day or two since, to a frightful cal- amity that occurred at Gibson, near Corning, the other night. The Jour- nal has these detailed particulars : About midnight of Friday, a small house at Gibson, occupied by John PhENAS, was consumed by fire, and four persons perished in the flames viz : Mr. Phenas, and his two sons, aged sixteen and nineteen years, and his grand-daughter, aged seven or eight years. Mr. P. was an old resi- dent of the town, and owing to his ill health and poverty, the family had largely subsisted on charity for a number of years. The honse was a small building near the tow path, a few tods east of the bighway bridge. The fire is supposed to have caught from a broken stove plate, under which was usually kept for secur- ity, but which that night had been displaced, and thus set fire to some wood or kindlings drying near the stove.
