TOWANDA:

Thursday Morning, May 21, 1863.

We observe that the Standing Committee of Alleghany and Luzerne Counties have called a REPUBLICAN UNION CONVENTION, to elect delegates to the Pittsburg Convention. According to the statements and logic of the Peoples' party leaders, here, these delegates have no right to a seat in that Convention, representing a " political party independ ent and distinct in its organization-having neither the name nor the single purpose of the Union organization of this State." But we imagine that their delegates will be admitted without delay or question—as they always have been admitted-while the delegates from the Peoples' organization here, will be left out in the cold.

The bolters seem to place great reliance upon the name they have assumed. Like an ass dressed in a lions skip, their braying betrays their character. Their assumption of a new name will not avail. Their repudiation of the Republican party, and its name, is easy for them, because they have never been in love with its principles. But for all that, the great Republican party of the Nation still dent Lincoln, and which is called Republican everywhere, and has an organization in every by the Union forces, intimating that its posfree and some of the Slave States. The dom-session would be an incalculable damage to inant party of the Union, is everywhere known that large and most productive portion of as the "Republican party," and the Union Virginia, which, having thus far escaped the party in the State act in conjunction with that organization. In some of the counties, Richmond and the troops and hospitais with the name "Republican" has been adoptedin others it is called the "Union party."

bence shall not quarrel with any one on that presence of the army at West Point will comaccount. But we have noticed throughout pletely paralize the agricultural energy of more the State, that where the principles of Freedom than seventy thousand persons, the most dishave been boldly put forth and advocated, and tant of whom do not reside fifty miles from where the great issues of the day have been Richmond; because, not having suffered from openly met, the party has been called Repub- the ravages of war, the farmers throughout lican, and has been triumphant-while, where that whole region are making the most extenthere was a disposition to shirk the two issues, sive preparations for large crops. These are there has been a repugnance to this name significant admissions, and show not only the Republican.—In such localities, disaster has value but the necesity of gaining and keeping bond for the safe keeping of money; has no overtaken the party.

The question of the admission of delegates from this County is not an open one. It does Illinois cavalry, sent forward his report of the not turn upon names. The Republican party part which his troops played in the great of this County has always been an important part of the Union party of the State. The delegates sent from Bradford have always been received and welcomed. The same party again elects delegates which represent the Repub-Rean or Union party of the County, having no affiliation or affinity with the Copperheads. | bridges, roads and depots, to the value of over concert of purpose—see fit to elect delegates them, and only lost on his own side two comto seats? Simply that the leaders have assumed the name-Peoples' party to cloak their ambition and mercenary schemes. They are the offspring of a foul and unnatural combination of disappointed office seekers and malignant Copperheads. They represent no party, they have no constituency who can be depended upon to support the nominees of the Pittsburg Convention.

Does Mr. Tracy go to Pittsburg with authority to pledge the Democrats who elected bim last fall, to support the candidates put in nomination there? If not, then who does he represent? The organization of which he is the representative has a mushroon sickly existence. The Copperhead leaders can squelch his Peoples' party with a word. They will do so, when it suits their purpose-but as long as they can use the leaders and the organization to carry out their schemes of course they will employ both. But at Pittsburg, Messrs. Pi-OLLET & Co., will not have a voice, and they can 't help Mr. TRACY and his colleagues to a seat in the Convention. We advise him to save himself the trouble and expense of a fruitless journey to Pittsburg and the mortification of being refused admittance to a seat in the Convention.

Mr. TRACY has a chance to regain his position with the Republicans of the County and State. His seat in Congress, will afford him an opportunity, if he has a disposition, to show that he has not fallen entirely from his former " high estate"-that he has not been contaminated by his association with, and election by, Democrats. We need not point out the road -it is plain to every one. We are not withnot hope that he will elect to follow it, though than to rega. . . . It is easier to go estray Yet Mr. TRACY's anticode political rectitude. entirely without hope, that he will not leave us associations he made last fall, and continue support of the principles and measures, he has heretofore so zealously professed.

Mr. Slenker Auditor-General, Mr. Barr, Surveyor-General, and Mr. McGrath, State Treasurer, entered upon the duties of their respective offices, at Harrisburg, on the 1st inst. Mr. Barr has appointed Thomas J. Rehrer, Esq., as his Chief Clerk. Mr. Mc-Grath has appointed Wm. D. Boas, Esq., Chief Clerk of the Treasury Department.

THE LATEST WAR NEWS.

By the arrival of the steamer George Washington, from New Orleans on the 9th instant, we have a full account of the capture of Alexandria, on the Red River, by Admiral Porter, the arrival of Admiral Farragut at New Orleans, and an intensely interesting and most valuable description of the cavalry raid of Colonel Grierson with his gallant Illinois cavalry. His expedition was a magnificent success. He cut his way through the enemy's country with two regiments of cavalry, destroying on his route four millions of rebel property, capturing over a thousand men and twelve hundred horses, demolishing a camp of insurrection, with all its equipments, cutting the communication on the Great Northern and New Orleans and Jackson railroads and destroying a large number of cars, telegraph wire, water tanks and army stores. After passing through many dangers and working terrible damage he arrived at Baton Rouge on the 1st instant, to the great surprise of the inhabitants. From thence he pushed on to New Orleans, where he was received with great eclat. The whole movement only occupied seventeen days. This is certainly one of the most brilliant feats of the war.

We have received from the Southern journals a number of highly interesting articles, chiefly dwelling upon the disastrous effects of these grand cavalry raids of ours in Virginia, Mississippi and Georgia, in which it will be seen the enemy admit that terrible damage has been done by our forces in these States. It is the same party which elected Prest The Richmond journals also lay great stress upon the occupation of West Point, Virginia, ravages of war, has supplied the people of large and indispensable supplies of bread-stuffs and other provisions. Such is the opinion of We have no great reverence for names, and the Examiner. And it further states that the a secure foothold at West Point.

Lieutenant Colonel H. Davis, of the 12th Stoneman expedition in Virginia, and it was a highly efficient and well conducted one. In his dash from the South Anna river to Gloucester Point he destroyed an amount of the enemy's property, consisting chiefly of army stores, found in wagons and railroad trains, of They have the prestige of former admissions a million of dollars. The capture of Jackson, the capital of Mississippi, by the Union army of General Grant is fully confirmed by the admission of the Vicksburg and Jackson papers and by despatches from Mobile and Chattanooga. Gen. Hurlbut telegraphs from Cairo to General Halleck that this fact is stated by the above authorities. The rebel General Gregg abandoned Raymond on Tuesday, the 12th. On the next day he was reinforcad by General Walker, of Georgia, at Mississippi Springs; but their combined forces were driven back to Jackson on Thursday. Our troops then might make their calculations as to the success followed and took possession of the city from of any resistance to the real sentence, should the east. General Joe Johnston arrived at that be objectionable when announced. Up Jackson the day previous, but pushed on with three brigades towards Vicksburg. General Grant at last accounts had struck the railroad at Edward's Station, about eighteen miles from Vicksburg. The capture of Jackson is thus placed beyond doubt, and the second chapter in this great and somewhat complicated story of the war in the Southwest-the mar the projects of General Grant.

Gen. Grant reports that Raymond was taken on the 12th. Union loss, 51 killed and 180 wounded; rebel loss, 75 killed (buried by Gen. Grant's men), and 186 prisoners, beside an unknown number of wounded. McPherson was at Clinton, Shermon on direct road toward Jackson, and McClernand was bringing up the rear. Gen. Grant says: " I will atficial the State Capital to-day." The next of-Gen. Gratch is from Gen. Hulbert, who say : tol is burned." RUMORS.

Differences of opinion between high officials as to the conduct of General HOOKER and the affair of the Peterhof are said to prevail to such an extent as to interrupt the previous entente cordiale. It is believed by many that some important civil and military changes are about to take place, which will be received with great satisfaction by friends of the Gov-

It is rumored that the case of Vallandigham is not yet decided, that Mr. Seward favors his release, and the President is undecided. The Union men in Ohio demand that if the man is to be punished at all, he should be sent south to the rebels whose cause he has so long de-

Gen. Hooker has gone back to Falmouth to prepare for another campaign. The rebels are already upon their legs, and if we do not cross over and give them employment, they will soon move towards Washington. This is the opinion of some of our best military men.

Regiments of nine-months and two-years men are constantly pouring through Washing ton to the North, their time baving expired. There is a feeling of nervousness upon the subject in some quarters, but our military leaders are satisfied that if we are to lose twenty or thirty thousand men from the army at all, it is better to lose them now.

The draft will take place about the first of July. By the middle of July the War Department will offer a bounty of $300 to all who

THE DRAFT.-The thirteenth section of the conscription law has received an intepretation, and substantially a warlike adjudication. On the representation of influential citizens of Illinois, that the acceptance of $300 from drafted men, in lieu of service, throughout the West would degenerate the enrolment measure, and defeat the intention to raise an army. Secretary Stanton is understood to have decided that the section was permissive, and not mandatory; that it is optional with him to receive the money or reject it; that he is not a national treasurer; that be gives no financial officers under him; has no means of enforcing security for the immense sums his subordinates would receive on this commutation of military service, and has no time to go into the business of hunting up substitutes.

Solicitor WHITING, of the War Department is understood to concur in these views. The President is also understood to concur in their lawfulness and policy. The clause of the act selling exemptions at $300, therefore, will practically be ignored. Conscripts will either be left to hunt up substitutes at their own price, or the plan will be adopted of calling for an equal number of volunteers at the time substitutes for drafted men, and receive a Government bounty of $100, and the conscript's price of exemption besides. Any way, the enrolment law will not be a revenue measure, but a war measure.

VALLANDIGHAM CANARD .- It now appears that the story of Vallandigham's sentence to the Tortugas Island is a canard. The Cincinnati Daily Times of the 14th inst., says that it has positive official assurance that the reported sentence of the arch traitor is unfounded, and that it was gotten up by his friends to test public feeling, so that they to the 14th inst., the result of the investigation was not known to any but the General commanding the Department in which the offence was committed and the trial took place. and to the court which heard the case.

GIFTS FROM GERMANY FOR OUR SOLDIERS. One of the steamers of the Hamburg and American Steamship Company, lately arrived, brought to the port of New-York over eighty large packages of fine linen and lint, which had been contributed by the friends of the Union along the Rhine, for the benefit of our sick or wounded soldiers. Some of the packages were of the size of hogsheads, and all were made up of the best material. The linen was especially fine. Every package bore this inscription -" Bhenish Bavaria. Brigadier General Thomas T. Crittenden, of Indiana, has sent in his resignation to General Rosecrans. His reason for this is, that certain charges of disloyalty which he made against Colonel Caldwell, of the 81st Indiana Regiment were suppressed by his superiors. For the same reason, the lieutenantcolonel, major, and adjutant of the 81st, have also resigned.

A despatch dated Jackson, Miss, the 11th, to the Richmond Sentinel, professes the suspicious information that 10,000 raw troops, under Kirby Smith, had routed Gen. Banks from Washington, La.
