I call the attention of the Legislature to the report of the Surveyor General, here- with presented, and commend the suggest- ions made by that officer to your consider- ation. This message is accompanied by full re- ports of all the military departments. They exhibit the large amount of service perform- ed during the past year, and contain a full listory of all the military operations of the State. Many valuable recommendations are made in them to promote the efficiency of our volunteers, and the comfort of the sick and wounded, which I commend to your earnest and immediate attention. It affords be great satisfaction to bear my testimony to the ability, diligence, and fidelity of all the officers in these several departments. BEDARKS IN CONCLUSION. Before closing this message I desire to advert to the delay which has sometimes occurred in the passage of the general ap-	gainzation of the 141st Pa., a resident of Hawley enlisted in Co. G. Capt. Mumford, and went with the Co. to Va. At the battle of Chancellorsville he was reported killed, and a comradesent, as he sup- posed, a pocket book and a lock of his hair to the soldier's wife. On such evidence she regarded him as dead, and some two months ago married again. Among the prisoners who were recently released from Georgia prisons, was the supposed dead hus- band. Upon his arrival at Annapolis he immedi- ately obtained a furfough and started to see his family. Our readers can imagine his surprise at finding his wife married again, and hers at behold- ing, as she supposed, her dead husband. This war causes many curious scenes to be enacted.—Hones- dale Rep. I call the attention of the Legislature to the report of the Surveyor General, here- with presented, and commend the suggest- ions made by that officer to your consider- ation. This message is accompanied by full re- ports of all the military departments. They exhibit the large amount of service perform- ed during the past year, and contain a full history of all the military operations of the State. Many valuable recommendations are made in them to promote the efficiency of our volunteers, and the comfort of the sick and wounded, which I commend to your ennest and immediate attention. It affords me great satisfaction to bear my testimony to the ability, diligence, and fidelity of all the officers in these several departments. EMMARS IN CONCLUSION . I call the attention of the Legislature to the report of the Surveyor General, here- with presented, and commend the suggest- ions made by that officer to your consider- ation. This message is accompanied by full re- ports of all the military departments. They exhibit the large amount of service perform- ed during the past year, and contain a full listory of all the military operations of the State. Many valuable recommendations are made in them to promote the efficiency of our volunteers, and the comfort of the sick and wounded, which I commend to your earnest and immediate attention. It affords me great satisfaction to bear my testimony to the ability, diligence, and fidelity of all the officers in these several departments. REMARKS IN CONCLUSION. Before closing this message I desire to advert to the delay which has sometimes occurred in the passage of the general ap- propriation bill. It is nc cessary that this bill should become a law, as otherwise the action of Government would be stopped.— To delay, its presentation to the Executive —as was done at the last regular session— till a late hour of the night before the morn- ing fixed for the final adjournment, is to de- prive the people of their right to have all bills submitted to the revision of the Legis- lature before becoming laws, in case the Executive should not	gainzation of the 141st Pa., a resident of Hawley enlisted in Co. G. Capt. Mumford, and went with the Co. to Va. At the battle of Chancellorsville he was reported killed, and a comradesent, as he sup- posed, a pocket book and a lock of his hair to the soldier's wife. On such evidence she regarded him as dead, and some two months ago married again. Among the prisoners who were recently released from Georgia prisons, was the supposed dead hus- band. Upon his arival at Annapolis he immedi- ately obtained a furfough and started to see his family. Our readers can imagine his surprise at finding his wife married again, and hers at behold- ing as she supposed, her dead husband. This war causes many curious scenes to be enacted.—Hones- dale Rep. A similar case to the above occurred in Rome, in this county. The wife of a private in the 141st regiment, having been killed in battle, contrac- ted a second marriage. It turns out that the hus- band was a prisoner, and uninjured. CowLES & Co's EXP RESS.—Cowles & Co., are now sending daily, through their express, large quantities of Boxes to the army, for the soldiers, filled with everything good to eat and wear. We are rejoiced to know that the brave soldiers who are so gallantly in the field defending their coun- try's flag, are not forgotten by their friends at home. As the army has now gone into winter quarters, it is a good time for every family to send a box well filled with "good cheer," to gladden the hearts of our brave boys. They will be prop- erly marked at their office, and toget throughquick, should be brought in early in the week.
