Dangerous Counterfeit.—A very dangers counterfeit of the one dollar treasury notes by General Government, has made its appearance.

MIDLER—KINLEY.—By Wm. H. Conklin, Esq.,
August 13th, 1865, Mr. Charles Miller to Mrs.
Amanda Kinley, all of Wysox, Pa. The general appearance is pronounced good. The en ink is of a lighter shade than that used on genuine. The figure 1 on the scroll work on ower right hand corner of the note are printed Green; in the genuine they are White. The ce of Chase in the counterfeit is badly executed. readers cannot be too well on their guard in ing in the one dollar treasury notes.

Col. Potts has accepted the presidency of a new freight company, called Empire line.

We are glad to learn the Colonel will remain in our town, where he has made so many friends by ed the following Committees of Vigilance, whose his urbanity and promptitude while in the disduty it is to call meetings of the electors on Satur- charge of his duties as manager of the P. & E.

> SUICIDE IN CANDOR .- On Sunday last, in Candor Village, Miss Hannah Lewis, a girl 23 or 24 years of age, daughter of Lucas Lewis, committed suicide by shooting herself through the heart A MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY with a musket—her folks being absent at Church with the exception of a brother who was asleep in with the exception of a brother who was asleep in a bedroom in the chamber. When her folks came home she was lying dead upon the floor, with the gun by her side, the muzzle of which she had evidently held against her breast while she had sprung the lock with her foot. Aberration of mind growing out of religious excitement is supposed to have been the cause of the rash act. The family have been the cause of the rash act.
