

NEWS FROM ALL NATIONS.

Edmund Ruffin of Virginia, the man who fired the first gun on Sumter, blew his brains out near Richmond on Saturday last. A statement was found among his papers to the effect that he preferred death to living under the United States Government.

Bradford Reporter.

Towanda, Thursday, June 29, 1865. In consequence of the approach of our National Anniversary, and in accordance with our usual custom, we shall not issue the Reporter next week. The next issue will be dated July 13th.

FROM HARRISBURG.

HARRISBURG, June 29, 1865. The work on the Capitol is rapidly progressing, the cellar walls have been laid, they look as though they were built for ages yet to come, the massive red sand stone blocks are being placed upon them and upon these the brick walls are to be built.

THE POSITION OF DESERTERS AND NON-REPORTING CONSORTS.

By the terms of an act of Congress approved the 3d day of March, 1865, deserters from the army and conscripts who have failed to report to the proper officers, are placed in a woful plight. If we read the terms of the act of Congress aright, all those referred to therein, have forfeited their citizenship, and are to all intents and purposes, in the position of aliens debarred from the exercise of all political rights and the holding of all offices of trust and profit under the Government.

THE RESULT.

The rebellion went up like a rocket, and came down like a stick. The blowing, bluster, and loud-sounding bravado, the matchless armies, and more than matchless Generals of the Southern Confederacy, whose corner-stone was African Slavery, and which was to be a new type, and a higher development of civilization, have all come to naught; and terrible indeed, are the consequences of the mad folly which prompted the rebellion.

GENERAL HALLECK'S REPLY TO THE STRICTURES OF GENERAL SHERMAN.

GENERAL HALLECK'S REPLY TO THE STRICTURES OF GENERAL SHERMAN.—The Washington Republican of Tuesday says: We understand that the War Department has received from Gen. Halleck a reply to the strictures made by Gen. Sherman upon the action of that officer, and upon the movement of his troops immediately after the rejection by the government of Gen. Sherman's truce with the rebel Gen. Johnston.

THE DISABILITIES OF REBELS.

WASHINGTON, June 22, 1865. In view of the action of Governor Pierpont, in calling the Legislature together, for the purpose of removing the disability from those who have been engaged in the rebellion, and allowing them to vote and hold office, a large delegation of the loyal men of the State to-day visited the President.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Frances Seward, wife of the Hon. Wm. H. Seward, died at Washington, Wednesday, June 21. Her funeral took place in Auburn on Saturday, and was attended by an immense concourse of people.

A SPECK OF WAR.

For some days past large parties of soldiers have congregated around Lake Street bridge, just this side of Barracks No. 1, interfering with the passage of the bridge.

POSTPONED.

The meeting of the Union State Convention at the request of many prominent Union citizens has been postponed, and will not take place on the 19th July, as heretofore announced.

END OF A TRAITOR.

Edmund Ruffin the grey headed old sinner who, the Charleston Mercury said was "the ancient patriot who bared his grey head to the breezes of the sea, and fired the first gun against the power of the Yankees," has fired his last gun, by which he blew out his treacherous old brains rather than live under the Government of the United States.

STARBURG APPREHENDED.

A despatch from Newbern, N. C., dated June 16, says: Intelligence from Northern Georgia, and on the line of Sherman's late march through South Carolina, states that many people are dying for want of food, and it is feared that starvation will prevail, owing to the general destruction of houses, furniture, food, cattle, horses, fences, and all farming implements, which leaves the inhabitants helpless to provide for themselves.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA DELEGATION.

The South Carolina delegation, now in Washington, had an interview with President Johnson on Saturday. The latter insisted on the entire abandonment of Slavery as one of the conditions precedent to the return of South Carolina to the Union.

THE NAVY DEPARTMENT.

The Navy Department has received information of the formal surrender of Galveston, Texas, on the 15th inst., and its actual occupation on the 8th. The other parts of Texas were also included in the surrender.

THE REBELS IN TEXAS.

The rebels in Texas are being driven from the country. The people will expect better things of this administration. It is expected that some degree of sagacity, if not of far-seeing shrewdness, shall be called into requisition in preparing the Government for the future.
