THE WAR DEBT OF THE LOYAL STATES Mr. Blaine from the Select Committee or the War Debts of the loval States, recently Pistols and stones were freely used, but none of made a very interesting report to Congress, from which we take the following

This table shows the amount expended directly by the several States, and the municipal corporations of each respectively, making a total of $467,954,364; and this is based on imperfect returns. The amounts raised by State taxation for war expenses, and the vast sums so generously contributed throughout the loyal States by individuals, and by associations, for the support of the Union cause, are not included in this amount. An accurate state ment of all these added to the amount already given, would, in all probability. swell it to five hundred millions.

The States, and their respective munic pal corporations, report the amount expen-

	The committee then obtained from the War Department the number of men fur nished by each State, under the different right to review any assessment made by him, and calls of the government, with an aggregate which has been transmitted to the Collector and from each state reduced to a uniform stanpaid, and that the Assessor has no authority undard of three years' service, making a total of 2,154,311 three years' men. The average cost of these was about two hundred and twenty dollars, besides the amount paid by the general government. The comdred passengers are frequently brought through circumstances, the general government could refund this entire outlay to the respective states, fearing, that by oppressing, it might end in impairing the credit of the whole; but, that by immediate relief offered these States to the amount of a minor fraction of their expenditures, which can be done without injuring the credit of the federal government, the people can be relieved of high local taxation, to the manifest advantage of State and general gov-

The militia called out by the Proclamation of Governor Curtin, to repel rebel invasions of Pennsylvania, are, of course, not included in the table aggregating the number of three years' men furnished by each State. Our State has credit, in this report, for 366,326 men, furnished under all the calls of the President; but this is at least 50.000 below the amount that went to arm the blacks to assist him in carrying from this State. Neighboring States paid higher local bounties, than could be procured here, and our people went where hey could get the most. The State of New York alone has credit for 40,000 soldiers she enticed over the line by promises of high bounties.

The steamer Arizona, from Aspinvall, brings the news of a terrible explosion which occurred at that place on the 3d inst. The British ship European arrived at that port on the previous day, and commenced unloading her cargo. Nearly all the local freight had been delivered, when about 7 o'clock on the morning of the 3d, a terrific explosion occurred on board, which tore away the upper part of the ship and blew several large plates off the side. The wharf, some four hundred feet long, was torn to pieces; the superstructure was completely demolished to within a hundred feet of the freight-house, and hardly a plank remained in the centre length of the structure that was not wrenched from its fastenings .-The loss of life was necessarily great. It was impossible, when the Arizona left to learn the exact number missing, but it was estimated that it would prove to exceed fifty. There was no doubt that the explosion originated in the seventy cases of nitronecerily shipping from England by the Eurc- other dying while the officers were on board.

CLYMER'S NOTES .- The Harrisburg Telegraph copies from the Legislative Record of 1864, a portion of the votes cast by Mr. Clymer, the Democratic nominee for Governor, and then as now, a State Senator, which serve to show that on all questions mittee did not think, that under present involving the integrity of the Government. the safety of the Union, and the honor of her brave defenders, he voted in opposition, without a single exception. He voted against the bill increasing the pay of the officers and privates of the army and navy. He voted against the resolution offering a vote of thanks to Gen. Grant and the offcers and soldiers under him for a series of gallant services resulting in the liberation of the Uuion people of East Tennessee. The arrival at New York of the steam ship Virginia, of the National Steam Navigation Company's line, on Wednesday afternoon, with cholere on board, is already She arrived off Staten Island at five o'clock, and was boarded at the quarantine or upper landing of the island by the health officer. After a careful examination of the vessel, and of the passengers, thirtyseven of whom had previously died, and anthe disease was pronounced marked Asiatic cholera.

The vessel was then ordered to the lower quarantine, near Sandy Hook : but it had become late, and the pilot took the responsibility of remaining till morning. At a quarter past eleven o'clock in the forenoor she went down the bay. Her presence within three quarters of a mile of the Staten Island shore created much excitement among the inhabitants. No communication whatever was allowed between the vessel and the shore. Arrangements are making to remove all the passengers from the ship to-morrow morning. There is said to be n immediate danger that the disease wil reach the city from the vessel. THE VIRGINIA AND HER PASSENGERS The steamship Virginia is a new propeller of 2,876 tons burden, and is one of the finest vessels of the line to which she be longs. The passengers numbered about one thousand and eighty when she sailed voted against allowing the soldiers from from Europe; and according to her regishis own state the right of suffrage; in ter it is reported her commander, Captain Prowse, was authorized to receive one or two hundred more. She was, however, well crowded, the steerage passengers (comprising all but fourteen) of Pennsylvania will have no difficulty in two tiers of decks. They are in a cleanly condition.

A large proportion of the passengers are Germans; it is supposed they brought the cholera on board, and the mortality has been greater among then than among the Irish and English passengers. ORIGIN OF THE DISEASE.

The Virginia sailed from Liverpool on the 4th instant; no cholera is known to exist there. The German passengers had, it noticed among them. At Queenstown Ireland, more passengers were received
