TEMPERANCE .- Mr. Editor :- We had the pleasure of listening, last week, to a very able and eloquent address, upon the subject of Temperance, by Maj. E. W. HALE, of Woodside. The Court House was crowded with an eminently intelligent audience, who testified by repeated applause, their full apprecation of its merit. The subject was handled in so able and entertaining a manner, that we believe no one who listenened to it could but have been strengthened in the stern purpose of moving forwaird in the glorious refermation and continue to be classed among the " Defenders of the faith."

The Major's Lecture, we are free to say, was in all re spects a complete success, and, as we are informed, this is among his maiden efforts, the friends of the cause have ample reason to congratulate themselves upon the accession to their ranks of so able and eloquent an advocate. He should be encouraged to take the field, as the " Harvest is ripe and the laborers are few."

How ONE OF KEARNEY'S MEN DEALT WITA A COPPERHEAD .- On Saturday evening last, says the New York Tribune, a slightly built young man, an officer of the 57th Pennsylvania. home on a ten day's furlough, took a seat in a city railroad car. Opposite to him set a couple of men, who, at sight of his uniform, begun to denounce the President for a thief and a traitor, and the army for a set of cowards, better at running than at fighting, &c. The officer stepped up in front of them, FIRE. - We learn that the large Grist and civily requested them to desist. They informed him mills formerly known as "Mercur's Milli," be. that they would say what they pleased; who was he, and what was it to him? With a flash of his eye, like the lightning before the thunder, he replied: "My name together with their entire contents were consumed is James Darling, I am a Captain in the army of the United States. No man living can talk in my presence of the President as you have, if I can prevent it."
