

The Reporter is published every Thursday Morning by E. O. Goodrich, at $2 per Annum, in Advance.

Table with rates for advertisements: Single Column, 24 lines, 25 cents per line per week.

Advertisements exceeding fifteen lines are inserted at TEN CENTS per line for first insertion, and FIVE CENTS per line for subsequent insertions.

Selected Poetry.

SOONER OR LATER.

Sooner or later the storms shall best sweep our banner from head to feet; Sooner or later the wind shall rave in the long grass above my grave.

I shall not heed them where I lie, Nothing shall molest me in death; Nothing the headstone's fret of rain, Nothing to me the dark day's pain.

Sooner or later the sun shall shine With tender warmth on that mound of mine; Sooner or later, in summer air, Clover and violet blossom there.

I shall not heed them where I lie, Nothing shall molest me in death; Nothing the headstone's fret of rain, Nothing to me the dark day's pain.

Sooner or later the sun shall shine With tender warmth on that mound of mine; Sooner or later, in summer air, Clover and violet blossom there.

I shall not heed them where I lie, Nothing shall molest me in death; Nothing the headstone's fret of rain, Nothing to me the dark day's pain.

Sooner or later the sun shall shine With tender warmth on that mound of mine; Sooner or later, in summer air, Clover and violet blossom there.

I shall not heed them where I lie, Nothing shall molest me in death; Nothing the headstone's fret of rain, Nothing to me the dark day's pain.

Sooner or later the sun shall shine With tender warmth on that mound of mine; Sooner or later, in summer air, Clover and violet blossom there.

I shall not heed them where I lie, Nothing shall molest me in death; Nothing the headstone's fret of rain, Nothing to me the dark day's pain.

Sooner or later the sun shall shine With tender warmth on that mound of mine; Sooner or later, in summer air, Clover and violet blossom there.

I shall not heed them where I lie, Nothing shall molest me in death; Nothing the headstone's fret of rain, Nothing to me the dark day's pain.

Sooner or later the sun shall shine With tender warmth on that mound of mine; Sooner or later, in summer air, Clover and violet blossom there.

I shall not heed them where I lie, Nothing shall molest me in death; Nothing the headstone's fret of rain, Nothing to me the dark day's pain.

Sooner or later the sun shall shine With tender warmth on that mound of mine; Sooner or later, in summer air, Clover and violet blossom there.

I shall not heed them where I lie, Nothing shall molest me in death; Nothing the headstone's fret of rain, Nothing to me the dark day's pain.

Sooner or later the sun shall shine With tender warmth on that mound of mine; Sooner or later, in summer air, Clover and violet blossom there.

I shall not heed them where I lie, Nothing shall molest me in death; Nothing the headstone's fret of rain, Nothing to me the dark day's pain.

Sooner or later the sun shall shine With tender warmth on that mound of mine; Sooner or later, in summer air, Clover and violet blossom there.

I shall not heed them where I lie, Nothing shall molest me in death; Nothing the headstone's fret of rain, Nothing to me the dark day's pain.

Sooner or later the sun shall shine With tender warmth on that mound of mine; Sooner or later, in summer air, Clover and violet blossom there.

I shall not heed them where I lie, Nothing shall molest me in death; Nothing the headstone's fret of rain, Nothing to me the dark day's pain.

Sooner or later the sun shall shine With tender warmth on that mound of mine; Sooner or later, in summer air, Clover and violet blossom there.

I shall not heed them where I lie, Nothing shall molest me in death; Nothing the headstone's fret of rain, Nothing to me the dark day's pain.

Sooner or later the sun shall shine With tender warmth on that mound of mine; Sooner or later, in summer air, Clover and violet blossom there.

I shall not heed them where I lie, Nothing shall molest me in death; Nothing the headstone's fret of rain, Nothing to me the dark day's pain.

Sooner or later the sun shall shine With tender warmth on that mound of mine; Sooner or later, in summer air, Clover and violet blossom there.

I shall not heed them where I lie, Nothing shall molest me in death; Nothing the headstone's fret of rain, Nothing to me the dark day's pain.

Sooner or later the sun shall shine With tender warmth on that mound of mine; Sooner or later, in summer air, Clover and violet blossom there.

The Bradford Reporter.

E. O. GOODRICH, Publisher. REGARDLESS OF DENUNCIATION FROM ANY QUARTER. $2 per Annum, in Advance.

VOLUME XXVII. TOWANDA, BRADFORD COUNTY, PA., AUGUST 23, 1866. NUMBER 13.

their restoration to the protection of the Government, of law and order, and that as far as I was concerned, I was willing to forget the past. I begged them to sub- scribe cheerfully and unreservedly to the new order of things...

THE FARTHER SHORE. BY MATTIE WINFIELD TORRETT. The tide is deep and the waves run swift, With a ceaseless ebb and flowing;

A MOTHER'S LOVE. Some years ago, some English officers camping in the vicinity of Multaspoor went out tiger-hunting and bagged a splendid tiger. Whilst returning home with the trophy, they found in a secluded spot...

Senator in Congress took the same view. For myself, if I had any doubt on the subject, I have deferred to the opinions of abler men. The total number of delegates composing the convention was 150.

THE ISLAND OF VALENTIA.—The island of Valentia, the Irish terminus of the Atlantic cable, is about six thousand acres in extent. It has three proprietors, of whom the Knight of Kerry is the chief...

It was the roar, or rather combination of shriek and roar, peculiar to the tiger when driven mad with rage. In an instant the gamboling kitten became every inch a tiger, and strained with all its baby strength at the tether, while it replied, with a loud wail, to the terrible voice outside.

When the members of the Legislature met in extra session, in the month of November, 1865, convened by me for the purpose of raising money to restore the broken levees, and to take measures to redeem the credit of the State...

IN THE GREAT MYSTERY.—The body is to die; so much is certain. What lies beyond? No one who passes the charmed boundary comes back to tell.

LENGTH OF GEOLOGICAL PERIODS.—All the facts of geology tend to indicate an antiquity of which we are beginning to form but a dim idea. Take, for instance, one single formation—our well known chalk.

The police received their orders, and on Monday morning they were in large numbers at the corners of Canal and Dryades streets, each having one or more revolvers on his person.

USELESS YOUNG LADIES.—It scarcely admits of doubt that the number of young ladies is constantly increasing who think happiness dependent of freedom from responsibility and labor.

WHAT A MOTHER CAN DO.—"Twelve or fifteen years ago," says ex-Governor Briggs, "I left Washington three or four weeks during the spring, while at home, I possessed myself of the letters of Mr. Adams' mother, and read them with exceeding interest."

ONE DROP AT A TIME.—Have you ever watched an icicle as it formed? You noticed how it froze one drop at a time until it was a foot long or more.

UNLESS YOUNG LADIES.—It scarcely admits of doubt that the number of young ladies is constantly increasing who think happiness dependent of freedom from responsibility and labor.

A QUAKER IN BUSINESS IN PHILADELPHIA.—A Quaker in business in Philadelphia, disliking the "Esp," to his name, advised a correspondent to direct his letters to him without any title, and received a reply subscribed: "Amos Smith, without any title, Philadelphia."

WHY DID NOT THE MAYOR OR HIS CHIEF of police station a guard at the door and forbid any person from entering, and then await the arrival of the military?

THE LAST CASE OF INDOLENCE IS REPORTED IN ONE OF our exchanges; it is that of a man named John Hole, who was so lazy, that in writing his name simply wrote "L. H.", and then punched a hole through the paper.

WHEN A DAY BEGINS.—Most nations begin to count the hours from midnight; but this plan was not adopted by men in early ages of the world, and is now used by three fourths of the nations of the earth.

THE LEGAL RIGHT OF THE CONVENTION TO continue its functions is a question, I suppose, properly pertaining to the courts to decide. Senators and Representatives in Congress, of great learning, and men of high attainments in New Orleans, have expressed the opinion that, under the resolution of adjournment, the convention could lawfully assemble.

THE LAST CASE OF INDOLENCE IS REPORTED IN ONE OF our exchanges; it is that of a man named John Hole, who was so lazy, that in writing his name simply wrote "L. H.", and then punched a hole through the paper.

WHEN A DAY BEGINS.—Most nations begin to count the hours from midnight; but this plan was not adopted by men in early ages of the world, and is now used by three fourths of the nations of the earth.

THE LEGAL RIGHT OF THE CONVENTION TO continue its functions is a question, I suppose, properly pertaining to the courts to decide. Senators and Representatives in Congress, of great learning, and men of high attainments in New Orleans, have expressed the opinion that, under the resolution of adjournment, the convention could lawfully assemble.

THE LAST CASE OF INDOLENCE IS REPORTED IN ONE OF our exchanges; it is that of a man named John Hole, who was so lazy, that in writing his name simply wrote "L. H.", and then punched a hole through the paper.

WHEN A DAY BEGINS.—Most nations begin to count the hours from midnight; but this plan was not adopted by men in early ages of the world, and is now used by three fourths of the nations of the earth.

THE LEGAL RIGHT OF THE CONVENTION TO continue its functions is a question, I suppose, properly pertaining to the courts to decide. Senators and Representatives in Congress, of great learning, and men of high attainments in New Orleans, have expressed the opinion that, under the resolution of adjournment, the convention could lawfully assemble.

THE LAST CASE OF INDOLENCE IS REPORTED IN ONE OF our exchanges; it is that of a man named John Hole, who was so lazy, that in writing his name simply wrote "L. H.", and then punched a hole through the paper.

WHEN A DAY BEGINS.—Most nations begin to count the hours from midnight; but this plan was not adopted by men in early ages of the world, and is now used by three fourths of the nations of the earth.

THE LEGAL RIGHT OF THE CONVENTION TO continue its functions is a question, I suppose, properly pertaining to the courts to decide. Senators and Representatives in Congress, of great learning, and men of high attainments in New Orleans, have expressed the opinion that, under the resolution of adjournment, the convention could lawfully assemble.

THE LAST CASE OF INDOLENCE IS REPORTED IN ONE OF our exchanges; it is that of a man named John Hole, who was so lazy, that in writing his name simply wrote "L. H.", and then punched a hole through the paper.

WHEN A DAY BEGINS.—Most nations begin to count the hours from midnight; but this plan was not adopted by men in early ages of the world, and is now used by three fourths of the nations of the earth.