And prayer is made, and praise is given, By all things near and far ; The ocean looketh up to heaven. And mirrors every star.

Its waves are kneeling on the strand, As kneels the human knee, Their white locks bowing to the sand, The priesthood of the sea!

They pour their glittering treasures forth Their gifts of pearl they bring, And all the listening hills of earth Take up the song they sing.

The winds with hymns of praise are loud,

Or low with sobs of pain,

The thunder-organ of the cloud,

The dropping tears of rain.

The twilight forest grieves,

From all its sunlit leaves.

Its transept earth and air.

The music of its starry march

So nature keeps the reverent frame

And all her signs and voices shame

With which her years began,

The chorus of a prayer.

The green earth sends her incense up From many a mountain shrine : From folded leaf and dewy cup She pours her sacred wine.
