace, I am necessarily opposed to everybody that is for peace."

DAVID DUDLEY FIELD, another prominent Democrat, made a most able and patriotic speech.

Let the Copperheads, who are talking about the ruinous debt! enormous Tax, and a bankrupt nation, ponder this statement well, for it is true, and the question of the expenses of this war is squarely met in a few words.

Our taxes never need be higher than are at present, and we have stood them one year—they have not hurt us yet—we can stand them another, and forever; with fifty per cent. added, if need be; and still remain the richest, the happiest, and most prosperous people upon the face of the earth.

The Union meeting at the Cooper Institute is but the beginning of what is soon to follow. The people are getting tired of carrying on the war by slow approaches and easy marches, and they are about to give their united support to the administration, and they are about to give their united support to the administration, and then the traitor sympathizers will have to stand from under. A curse like that of Cain will be pronounced upon them by an outraged people, and they will be consigned to obscurity and detestation.

A brief dispatch from Vicksburg announces that the Yazoo Pass Expedition has captured twenty six steamers, and that the gunboats which formed part of it have arrived at Haines Bluff and were shortly to begin the attack. As a consequence, probably, of the unexpected success of this expedition, the evacuation of Vicksburg is again reported, and this time with addition that the greater part of the Rebel force is to go to Chattanooga thence to operate against the Army of the Cumberland under Gen. ROSECRANS. On the other hand, we have a report that both Union and Rebel armies are to adjourn the contest to Port Hudson; but as the fortifications at that point are understood to be weakest on the north, it is not easy to see why the Rebels should abandon Vicksburg only to retire upon a less defensible position. It is, however, reported from Washington that Port Hudson is also to be abandoned, and this seems the more probable in the case of the evacuation of Vicksburg.

The Lake Providence operations are said to have inundated a hundred miles of Louisiana, destroying millions of property, and drowning out the guerrilla rats which infested it. The Vicksburg cut-off seems also to have been prematurely filled by the impatient waters of the Mississippi and their remains, therefore, only the Yazoo Pass Expedition as the basis of immediate success. Fortunately we have nothing but good news from that quarter, though not yet so complete as might be desired.

THE PEOPLE IN MOTION.

Our exchanges come to us filled with glowing accounts of mass meetings of the people of the loyal States of the Union. Copperheadism has raised up a feeling of indignation that will not be put down until secessionists South, and sympathizers North, will all be crushed in one common ruin. On Wednesday evening of last week, an immense mass meeting, to inaugurate the National Union Club, took place at the Musical Fund Hall, Philadelphia. Gov. CURTIS presided and made the opening speech. Speeches were delivered by Gov. JOHNSON, of Tennessee, Senator DOOLITTLE, of Wisconsin, BENJAMIN H. BREWSTER and HENDRICK B. WRIGHT. All these speakers were earnest in their remarks, and their condemnation of the miserable Copperheads, who, like Sanderson, Swann and others, are attempting to break down the Government, was greeted with the wildest shouts of applause.

On Thursday evening Gov. WRIGHT and Hon. H. B. WRIGHT were serenaded at the Continental Hotel, and in response to repeated calls addressed the thousands assembled. In the course of his remarks Gov. WRIGHT said:

The assertion has been made that none but the Democratic party could save the country. He thought so too, but he proposed to ask the question, what class of Democrats do you mean are to save the country? We have got a past history. Let us go back and look at it. There has been a Democratic party in this country, but the men composing that party were found in harmony with the Constitution. But even then there were some of a false Democracy. Thomas Jefferson was a genuine Democrat. [Applause.] He had a Vice President of the name of Aaron Burr. Mr. Burr was inside of the Democratic organization. [Laughter.] Were they not both Democrats. Coming from Jefferson to Jackson, we find that Andrew Jackson had a Vice President by the name of John C. Calhoun. Was not Calhoun inside of the Democratic organization as much as General Jackson himself. Coming from Jackson we find Stephen A. Douglas; and was not he a representative of the old Jefferson Democracy? At that time the country had a Vice President in the person of John C. Breckinridge, who was then a Democrat too. Then we have Jefferson and Douglas, Jackson and Calhoun, and Douglas and Breckinridge all inside of the Democratic ring. [Laughter.] Do you follow these lines? [Cries of "no, no, no."] The country stood by President Polk when he had his trouble, and now we want the whole people of this country to stand up for the war. If you are a genuine Democrat that is what you should do. When you hear a man saying that the only party that can save the country is the Democratic party, be sure and ascertain what he means by the Democracy, whether it is genuine or bogus. There can be no such thing as a true Democrat, who does not stand up for the war. [Long applause.]

Hon. H. B. WRIGHT was equally pointed in his remarks. He affirmed:

I am here a Democrat, but a Douglas Democrat. [Applause.] I have been a Democrat for a quarter of a century. I shall continue one as long as I live. I love my country, its Constitution and its Laws, and if need be he will fight to preserve them all. Not a sympathizer with, nor apologist for treason. I am the enemy of the traitor, and the deadly foe of the man who takes up arms against the country. [Loud applause.]

I am a peace man. No one living is more anxious for peace. But it must be peace under one Union and one flag—the flag of the Union! [Applause.] Liberties like ours are not to be relinquished or surrendered. I am one of those who believe that patriotism ignores and is above all party, and that it is the duty of every man to come forward with his last dollar and his personal service to put down this, the most heinous and unnatural rebellion upon which the light has ever shone. [Cries of "That's so."] Our ancestors sealed in their life blood this American Union, yet men are among us who doubt the possibility of its preservation, and are welcoming the guillotine to their own neck. The rebel press tell us that if the whole Yankee nation submitted to their yoke, they would spare them. On no condition will they renege with us. Who can cry for peace in the face of declaration like these. The rebels never yet intimated a desire to reunite the government. They are to day precisely what they were when they fired into the national emblem upon Fort Sumpter. If peace cannot be obtained upon honorable terms, what is left to us but to fight for peace? Peace to the country would be a welcome boon, but until the pride and contumacy of the leaders are broken all hope of it must prove delusive. The bitter enemies of the Union are those who would accept peace upon the broken fragments of this great republic. [Applause.] They are bitter enemies to the government than those who take up upon arms against it. [Cried of "so they are!"]

The war is no work of ours. We did not make it. Its calamities are not our doing. The blood of our sons and brothers is not upon our heads. Their bones that bestrew every battle field from the Potomac to the Rocky mountains are not scattered by our hands. The spirit of secession is not appeased by them. Upon every battle field the graves of Democrat and Republican lie side by side—their bones mingle in the burial trenches. [Applause.] If ever there was an hour when loyal men should stand together irrespective of party politics it is now. The memory of the man who set his country in her hour of trial and dangers is accursed. The fate of Arnold shall be his fate, and his heritage the execration of unborn millions. [Deafening applause.]

This is the time when loyal men should mould public opinion. You are the people do it. Spurn the traitor from your home. Let him see the contempt you feel for him patent upon your brow. [Cheers.] I have differed widely from the Administration on several points, but to everything necessary to put down treason I give it my unqualified support. [Applause.] The man who is a traitor or the sympathizer with rebellion cannot be my friend. Let every loyal man thus scout them and will hide their diminished heads.

Which travels at the greatest speed, heat or cold?—Heat; because you can easily catch cold.

COPPERHEADISM.

The hatred for loyal Democrats was exhibited in its fullness, by the venomous copperheads in the House of Representatives, on Friday of last week. That noble son of Tennessee, ANDREW JOHNSON, a life-long Democrat, who has suffered severely for his loyalty, whose property has been confiscated and stolen by the rebels, and whose wife has been scourged because of her husband's loyalty, by the women-whippers of the "chivalrous" South, and who still stand firm for the Union, was on a visit to Harrisburg. He was accompanied by that sterling old Democrat, ex-Governor WRIGHT of Indiana, whose democracy was never questioned and whose loyalty was of the Jacksonian stamp. Mr. Vincent of Erie, offered a resolution to tender them the Hall for the purpose of addressing their fellow-citizens, and moved a suspension of the rules that the resolution might be put upon its passage.

Mr. Deek objected to the suspension of the rules, and, on a call for the yeas and nays, Messrs. Alexander, Barger, Barron, Beck, Boileau, Brown, (Northumberland,) Dellone, Ellis, Glenn, Greber, Hess, Hoover, Horton, Jackson, Josephs, Kain, Kerns, (Schuylkill,) Kline, Labar, Myers, Neiman, Noyes, Patton, Quigley, Rex, Rhodes, Robinson, Rowland, Trimmer, Walsh, Weidner and Wolf—32; all Democrats of the copperhead stamp, voted not to hear loyal Democrats speak!

SUMMARY OF NEWS.

The intelligence from our forces operating on the Mississippi is important, though not so definite as we could desire. A dispatch from Cairo brings us advices from Memphis to Thursday evening. A movement of troops was taking place below, from which important results were expected immediately. It was believed that Vicksburg must soon capitulate or suffer a worse fate. The Yazoo Pass operations appear to have given us some great advantage, of which we have as yet hardly more than a hint. One dispatch states that Admiral Porter has received information that the Expedition had captured Yazoo City, and destroyed the rebel fleet known to be there. Another dispatch states that the Admiral was momentarily expecting intelligence from Haines Bluff that our forces had arrived there from above—which would be the signal for a combined attack upon the rebel fortifications there. Meantime an official dispatch from another source leads us new aspect to affairs on the Mississippi. Gen. ROSECRANS has telegraphed to the War Department a report which has reached him, to the effect that the rebels have evacuated Vicksburg. Information had previously reached Washington that they were removing their stores and war material into the interior, and the report of the evacuation is quite likely to be true.

A positive confirmation of the destruction of the Indianola by the rebels has been sent to the Navy Department by Admiral Porter. The destruction was in consequence of the fright occasioned by the "terraced monster" sent down by the Vicksburg batteries, and a full account of the affair is contained in the Vicksburg Flag of the 5th inst.

A dispatch from Cairo brings a report that a force of 12,000 rebels is approaching Fort Donelson—being already within twenty-eight miles of that fort. Our forces there are ready for them.

Our advices from the army under General ROSECRANS are of the most gratifying character. The men and officers are in high spirits, confident and cheerful—well clothed, well-fed and well armed.

Washington was perturbed on Sunday by a rumor that a considerable force of rebels had crossed the Rappahannock at United States Ford, and were making a raid against the right wing of Gen. Hooker's Army, with a view to forcing an engagement. The rumor was without any foundation in fact.

The Washington Republican reiterates the statement made by it a few days ago, that the rebels are in considerable force in the Shannandoah Valley, between New-Market and Staunton, and contemplating another raid on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

We received, on Saturday, advices from Port Royal to the tenth inst., by an arrival at that port. Gen. Hunter's great movement had not yet commenced, but a General Order had been issued by him on the 5th, in which he says that after long and wearying delays, due to causes over which no one in the Department had control, his command has at length the cheering prospect of active and very important service. On the same day Gen. Hunter issued an order relieving Brig. Gen. Naglee from duty, and ordering him to New York, to report to the Adjutant General. Another order, issued on the 6th, directs the drafting of all the able-bodied negroes in the Department, between the ages of 18 and 50, not otherwise employed by the Government, to garrison the various forts and posts, and thus relieve the white soldiers for active duty.

WM. C. WEBB, formerly of this place, has been elected Speaker of the Wisconsin House of Representatives. The Milwaukee Sentinel says—"The Assembly did itself credit by the election. Mr. Webb is the best parliamentarian in the House, and will discharge the duties well and impartially."

SLAVERY IN NEW YORK.—A Mr. Daniel Bowley, of New York, avows himself the author of a petition for the restoration of Slavery in that State. He says that although the signers of his petition are few, there are thousands who are "willing to sign it as an evidence of their good faith towards the slaveholding States." Mr. Bowley was a Whig, but is now a professed Democrat. He and Wm. B. Reed, of Philadelphia, occupy the same platform—a class of politicians who can "dive deeper and come up dirtier" than any original Democrat is able to do.

The Ladies' Soldiers' Aid Society.

The Ladies' Soldiers' Aid Society, of Towanda, which has been in existence since the beginning of the war, meets at Fireman's Hall every Wednesday afternoon. Assistance and contributions from the ladies of every part of the county will be thankfully received. As an evidence of the good accomplished by the benevolent efforts of the Ladies we publish the following letter from G. P. DAVIS of the 52d Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers:

HEAD-QUARTERS CO. E, 52d P. V., ST. HELENA ISLAND, SOUTH CAROLINA, FEBRUARY 15, 1863.

DEAR SIR:—I consider the mission which you are so deeply interested in, the highest and holiest mission which our citizens could engage in. There is nothing which so much pleases the soldier or more encouraging to him than to know that he is not forgotten at home, and that everything is being done to render him comfortable when sick or wounded. The necessity for thus liberally and patriotically donating for the relief of our soldiers is as great to-day as at any previous time. By your liberal and patriotic donations you have saved hundreds of precious lives, and you have greatly relieved the pains and sufferings of thousands of sick and dying soldiers by your benevolent aid and ever-ready efforts. The field of operation is still large and the sufferings of our soldiers are great, but I have so much confidence in the patriotism of our people that I believe they will leave nothing undone which they can do to relieve the sufferings in our army. There seen the time while on the Peninsula, that the valiant rag-bag of any family would have saved precious lives—Not actually dying of loss of blood for the want of a rag or bandage with which to dress their wounds. Bandages are an article which have always been very scarce with the army in the field probably owing to its great use, wherever your supplies have reached the army the hospitals and depots for the sick have been made comfortable and really cheerful homes for the sick and wounded. The untiring attention of the nurses furnished by the Sanitary Commission, have done more good toward relieving the sick and restoring them to health with their kind attention and careful nursing than a score of army surgeons could do with their medicines. Thousands have been restored to health and to duty by your benevolent and patriotic aid, which if left alone to the harsh treatments of the army must have perished, and when you turn to that part of the field which has not been reached by your commission, there you see and realize the real sufferings of our army. There you see and know the vast amount of good which you have done. There you find the dread and fear of every soldier in the army, (the hospital or house of death) you find no clean or wholesome cuts, to change of garments. You will find no delicacies which are so welcome and necessary in a hospital. You find patients suffering from all kinds of diseases, and wounds, and in all stages of the disease some who have lain in the hospital for months without having even a change of garment, and many wounded men who for weeks have lain with their blood-stained clothes and could not be provided with a change.—Their diet is the coarse substance furnished by the C. S. Here they have no kind hands to smooth their dying pillow and no kind friends to speak a word of consolation or to carry their dying message to friends at home. In many cases they are left comparatively alone to suffer and the unless their constitution may be strong enough to overcome the disease.—If our citizens could but see the contrast between the hospitals which has been supplied by their benevolence and the ones which they have not reached and could but hear the heartfelt thanks uttered by the soldiers whose suffering conditions have been made comfortable by their great exertions and benevolence. I feel sure that their already princely donations and the great exertions of the Commission would be greatly increased.

Truly Yours, G. P. DAVIS, Captain.

A GEM FOR THE MILLION, AND A MEMORABLE PRESENT. SWEDEMOORE'S RUNNING STITCH SEWING MACHINE. The embodiment of practical utility, and a marvel of simplicity; makes the practical utility very rapidly and perfect, uses a common needle, is always ready for operation, and such a marvel of simplicity that a child of six years can understand it, and use it successfully. It will gather, ruffle, shirr, tack run up ruffles, etc. Each machine is put up in a neat box, accompanied with full and explicit directions, and twenty five needles. Sent to any address in the United States on receipt of an order, including the amount, or may be collected by Express on delivery of the machine. The Sewing Machine is the most difficult to stitch by their sewing machines, being sewed the easiest. For ladies and children's apparel, and other articles made of light fabrics, it will therefore be found almost invaluable. It is attached to the table like a sewing bird, and having no tension, and requiring no lubrication or change of stitch, is always ready for operation, and such a marvel of simplicity that a child of six years can understand it, and use it successfully. It will gather, ruffle, shirr, tack run up ruffles, etc. Each machine is put up in a neat box, accompanied with full and explicit directions, and twenty five needles. The Sewing Machine is the most difficult to stitch by their sewing machines, being sewed the easiest. For ladies and children's apparel, and other articles made of light fabrics, it will therefore be found almost invaluable. It is attached to the table like a sewing bird, and having no tension, and requiring no lubrication or change of stitch, is always ready for operation, and such a marvel of simplicity that a child of six years can understand it, and use it successfully. It will gather, ruffle, shirr, tack run up ruffles, etc. Each machine is put up in a neat box, accompanied with full and explicit directions, and twenty five needles.
