Bradford Reporter.

We call particular attention to the gratifying report of Sunday School operations in the County, communicated in another column by B. S. Russell, Esq., and Rev. R. Crittenden.

RECEPTION EVENING .- The new store of Taylor & Co., will be open on Saturday evening, April 13th, at 61 o'clock. For in spection only, no goods sold, will be open for business on Monday, April 15th.

We learn with pleasure that our friend J. H. Hurst, Principal of the Berwick Academy, has been honored with a commission as a Lieutenant of the 12th . S. Infantry. He expects to join his regiment immediately at Washington. Lieu Hurst served with distinction in the 141st Pa. Volunteers for three years, rising successively from the ranks to Captainey of his Company. He was a brave soldier, was. wounded in battle and still bears rebel lead in his person. Lieut. Hurst is a native of Bradford county. Last tall he was nominated and elected Coronor. - Bloomsburg Re

An exhibition of Dialogues, Declamations, Tableaux and Music, Instrumental and vocal, will be held in the basement of the Horn Brook Church, on Thursday and Friday evenings, April the 18th and 19th. BURGLARY AND THEFT .- Two young men, Cyrus Cornell and Sylvester Rosengrant, were brought to town last week to be put in jail. They are charged with entering he Factoryville Depot and stealing therefrom, two pairs of boots, a five-gallon key of whiskey, a lot of postal currency &c. Cornell is said to be from Bradford Co. and a pretty hard customer. Rosengrant gave bail for his appearance to answer at the April sessions. The key was turned on Cornell. An attempt to conceal too much of the whiskey inside of their shirts at one time, we understand, led to the discovery that they were the takers .- Tankhannoc

COBBIN'S DOMESTIC ILLUSTRATED BIBLE which has recently been put in circulation in this State by Mr. H. A. Street culation in this State by Mr. H. A. Street of Harrisburg, has many valuable and interesting features peculiar to itself and the wants of the people. We are happy to learn that the agents for this excellent work are meeting with great success, and work are meeting with great success, and we think that teachers or any one wishing for honorable and useful employment, would do well to address Mr. Street at once for particulars, and secure territory See his advertisement in another column Agents selling the Bible only, are not required to pay license. See 79, Article 32, U. S. Revenue Laws.

REAL ESTATE AGENCY .-- Especial attention is called to the announcement of Messrs. Montanne & Ward, of the opening of a Real Estate Agency at their place, and to the long list of properties already put in the market, comprising some very valuable and desirable Farms, Building Lots, &c.

FIRE IN CHATHAM. - We regret to learn that the new dwelling just erected by J. W. Burrell of Chatham, was destroyed by fire last week. It will be remembered that the dwelling this was built to replace was burned less than a year ago. Mr. Burrell is unfortunate. We hear that his neighbors, who aided him to build anew, are moving generously to his aid .- Tioga Agi-

We understand that a large Tannery is to be erected in this place during the present season. It is a fine locasupply of hemlock bark is inexhaustible.-

The grading on the Railroad between this place and Waverly has already been resumed. We understand that the road is to be completed early in June. - Ath-

the Field, Orchard and Garden, and in the grounds about the House as well as in the House. The best information about the most pleasant and profitable method of performing this work is, of course, to be found in that large, and reliable and cheap journal, the American Agriculturist. We have the April number, and it fully carries out the Publishers' promise to always keep on makeing every number better than the previous one. This, like every other issue thus far this year, has eight large pages extra. This single number contains between forty and fifty pleasing and instructiv engravings, one large and beautiful. A full three-page calender of Work to be Done will furnish many of April, 1867. W. H. WATKINS, Notary Public.

Sworn and subscribed before me, this 3rd day of April, 1867. W. H. WATKINS, Notary Public. God, you have safely landed on the shining Household. A slashing article on Humbugs exposes by name a large number of swindlers of country people. There are, besides, more than a hundred articles and items full of instruction to every cultivator of a garden plot, or a farm. More than 150,000 people now enjoy the advantages offered by the wife (and children also), should have it.—
Its beautiful pictures are alone worth many times its cost, which is only $1 50 a year, or four copies for $5. Take our advice and try the Agriculturist this year and we will guarantee satisfaction. ORANGE JUDE & CO., 41 Fark Row, New York City, are the ATTEMPTED MURDER.-As Mr. A. S. Washburn was going home on Saturday evening last when on a corner of Jackson street he was knocked down and robbed of his dragged across the railroad and thrown into a clay pit. His assailants evidently intended to kill him, as he was terribly cut about the head and face, and there is no doubt that he was left for dead. He was rendered senseless by the blows he received, and knows of nothing that transpired. He was found nearly an hour afterwards and taken to his former residence, near the coal works, where his wounds were dressed and he was then taken home. He is at and he was then taken home. He is at present doing well, notwithstanding his numerous wounds and bruises. The villains who attempted to take his life were no doubt actuated by the hope of obtaining money, as no one who knows him could inflic. injury on him for any other purpose.

This is the fourth incident of the kind on the first day of April to the store occuwhich occurred in that immediate vicinity within the past two weeks, and it is to be hoped that something may be done to bring offenders to justice, and protect the lives and property of our citizens.

GEO. Stevens will remove on the first day of April next, to the Mercur share of patronage respectfully solicited.
