HEALING BY THE LAYING ON OF HANDS.—Much excitement has prevailed at Way's Hotel, in this place, since Dr. Darrin arrived, whose peculiar system of healing has created a general stir throughout the country wherever he exercises his wonderful power. From an early hour in the morning until late in the evening, his rooms are densely crowded by the "lame, halt and blind, the wounded, sick and sore," besides many others whose curiosity lead them there to witness the cures performed. We were present during one afternoon, and witnessed many remarkable cures whose curiosity lead them there to witness the cures performed. We were present during one afternoon, and witnessed many remarkable cures their crutches and walk off; the deaf were made to hear, the blind to see, and the speechless to speak. One unmistakable case came under our immediate attention,—that of dropsy and a distressing inflamatory rheumatism. The sufferer had been unable to walk or bear the slightest touch.—
