They certainly would not congovernment, they should, for consistency's sake, "bolt" again in '68, if they do not elect a President. What they undoubtedly wish understood when they say they "can We have printed a full supply of tickets not consistently support Mr. Landon," is, the charge of corruption was sweeping and general. Senators and Representatives from all parts of the State were included in it, for members from all quarters supported it. Nothing has been or can proved against Mr. Landon which would not be true in many Counties in the State. Why is it then that in this County alone the fight is still kept up. Andrew G.
