it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the vir-fue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else. During late years the public have been misled by large pottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsa parilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Barsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the bad of obloquy which rests upoh it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are ir-resistable by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intend-ed to crue. In order to secure their complete eradica-tion from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle. Prepared by Dr. J. C. has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been cound to do.
