GEO. W. WHITNEY, formerly of this place, and for some time teacher of the Borough School. as been ordained Minister of the Gospel, in the Conrch in Lisle, Broome county, N. Y.

We are requested to state, for the inormation of applicants for Tavern Licenses, that under e law, their bonds should contain a power of attorney confess judgment-which requires a $1 revenue stamp to be affixed to the bond.

A small boy, named RICHARD MALAY, was, one day last week, arrested, and after a hearing be-Justice Berrs, was committed to jail, upon the charge alceny. In his pockets were found a number of Bo ongh and School Orders, Checks, &c., which he had taken from the offices of Jadge Elwell and Geo. Mon-TANYE, Esq.

RICHARD PAYNE, Esq., will deliver an address on temperance, before the Towarda Temperance Society on Monday evening next, April 20th. Mr. PAYNE, although a young man, comes to us with some reputation as a public speaker. His late address ore the Monroeton Temperance Society was regarded as the finest of the whole winter. Go and hear him.

During the latter part of last week the mehanna raised to such an extent, that lumbermen remed it inexpedient to venture out. It raised all day In Tuscarora, April 3, 1863, GEORGE BUMP, in the Sunday, and as there was every indication of a prolonged rein storm, a large flood was feared, as the river was aready bank full, and the snow on the hills being carried of by rain would so augment the water as to make a general flood, but fortunately the rain ceased, and the river is now falling. A large quantity of lumber was landed at this place waiting for the water to recede.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT-WOMAN BURNED burned to death on Friday last, her clothes taking fire while she was engaged about the cooking stove. She was standing with her back to the stove, when her dress took fire and the first warning she had was the blaze. Her insuccessful attempts to divest herself of her burning clothing were desperate, burning her hands and arms terribly, and she was so badly burned, that she lived but a few hours, in great agony. Mrs. W. was about 35 years of age, had been married but about one year, and leaves a husband to lament her loss.

BOLD ROBBERIES .- One night last week the sleeping room of Mr. FRANCIS WATTS, Country Treasner, was entered, while Mr. WATTS and his wife were asleen, and his pantaloons taken from there into an adjoining room, and the pockets rifled of $21 in bills. Some checks and other valuable papers were left unmolested. -The cellar of Mrs. Barstow, was also lately entered, and a large quantity of meat, potatoes, preserved fruit, and other valuable articles, taken away.

There is, unquestionably, an organized gang of thieves in this vicinity, who are committing depredations nighty. Measures should be taken to ferret out the villains and bring them to justice.

AMUSEMENTS .- The Entertainment given by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis, assisted by that prince s. Major DEMARBELL, was attended by a large and fashionable audience, who manifested their apportal by tremendious shouts of laughter and applianse. The performance is an original one—embracing, at once, the Theatre, the Concert Room, the Encharte I Bower of the Wizard, and the Palace of the Vantriloquist. Mr. and Mrs. Days in their self-sense and success the self-sense and is under a good state of cultivation, with a dwelling house, barn, stable and other Mrs. Davis in their colloquys cannot be excelled. They wariably do their acting to the li e, portraying at once the scenes of domeetic life to a reality, while Major De-MARBELL with his Comic and Sentemental singing, and s portraiture of Yankee character cannot be surpassed. The amusement offered by this trio cannot be equalled

They appear again this (We lnesday) evening, for the ast time. May they be greeted with a large and over-

E. O. GOODRICH, Esq., - Dear Sir: The following extract from a letter of a lady of this place now on a visit to the army of the Potomac, and one who is most admirably fitted to observe and judge correctly of what falls under her notice, will show to your readers the valuable aid which our sick and wounded soldiers have received from the "Ladies' Aid Societies," of the Northern States. She writes under date of March 27th, 1863, from near Belleplain, Virginia. She writes :-"I have visited the Hospitals and tried to ascertain correctly in regard to the utility of the " Aid Societies," and must say that to these and similar associations, all the sick are indebted for their comforts-I might almost say their necessities.

The stamp of the Sanitary Commission is on the pillow cases and the feather pillows, slippers, bed, shirts, and everything , almost are procured from the same source. The Matron here has only to apply to the Sanitary De-Pository, and she is furnished with anything they have. 'The Young Men's Christian Association, have rooms here, and some of them are always here and they are untiring in their efforts to do good-visiting and praying and reading to the sick, and they chiefly supply them with such delicacies as "concentrated milk," "corn starch," &c., &c. They have given the Matron a large cooking stove, and scarcely ten minutes elapse that nurs es are not in for thickened milk, gruel, corn starch, &c. for the sick."

Again, speaking of the sufferings which the sick underwent when Burnside made his last movement, she says: "A young man of the Christian Association, came through mud to the top of his boots with his hands The Wyoming Annual Conference of and arms and pockets filled, and leaving them returned M. E. Church, commenced its session at Susquehan- and repeated the same until other aid from the Sam tary chiefly was procured. I cannot tell you on paper of the sufferings of Windmill point, during that chill January weather, but many an anxious Father and serrowing Mother, came there to look for loved ones who already slept the sleep which knows no wakening."

From the foregoing, it will be seen " what a great door and effectual is opened" unto us to do good. Already there have been many contributions of stores sent in, in reference to the appeal publi hed last week, out many more are needed, and as fast as received will be duly sent forward. A list of all articles sent in will be kept, with gregational Church, and is, we believe, pastor of a the name of the contributor, and we hope that the response will be worthy of the means and opportunities of MABBIED, In Springfield, April 9th, by O. H. Burnham, Esq., Mr Mr. LAVILLE HUGGINS to Miss MABY BULLOCK, both of Springfield.

DIED. In the borough of Towanda, March 17, 1863, ELIZA MAY, eldest daughter of Dr. Thomas F. and Eliza Ma-dill, aged 2 years and 6 months.

A beautiful and tender flower, transplanted from earth to Heaven, to bloom forever in the Paradise of seventy sixth year of his age. In Wyalusing, April 7, 1863, of Congestion of the Lungs, MERCY COOK, in the seventieth year of her age. In Windham, on the 2d inst., DEBORAH C., wife of Peter Kuykendall, in the 64th year of her age.

The deceased had been for many years a zealous and consistent Church member, and illustrated in her life the beauty of the profession she made. Her example was well worthy of imitation. As a wife, she was faithful To Death. - Mrs. Wright, living in North Orwell, was the value and disinterestedness of her friendship, a large and affectionate; as a mother, loving and gentle; and circle of neighb rs and acquairtances will attest. While we mourn her loss, let us imitate the example of Christian perseverance she daily set us, that when crowned with years, we lay down, like her, "in the bles ed hope of a glorious immortality."

In Towarda April 3d. EDWIN EISHOP, son of B. L. & R. A. Baldwin, aged 2 years, 2 months and 3 days.

Dearest Eddle, thou hast left us, Here thy loss we deeply teel; But its God who hath bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal.

Then trust the Saviour! he has taken Little Epone from your arms— That he might your hearts awaken To behold his match ess charms.

Then heed, oh heed, the timely warning, Let your hearts on Christ be stayed Let his love be your adoring, And you shall not be dismayed.

Oh. grieve not the Holy Spirit, Bow an kiss the chastning rod—And through faith you may inherit

Peace and pardon from your Gop.

Little Eddie's gone to Heaven,
Angels guard his footsteps now-Infant sins are all forgiven,
Glories crown the immortal brow.
